Separation Anxiety in Adulthood Stefano Pini, Barbara Milrod, 2023-11-23 This book presents data that challenges the long established view that separation anxiety disorder should be reserved for diagnosis among children and adolescents by demonstrating that adult onset is prevalent in many countries and that adult onset separation anxiety disorder is just as persistent and impairing as the pediatric onset form Separation anxiety disorder in adulthood is associated with high levels of disability Research and clinical data indicate that overlooking the diagnosis of adult separation anxiety disorder may result in substantial costs in the form of disability and suffering Over the last decades the Psychiatry School of Pisa in the person of Director Giovanni B Cassano M D and Stefano Pini M D has conducted seminal studies in this area and brought research data into clinical practice At the same time the Pisa School has made a paramount contribution to the DSM 5 reformulation of adult separation anxiety disorder which has since been transferred to the Anxiety Disorders chapter Barbara Milrod M D is an unusual clinical investigator She has conducted clinical research in separation anxiety disorder panic disorder and post traumatic stress disorder for the past two decades She has incorporated separation anxiety constructs into her approach to mechanisms of psychotherapy research across these disorders and in affect focused psychotherapies The book consists of 10 chapters organized into two sections a General Principles Section and Diagnosis and Treatment Section The first section focuses on the biological underpinnings of separation anxiety and on the historical pathways that led to its DSM 5 categorization the second elaborates on clinical topics preventive strategies and treatments This book will help the reader to understand and diagnose separation anxiety disorder and to bear it in mind during the differential diagnosis of patients of all ages presenting not only with anxiety but also with a variety of psychiatric and behavioral disorders Researches in Separation Anxiety Henry G. Hansburg, 1986 Separation Anxiety Christian Rivera, 2015 Separation anxiety disorder SAD is a common childhood anxiety disorder characterised by extreme anxiety in children due to the fear of separation from the primary attachment figure or from home The authors of this book examine separation anxiety and sleep problems in infants provide information on the pathophysiology of SAD and how it can affect the communication skills of children Furthermore separation anxiety can also occur in adults The authors examine separation anxiety in parents of adolescent daughters and potential treatment options for adult separation anxiety disorder based on contemporary psychodynamic models Separation : Anxiety and Anger John Bowlby, 1969 Separation E J M Bowlby, 2010-07-20 Separation the second volume of Attachment and Loss continues John Bowlby's influential work on the importance of the parental relationship to mental health Here he considers separation and the anxiety that accompanies it the fear of imminent or anticipated separation the fear induced by parental threats of separation and the inversion of the parent child relationship Dr Bowlby re examines the situations that cause us to feel fear and compares them with evidence from animals He concludes that fear is initially aroused by certain elemental situations sudden movement darkness or separation which although intrinsically harmless are indicative of an increased risk of danger Attachment and Loss is a deeply important series of works that continue to influence the landscape of psychoanalysis and psychology and its second volume Separation provides a unique exploration of anxiety in the parent child relationship Researches in Separation Anxiety Henry G. Hansburg, 1986
