Sentimental Education in Chinese History Paolo Santangelo, 2021-10-11 This is the long-awaited first book, the result of the author's pioneering interdisciplinary research on a key problem for understanding Chinese texts and, therewith, China: its ways of expression of emotions and states of mind. Relying on his immense database on mostly Ming and Qing sources, the author here presents the first truly solid, source-based survey on the subject. After analysing the methodological problems involved, the volume focuses on contradictions between official values on the one hand and practical compromises between individual appetitive energies and personal tendencies for wealth and gratification of desires on the other hand. It analyses the negotiating process between the rigid ethical codes and dynamic social changes, as well as how social control influences the cognitive elements of emotions, both in restraining personal passions and promoting the virtuous sentiments.

Through Frédéric's experiences, readers are treated to Flaubert's nuanced explorations of love, desire, and the challenges that accompany one's pursuit of happiness. Flaubert's meticulous style employs rich descriptions and psychological depth, allowing readers to immerse themselves in the social dynamics of the time. Sentimental Education serves not only as a coming-of-age story but also as a powerful social critique that examines the class struggles and shifting societal norms of 19th-century France.
