Sequel To History Postmodernism And The Crisis Of Representational Time:

Sequel to History Elizabeth Deeds Ermarth, 1992 Sequel to History offers a comprehensive definition of postmodernism as a reformation of time Elizabeth Deeds Ermarth uses a diversified theoretical approach drawing on post structuralism feminism new historicism and twentieth century science to demonstrate the crisis of our dominant idea of history and its dissolution in the rhythmic time of postmodernism She enlarges this definition in discussions of several crises of cultural identity the crisis of the object the crisis of the subject and the crisis of the sign Finally she explores the relation between language and time in post modernism proposing an arresting theory of her own about the rhythmic nature of postmodern temporality Because the postmodern construction of time appears so clearly in narrative writing each part of this work is punctuated by a rhythm section on a postmodern narrative Robbe Grillet's Jealousy Cortezar's Hopscotch and Nabokov's Invitation to a Beheading these extended readings provide concrete illustrations of Ermarth's theoretical positions As in her critically acclaimed Realism and Consensus in the English Novel Ermarth ranges across disciplines from anthropology and the visual arts to philosophy and history For its interdisciplinary character and its lucid definition of postmodernism Sequel to History will appeal to all those interested in the humanities

At the Limits of History Keith Jenkins, 2013-02-01 Why bother with history Keith Jenkins has an answer He helps us re think the end of history as signalled by postmodernity Readers may disagree with him but he never fails to provoke debate about the future of the past Joanna Bourke Professor of History Birkbeck College Keith Jenkins work on historical theory is renowned this collection presents the essential elements of his work over the last fifteen years Here we see Jenkins address the difficult and complex question of defining the limits of history The collection draws together the key pieces of his work in one handy volume encompassing the ever controversial issue of postmodernism and history questions on the end of history and radical history into the future Exchanges with Perez Zagorin and Michael Coleman further illuminate the level of debate that has surrounded postmodernism and which continues to do so An extended introduction and abstracts which contextualize each piece together with a foreword by Hayden White and an afterword by Alun Munslow make this collection essential reading for all those interested in the theory and practice of history and its development over the last few decades

Frontiers of History Donald R. Kelley, 2006-01-01 In 1764-65 the irrepressible playwright Beaumarchais travelled to Madrid where he immersed himself in the life and society of the day Inspired by the places he had seen and the people he had met Beaumarchais returned home to create The Barber of Seville and The Marriage of Figaro plays that became the basis for the operas by Rossini and Mozart that continue to delight audiences today This book is a lively and original account of Beaumarchais's visit to Madrid he never went to Seville and a re creation of the society that fired his imagination Drawing on Beaumarchais's letters and commentaries translated into English for the first time Hugh Thomas investigates the full range of the playwright's activities in Madrid He focuses particular attention on short plays that Beaumarchais attended and by which he was probably influenced and he probes the inspirations for such widely recognized characters as the barber valet Figaro the lordly Count Almaviva and the beautiful but deceived Rosine Not neglecting Beaumarchais's many other pursuits ranging from an endeavour to gain a contract for selling African slaves to an attempt to place his mistress as a spy in the bed of King Charles III Lord Thomas provides a highly entertaining view of a vital moment in Madrid's history and in the creative life of the energetic Beaumarchais Lawrence Durrell,

Postmodernism and the Ethics of Alterity Stefan Herbrechter, 1999 This book is of interest for any reader wishing to explore the interface between literature and critical and cultural theory It investigates the notions of alterity which underlie the work of Lawrence Durrell and postmodernist theory Grass Irmgard Elsner Hunt History in the Discursive

Condition Elizabeth Ermarth, 2011-03-25 Elizabeth Deeds Ermarth University of Edinburgh UK and Trent University Canada teaches and writes about interdisciplinary cultural history and theory Book Jacket On the Future of History Ernst

Breisach, 2007-11-01 What does postmodernism mean for the future of history Can one still write history in postmodernity To answer questions such as these Ernst Breisach provides the first comprehensive overview of postmodernism and its complex relationship to history and historiography Placing postmodern theories in their intellectual and historical contexts he shows how they are part of broad developments in Western culture Breisach sees postmodernism as neither just a fad nor a universal remedy In clear and concise language he presents and critically evaluates the major views on history held by influential postmodernists such as Derrida Foucault Lyotard and the new narrativists Along the way he introduces to the reader major debates among historians over postmodern theories of evidence objectivity meaning and order truth and the usefulness of history He also discusses new types of history that have emerged as a consequence of postmodernism including cultural history microhistory and new historicism For anyone concerned with the postmodern challenge to history both advocates and critics alike On the Future of History will be a welcome guide Visions of the Past Robert A.

Rosenstone, 1998-08-04 Rosenstone investigates how a visual medium subject to conventions of drama and fiction might be used as a serious vehicle for thinking about our relationship with the past Employing such films as Reds JFK and Sans Soleil he considers issues like the rapport between fact and film and the documentary as visionary truth Narrative Concerns

Todd Davis, Kenneth Womack, 2025-08-20 Bridging existing gaps between postmodern theory fiction and ethics Narrative Concerns Ethical Criticism in Literature Music and Film offers an innovative critical analysis of the ways in which fictional narratives impact our lives as well as of the evolving nature of our understanding of the ethical possibilities inherent in postmodern humanism The wide array of writers directors and musicians examined in Narrative Concerns include Steven Spielberg Quentin Tarantino Jean Rhys John Irving Norman Maclean Anthony Burgess Kurt Vonnegut James Cameron Beyoncé and Mary Oliver These creators frequently explore our postmodern preoccupation with the void in new and often innovative ways from their challenging perceptions of the family humor and narrative design to their examinations of the past the power of history and the redemptive nature of humanity Davis and Womack read their works to demonstrate a fascinating assortment of literary characters in the act of generating new conceptions of selfhood underscore how a given text's construction affects our understanding of the ethically motivated acts of authorship and storytelling and address the powerful bonds of human community By challenging the very nature in which we conduct literary and theoretical studies ethical criticism thus offers useful forays into a wide range of disciplines from feminism and gender studies to cultural criticism and the dynamics of race and ethnicity Rewriting Democracy Elizabeth Deeds Ermarth, 2017-05-15

Illuminating and comprehensive this excellent volume addresses the problematic relationship between democratic institutions and the current critique of enlightenment and modernity Since at least the beginning of the twentieth century and across the range of practice from science to politics to art various cultural shifts have unsettled assumptions that have been fundamental to the development of democratic institutions assumptions concerning individual identity the nature of political systems and the viability of egalitarian ideals Can democracy survive these changes to the value systems upon which it has been based for over two centuries This study does not focus on the often repeated particulars of past or current events such as 9 11 or the genocide in Darfur but instead examines the terms and conditions under which it would be possible to prevent such events in the future Space and Time David C. Wright, Jr., Allan W. Austin, 2010-04-19 Essays in this work examine treatments of history in science fiction and fantasy television programs from a variety of disciplinary and methodological perspectives Some essays approach science fiction and fantasy television as primary evidence demonstrating how such programs consciously or unconsciously elucidate persistent concerns and enduring ideals of a past era and place Other essays study television as secondary evidence investigating how popular media construct and communicate narratives about past events
