Maternal Grief in the Hebrew Bible

Ekaterina E. Kozlova, 2017-05-26 Setting out from the observation made in the social sciences that maternal grief can at times be a motor of societal change Ekaterina E Kozlova demonstrates that a similar mechanism operates also in the biblical world Kozlova argues that maternal grief is treated as a model or archetype of grief in biblical and Ancient Near Eastern literature The work considers three narratives and one poem that illustrate the transformative power of maternal grief in the biblical presentation Gen 21 Hagar and Ishmael in the desert 2 Sam 21 1 14 Rizpah versus King David 2 Sam 14 the speech of the Tekoite woman Jer 31 15 22 Rachel weeping for her children Although only one of the texts literally refers to a bereaved mother 2 Sam 21 on Rizpah all four passages draw on the motif of maternal grief and all four stage some form of societal transformation Motherhood in the Face of Trauma Maria Muzik, Katherine Lisa Rosenblum, 2017-11-22 This volume offers an overview of the latest research on perinatal adaptation among women who have faced trauma loss and or adversity both in childhood and or as an adult and describes the varied trajectories of adaptive and maladaptive coping that follow The range of outcomes considered span from health limiting e g mental illness substance use unhealthy life style behaviours to health promoting e g resilience and posttraumatic growth These outcomes are examined both in relation to mothers experience of motherhood and parenting and with regard to their children s lives Interpersonal trauma experienced in childhood and or adulthood can have a profound effect on how women experience the transition into motherhood from pregnancy to childbirth and postpartum caregiving Women across the globe are exposed to high rates of interpersonal violence and face the physical and emotional consequences of such events The shift into motherhood is an emotionally evocative period in a woman s life entailing not only challenges but also the potential for healing and growth Individual chapters will present state of the art research and will also highlight the voices of women who have personally experienced trauma illustrating the effects on their experiences as mothers Throughout the book the consistent emphasis is on clinical implications and on ways that providers can create a context for healing and growth with the help of current evidence based and promising treatment methods Mothers Bereaved by Stillbirth, Neonatal Death or Sudden Infant Death

Syndrome Frances M. Boyle, 2018-10-26 First published in 1997 this volume studied families bereaved by perinatal or infant death including factors both preceding and following the experience and its effect on areas such as marriage mental health and future conception based on interviews with 194 women living in south eastern Queensland Australia Tracing the natural history of the first thirty months of their loss all mothers completed semi structured interviews and standardized questionnaires at two eight fifteen and thirty months following the baby s death The study aims to explain and explore these effects and to suggest some potential recommendations for the care and support of women who experience stillbirth neonatal death or SIDS Mourning the Dreams Claudia Malacrida, 2016-09-17 Mourning the Dreams is an accessible and moving account of parents experiences of grief and recovery after losing an infant during pregnancy childbirth or within the first month of life Drawing from the sociology of emotions health research and psychology her own experience and a range of qualitative methods Claudia Malacrida finds that bereaved parents not only grieve their child and its unrealized potential but often find their personal experiences are at odds with social forces and prevailing assumptions about the nature of their loss and how they should react to it She explores the meanings parents create as they face denial silence and other reactions from friends family communities coworkers the medical community and even within spousal relationships She also describes the courage and creativity of parents who create and negotiate meanings that help them grieve recover and manage relationships
