Flights of Fancy and Food for Thought Linda Anne Monica Schneider,2016-09-26 This collection of short stories and essays contains a variety of selections that are often flights of fancy and imagination but some of them may rise to the level of food for thought The first long story is a futuristic science fiction piece envisioning a world where power struggles and usurping of liberties and rights occur in cyberspace not territory The rest of the stories comprise a wide variety of writings and thoughts They range from fantasies to science fiction pieces to some animal toy teddy bear and allegory stories that may appeal to children and the young at heart as well as some serious reflections about the meaning of major celebrations of Christmas and Easter The author hopes that her readers will enjoy these stories and essays She decided not to use a title speaking of specific desserts and treats because too many people were mistaking her earlier short story collections for cookbooks I still maintain that good stories and literature are every bit as nourishing as dinners and desserts but in a more profound way she insists A Dictionary of Altitudes in the United States ,1899 Rough Magic Theatre Company Hilary

Yoneo Ishii,1998-07-09 At a time when other sources on Southeast Asia were relatively scarce a remarkable set of reports were compiled in Nagasaki from the evidence of Chinese junk captains arriving from Southern ports Hundreds of these reports have been preserved in Japan covering the period 1674 1723 Though published in Japanese they have never been available in any other language to Southeast Asianists and thus have usually been ignored in histories of the region. They reveal a great deal about not only the East Asia trade of Siam, Cambodia, the Malayan Peninsula and Java but also the internal conflicts and political systems of the area. The book serves to provide researchers with data that was previously inaccessible. Geological Survey Bulletin, 1973 Chat Groups in the Immortal Realm Feng

This work represents the process of evolution of modern Buddhist rituals and concrete features of popularization and modernization of Buddhism. An Jinho, a scholar monk who worked around Yecheon and Mungyeong of North Gyeongsang Province, dedicated himself to the translation and publication of Buddhist canonical texts by establishing the publishing institute Mansanghoe. He is also well known as the editor of Seongmun uibeom Buddhist Ritual Manual (1935), the compilation of traditional Buddhist rituals. Choe Chwiheo is also a scholar monk who worked in North Gyeongsang Province and participated in the Mind Field Development Movement, a movement in the middle and late 1930s to educate people common people that simultaneously promoted agriculture in the countryside. Essential Compendium for Buddhists: A Modern Buddhist Liturgy is a collection that describes various Buddhist chanting or worship ceremonies. This book was reviewed by the Buddhist scholars Gwon Sangno and Gim Taeheup, and Han Yongun sponsored the publication. The main body is comprised of abbreviated excerpts from various Buddhist ceremonial texts along with additional explanations in the Korean language. This work encompasses the traditional process of Buddhist rituals and regular ceremonies along with verses, ritual prayers, precepts and entreaties on the one hand and reflects Buddhist efforts toward modernization in the process of its adaptation to the new age on the other. As an essential guide to Korean Buddhist rituals and ceremonies, this book was used as an indispensable manual for temple ceremonies and daily Buddhist events. The source text of this translation was the moveable lead type edition published at Yeonbansa (1931) which was sold at Buddhist societies, Bulgyosa.
