S. Byatt's Possession and in Mythology Gillian M. E. Alban,2003-01-01 Melusine the Serpent Goddess in Myth and Literature examines how women were once worshipped as the life force but later suppressed with the introduction of monotheism and a changing attitude regarding the sexes It connects the literary conception of the Melusine story to myths and legends of the snake or dragon goddess from ancient to contemporary times The British Christian Women's Movement Jenny Daggars,2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2002 This book presents a timely study of a neglected British Christian women s movement Jenny Daggars charts the inception of the movement in the exciting times of the post sixties decades amid new currents generated in the British denominational churches and the wider current of Women s Liberation Focusing on Christian women s concern with the position of women in the church this book identifies a core Christian women s theology which affirms a rehabilitated new Eve in Christ and so contrasts with a concurrent paradigm shift taking shape in North American feminist theology Daggars argues that this divergence is primarily due to the effect of the prolonged Church of England women s ordination debate upon the ethos of the British Christian women s movement

Women and Embodied Mythmaking in Irish Theatre Shonagh Hill,2019-08-29 The rich legacy of women s contributions to Irish theatre is traditionally viewed through a male dominated literary canon and mythmaking thus arguably silencing their work In this timely book Shonagh Hill proposes a feminist genealogy which brings new perspectives to women s mythmaking across the twentieth and twenty first centuries The performances considered include the tableaux vivants performed by the Inghinidhe na h ireann Daughters of Ireland plays written by Alice Milligan Maud Gonne Lady Augusta

Gregory Eva Gore Booth Mary Devenport O'Neill Mary Elizabeth Burke Kennedy Paula Meehan Edna O'Brien and Marina Carr as well as plays translated adapted and performed by Olwen Fou r The theatrical work discussed resists the occlusion of women's cultural engagement that results from confinement to idealised myths of femininity This is realised through embodied mythmaking a process which exposes how bodies bear the consequences of these myths while refusing to accept the female body as passive bearer of inscription through the assertion of a creative female corporeality Ritual Remembering International Association for the Study of Anglo-Irish Literature. International Congress, 1995 Most of the essays in Ritual Remembering History Myth and Politics in Anglo Irish Drama in part or in whole frequently allude or directly concern themselves with the dramatic representation of the opposition or the collusion of myth and history and the uses and abuses of both Equally they celebrate and critically analyse the politics of the social conscience and social consciousness which pervades Irish drama in its rituals of forgetfulness and memory Perhaps myth is above all to be understood as the conscience and consciousness of history and politics is the projection of that myth into present social action on the hustings nowadays more frequently the television hustings at the ballot box in writing and on the stage Most of the articles in this volume revolve around these gravely portentous and ambivalent themes which nobody who is as much concerned with Anglo Irish relations as with Anglo Irish literature can disregard or evade Call No One on Earth Your Father Josephine E. Armour, 2019-03-29 This book brings a critique to the theology of the ordained ministry in contemporary Catholicism a theology that fosters clericalism It challenges a theology that views the ordained as set apart for a particular work over and against the laity This book brings critique to current practices including lifelong commitment to the ordained ministry the requirement of celibacy for the ordained and the exclusion of women from the ordained ministry The author examines history reclaiming elements that have been distorted or forgotten and asks What is retrievable in the tradition that is freeing and redeeming for a renewed theology The critique of the traditional theology and current practices in the ordained ministry and the retrieval of relevant elements of the tradition is a springboard for reconstructing a theology of the ordained ministry The model of the Trinity is suggested as an image for the ordained ministry itself and through its relational nature the ministry of the whole church The model of the Trinity sets the ordained ministry in its rightful context of the Christian community where all of the gifts of the baptized are valued and where ministry is collaborative non hierarchical and mutually enriching for the people of God Women in Early Medieval Europe, 400-1100 Lisa M. Bitel, 2002-10-24 This is a history of the early European middle ages through the eyes of women combining the rich literature of women's history with original research in the context of mainstream history and traditional chronology The book begins at the end of the Roman empire and ends with the start of the long eleventh century when women and men set out to test the old frontiers of Europe The book recreates the lives of ordinary women but also tells personal stories of individuals Each chapter also questions an assumption of medieval historiography and uses the few documents produced by women themselves along with archaeological evidence art and the written records of medieval men to tell of women their experiences and ideas and their relations with men It covers the continent and its exotic edges such as Iceland Ireland and Iberia looking at women Christian and non Christian alike She Is Everywhere! Volume 3 Mary Beth Moser, Mary Saracino, 2012-02-15 She Is Everywhere Volume 3 presents a bold brave and beautiful compilation of womanist feminist essays poems and artwork showcasing work from an international community of women and men who honor the Sacred Female The fifty contributors in this anthology scholars creative writers and visual artists share their vision for a world that reclaims the inviolability of the Divine Female in all Her many and varied manifestations She Is Everywhere Volume 3 is the latest edition of a leading edge series which like its predecessors offers an invaluable contribution to womens spirituality religion philosophy and womens studies The contemporary voices contained within its pages echo an ancient clarion call to embrace the values of justice with compassion equality for all people and transformation We have a calling in this world namely to prevent the destruction from continuing Claudia von Werlhof I am in the presence of a divine Mother and She is fulfilling a deep longing inside of me Nicole Margiasso Tran She was I am my daughter is because we are all Her Ettole McKee Just as dark matter mother in space shapes galaxies and holds them together we are shaped and held by the African Dark Mother who has given us Her life force and resides in the very depths of our being where the macrocosm is literally reflected in the microcosm Leslene della Madre
