Waging War to Make Peace Susan Yoshihara, 2010-04-09 A revealing examination looks at the decision making in four

NATO capitals about waging war in Kosovo and Iraq Written by a combat veteran who also served on the faculty of the Naval War College Waging War to Make Peace U S Intervention in Global Conflicts is a thought provoking analysis of the decision to make war in the modern world The subject is examined through the lens of the decision making of four NATO nations Britain France Germany and the United States in the 1999 Kosovo campaign compared to their decisions in 2003 regarding the Iraq war What emerges is a picture of how the bitter dispute over Iraq was the result of disagreements about who has the authority to wage war when it is justified and whether nations have an obligation to intervene in the case of human rights and humanitarian emergencies The book shows how those who enthusiastically hailed a new era of warfare based upon human rights and humanitarian values misjudged the significance of the Kosovo decision and it underscores issues with which leaders must come to grips if NATO allies are to avoid broader disputes in the years ahead Dark Territory in the Information Age Matthew G. Hannah, 2017-05-15 Through a detailed account of the West German census controversies of the 1980s this book offers a robust and geographical sense of what effective resistance and empowerment might mean in an age when the intensification of surveillance society appears to render us ever more passive and incapable of controlling our own registration A Short History of Global Evangelicalism Mark Hutchinson, John Wolffe, 2012-04-30 An overview of the history of evangelicalism as a global movement from its origins in the eighteenth century to the present Movement Genesis Steve Breyman, 1998 The first systematic examination of the West German anti missile movement of the 1980 s this book explores an unparalleled citizen mobilization that played a crucial role in bringing superpower rivalry to a close The product of extensive primary research this book advances social movement theory and the political sociology of peace movements deepens our understanding of the interactions of political parties and political movements examines the links between public opinion and organized dissent and assesses the impact and legacy of a movement that shook the halls of power from Washington to Moscow Citizens, Experts, and the Environment Frank Fischer, 2000-12-19 Claims that the problematic communication gap between experts and ordinary citizens is best remedied by a renewal of local citizen participation in deliberative structures Knowledge, Power, and Participation in Environmental Policy Analysis Rob Hoppe, 2018-01-16 This volume probes practical dilemmas and competing research perspectives in environmental policy analysis Scholars working in different fields research traditions societies and policy domains offer significant insights into the processes and consequences of environmental policy making Part 1 Coping with Boundaries describes present day conflict between experts and greater public participation in environmental policy It shows that the institutionalization of increasingly complex environmental problems has led to a conflict between technocracy and democracy Part 2 The Transnational Challenge examines modes of cooperation between grassroots movements scientists and regional authorities in the United States and Canada These and other modes of cooperation laid the foundations for the Great Lakes Water Quality Agreement increased the effectiveness of air pollution treaties and increased climate change Part 3 Bio Hazards Policies and Paralysis deals with environmental problems closest to the everyday concerns of the public at large because they have immediate implications for food safety and other values Part 4 The Citizens Perspective focuses on citizen vis a vis environmental policy noting that in order to make policies work citizens must be willing and able to participate in policy making and cooperate in implementing environmental choices Part 5 Confronting Ordinary and Expert Knowledge explores opportunities and constraints affecting public participation in evaluation of science Part 6 Developments in Research Programming addresses such questions as whether scientists still have opportunities to do the research they want without being interrupted or disturbed by policy makers and other stakeholders Part 7 Policy Sciences Aspirations explores different avenues for improving environmental policy Volume twelve in the PSRA series should inspire further investigations of the relations among knowledge power and participation in environmental policy It will be of timely interest to environmentalists policy makers scholars and the general public

The Writers Directory, 2013 Mexicano and Latino Politics and the Quest for Self-Determination Armando Navarro, 2015-01-08

This book examines the current status of Mexicano and Latino politics in the United States Political scientist and community activist Armando Navarro maintains that both represent a dysfunctional and failed mode of politics attributable to their system maintenance and mainstream ideological orientation and approach As colonial agents they protect both a United States that is decaying and declining and the degenerative liberal capitalist system Navarro argues that the United States is not a representative democracy but in fact is a White Corpocratic Dictatorship controlled by Capital which is evolving into a Fascist State The book provides an in depth analysis and contention that Mexicanos and Latinos in Aztlan Southwest are an occupied and internal colonized people It argues they are the Palestinians and Kurds of the United States His supposition is sustained by the book's profiles of Mexicano political history demography socioeconomics electoral politics immigration and the Triad Crisis e g Second Great Depression Global Economic Crisis and Global Capitalist Crisis Each chapter provides the justification and case for Navarro's two unique alternative change models applicable to today's bankrupt and failed Mexicano and Latino Politics in the twenty first century The preferred model is Aztlan's Politics of a Nation Within a Nation APNWN which is based on the models of the Mormon Nation of Utah and that of French Quebec Navarro therefore calls for the reformation of the United States liberal capitalist system by way of social democracy for the empowerment of Mexicanos and Latinos His second model is Aztlan's Politics of Separatism APS which offers two strategic options 1 Aztlan Southwest becoming a separate and sovereign nation state or 2 its reannexation and re integration with Mexico Navarro outlines a plan of action for building a New Movement designed to attain APNWN or APS In addition several ominous forecasts are made such as the United States being in a state of decline and no longer a hegemonic superpower due to the rise of a multi polar world Moreover Navarro attributes the United States decline to the inherent contradictions of global capitalism His sobering message is that if the current economic conditions are left unchanged this will produce an End of Times scenario the unleashing of the Four Horseman of the Apocalypse International Affairs ,1998 Choice ,1998
