Mothers Song

Ellin Greene

Mothers Song:

Songs of the Mothers Joe Morris Doss,2002 Mother's Song Ellin Greene,2008 This tender lyrical song is an outpouring of a young mother's love for her baby She compares her little one to every good thing from roses and pearls to the queen herself in lovely simple verses In the charming subtext created by artist Elizabeth Sayles the setting is an idyllic twilight world where fairies and sprites play among the flowers and craft an exquisite gift for the sleeping mother and child Collected in the English countryside by 19th century folklorist Sabine Baring Gould the words of the lullaby have come down to us without music A melody has been composed for this book and appears with simple piano accompaniment following the text Spoken or sung Mother's Song is a romantic rhapsody that goes straight to the listener's heart The Lullaby Book; Or, Mothers' Love Songs ,1921 Mother's Day Song, Father's Day Song and More Johnson Gao,2014-05-14 There are many songs for the Mother's Day that children can sing However none of them are very popular in compared with the common Birthday Song The author composed a unique Mother's Day Song both in English and in Chinese versions on his 77 years old birthday He hoped that his Mother's Day Song could reach certain level of popularity because that song was based on his short lyrics For Mammy that poem had been viewed by more than 147 543 people at the time when the current song was re written He also re composed his Father's Day Song By linking those to songs he produced the Rose Parade Marching Song Some other songs that he published before were also included Such as Olympic Marching Song Suzhou the Eastern Venice and more There are altogether 12 songs in this music sheet book It has 100 pages Songs of Mother Norman C. Schlichter,1923 Songs My Mother Wrote Carolyn Trocino,2007-04-16 Songs My Mother Wrote is a poetic journey about my life with my mother and how I was able to make a choice about how I was going to handle the loss of my mother I decided to celebrate her life I hope this book can help others who have lost someone special overcome the grief and sorrow of loss Joyce Fizzolio died of lung cancer on July 8 2004 She was a child a sister a wife a mother a grandmother and a well known and respected voice teacher My mother studied music at Wayne State University and she graduated from the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto She was a coloratura soprano and teacher Her concert debut was with the American Symphony Orchestra of New York My mother performed in twenty three musicals and she made her Broadway debut as a feature soloist at the Palace Theater in New York City She taught singing lessons for several years and she was a member of several music organizations My mother's creative outlet was her voice My creative outlet is my writing During my time of grieving and loss I found comfort in writing poetry I was amazed at how my writing changed as I started to channel my grief and sadness into learning more about myself and my purpose and my healing We are all born with gifts and we must look at our gifts to bring forward the memory of someone special This is my gift and I hope you enjoy the poetry If you knew my mother I hope it gives you a smile to remember what a dynamic and wonderful person she was in life Conceptions of Development D.J. Lewkowicz,R. Lickliter,2018-10-24 This is a volume about the process of scientific discovery Thirteen leading senior scientists each interested in some aspect of behavioral development recount their intellectual journeys over the course of their careers and document their individual struggles to better understand and describe various developmental phenomena. Covering a broad range of topics including perceptual motor social and cognitive development the contributors to this volume provide case studies of how one pursues a long term systematic research program and how scientists continually formulate and reformulate their working conceptual frameworks based on their research results. Conceptions of Development provides a unique and personal behind the scenes account of the process of scientific discovery illustrating that useful and enduring scientific insight derives from the bidirectional interplay between empirical work and theory formulation. This volume will be of interest to a broad audience consisting not only of psychologists and psychobiologists interested in the study of development but also teachers and students interested in behavioral development and its investigation and the general reader interested in the process of scientific discovery.

Emerging Trends in Indigenous Language Media, Communication, Gender, and Health Oyesomi, Kehinde Opeyemi, Salawu, Abiodun, 2020-02-01 The importance of communication in health related matters cannot be overemphasized. Despite modern global advancements indigenous communication methods assume a large part of health practices in rural regions throughout the world including areas in Africa and Asia. Indigenous language remains one of the strongest means of communication and a vital function in local communities across the globe. Emerging Trends in Indigenous Language Media Communication Gender and Health is a collection of innovative research that vitalizes, directs and shapes scholarship and global understanding in the aforementioned areas and provides sustainable policy trajectory measures for indigenous language media and health advocacy. This book will provide a better global understanding of the significance indigenous language still has in modern society. While highlighting topics including digitalization, sustainability and health education this book is ideally designed for researchers, anthropologists, sociologists, advocates, medical practitioners, world health organizations, media professionals, government officials, policymakers, practitioners, academicians and students.
