Valor and Courage Benjamin J. Hruska, 2021-07-06 Recounts the stories of the USS Block Island CVE 21 and CVE 106 and their crews many of whom served on both ships in the Atlantic and Pacific theatres From the Tiger's Den Elmer W. Koneman, Jack E. Carver, Clifton, Beverly Sparks, 2002 This book is a series of remembrances and vignettes of a 1950 high school class who were born during the Great Depression and spent their childhoods during World War II Memories of these events are included in sections on the Great Depression and World War II Stories are included from those serving in the Korean and Vietnam wars The book ends with a legacy section in which we ponder what our accomplishments over the last half century may mean for the future The Leatherneck, 1952 We Will Stand by You Theodore C. Mason, 2013-01-15 This view of the war from the mess deck of a fleet tug is far different from those written from a flag bridge vantage A Navy radio man Ted Mason recalls his years of action in the Pacific with candor and humor offering perceptive evaluations of shipmates and exhibiting cool skepticism toward his leaders The USS Pawnee rescued many ships during her 25 month tour of the South and Western Pacific and this story of the heroics performed by her crew makes intriguing reading Apollo 12 - On the Ocean of Storms David M. Harland, 2011-02-26 In July 1969 the amiable strangers that made up the crew of the historic Apollo 11 flight successfully achieved the first manned lunar landing Several months later three close friends set off on an even more challenging mission Free of the burden of making history the Apollo 12 astronauts were determined to really enjoy their experience while taking care of business This is the story of their mission told largely in their own words Their exploits and accomplishments showed how conservative the inaugural mission had been With its two moonwalks deployment of the first geophysical station on the Moon and geological sampling Apollo 12 did what many had hoped would be achieved by the first men to land on the Moon The Apollo 12 mission also spectacularly demonstrated the precision landing capability required for success in future lunar surface explorations In addition to official documents published prior to and after the mission APOLLO 12 ON THE OCEAN OF STORMS draws on the flight transcript and post mission debriefing to recreate the drama Days of Steel Rain Brent E. Jones, 2021-05-11 This intimate true account of Americans at war follows the epic drama of an unlikely group of men forced to work together in the face of an increasingly desperate enemy during the final year of World War II Sprawling across the Pacific this untold story follows the crew of the newly built vengeance ship USS Astoria named for her sunken predecessor lost earlier in the war At its center lies U S Navy Captain George Dyer who vowed to return to action after suffering a horrific wound He accepted the ship's command in 1944 knowing it would be his last chance to avenge his injuries and salvage his career Yet with the nation's resources and personnel stretched thin by the war he found that just getting the ship into action would prove to be a battle Tensions among the crew flared from the start Astoria's sailors and Marines were a collection of replacements retreads and older men Some were broken by previous traumatic combat most had no desire to be in the war yet all found themselves fighting an enemy more afraid of surrender than death The reluctant ship was called to respond to challenges that its men never could have anticipated From a typhoon where the ocean was enemy to daring rescue missions a gallant turn at Iwo Jima and the ultimate crucible against the Kamikaze at Okinawa they endured the worst of the final year of the war at sea Days of Steel Rain brings to life more than a decade of research and firsthand interviews depicting with unprecedented insight the singular drama of a captain grappling with an untested crew and men who had endured enough amidst some of the most brutal fighting of World War II Throughout Brent Jones fills the narrative with secret diaries memoirs letters interpersonal conflicts and the innermost thoughts of the Astoria men and more than 80 photographs that have never before been published Days of Steel Rain weaves an intimate unforgettable portrait of leadership heroism endurance and redemption Shepherds of the Sea

Robert F Cross,2010-05-15 This compelling tale of courage heroism and terror is told in the words of ninety one sailors and officers interviewed by the author about their World War II service aboard fifty six destroyer escorts They reveal many never before told details of life at sea during wartime and along with information found in secretly kept war diaries and previously unpublished personal photographs add important dimensions to the official record Unseasoned teenage recruits when they first went to sea these sailors were led by inexperienced college boys more accustomed to yachts than warships Their ships were untested vessels designed by a man with no formal training in ship design and which many viewed as a waste of money Yet as Cross points out these men are credited with helping turn the tide of the war in the Atlantic as they singlehandedly sank some seventy U boats and captured U 505 the only German submarine taken during the war and the first enemy vessel captured by Americans at sea since the War of 1812 In the Pacific the destroyer escorts fought in every major battle side by side with Allied battleships and destroyers But this story is not just about battles It is also about American genius hard work honor and growing up in the Great Depression The author provides eyewitness details about the historic first step taken to end racial discrimination in the military as African Americans stepped aboard the destroyer escort USS Mason as full fledged sailors for the first time and earned a Navy commendation of heroism in the Battle of the Atlantic presented to the surviving crewmen fifty one years later Readers also learn about an ingenious invention when a sailor breaks his silence about a secret weapon tested aboard his destroyer escort that rendered a new German radio controlled glide bomb useless The Other Side of September Don Musselman,2014-04-29 After service in Korea Don Madison a Corpsman in the Navy visualized a happy life with his irresistible fianc Hanna Bentley who was so much in love with him when he left for Korea but how does he react when he returns after a year and finds she is pregnant Feeling betrayed and crushed he s transferred to Mare Island Naval Hospital in California Upon arrival he discovers his new Superior Officer is a woman Lt Erin O Quinn is a gorgeous redhead with blue eyes and a body to die for Erin does all the right things for him to fall in love with her But she causes friction when she acquires a newfound friend Douglas Arrington III whom she met on an airplane while flying home for Christmas Don is suspicious of how close the relationship is between Erin and Douglas He wonders if she is still a virgin or just pretends to be She doesn't want to let Don go but he feels she is secretly seeing Roger without his knowledge Will Don discover whether he is wrong about his mistrust of Erin or will he find he was right in his assumption of her actions Don finds life was not as confusing in the poor coal mining town where he was raised But if all that has happened with Hanna and Erin is not enough he finds himself being arrested for armed robbery and murder while on leave in San Francisco Will he be able to prove his innocence The Other Side of September is filled with excitement and surprises that will make it difficult to put the book down

Death Roll Robert Eisen, 2018-11-29 John Ridgeway an only child born in 1918 to a poor working class family grew up in the shadow of New York City His father died when he was ten and despite the obstacles and hardships of the Great Depression John excelled in school His perseverance and hard work was rewarded by earning a scholarship to college In 1938 he experienced the Long Island Express a destructive Cape Verde hurricane named for its sudden arrival without much warning This event left a lasting impression on John John having graduated from college fell in love with Ellen whom he met at the 1939 New York World's Fair and they wedded a year and a half later With war looming on the horizon and the United States entry almost certain John enlisted in the navy's newly created officer candidate school Upon graduation he was appointed to Fort Schuyler as an instructor but after almost two years of teaching felt he had to do more so he applied for sea duty and was assigned to the battleship South Dakota In his first two months he experienced enough battle action to last a lifetime Severely damaged the South Dakota returned to New York for repairs but a reunion with Ellen was not to be John was transferred to the destroyer Warrington as executive officer and spent the next two years shuttling supplies between islands in the Pacific The Warrington in dire need of a maintenance overhaul returned to New York and John had the reunion with Ellen that was stolen when he transferred from the South Dakota The Warrington's repairs were mostly superficial but the ship's fate was determined by forces beyond her control The ship sailed from Norfolk Virginia despite a weather alert about a hurricane off the Bahamas John expressed his concern about this foolhardy decision to the captain but was powerless to change the course of events The Warrington sailed into the maelstrom of the Great Atlantic Hurricane

Aboard the Farragut Class Destroyers in World War II Leo Block, 2009-06-08 This book describes the life of the enlisted men aboard a Farragut class destroyer during the pre World War II years the war preparation period in 1941 and the wartime years It features first person narrations collected from interviews and correspondence with the few remaining Farragut class destroyer sailors and briefly describes the evolution of the destroyer and the Farragut class destroyers five of which survived the war

Little Ship, Big War Edward P Stafford, 2012-04-15 Manned almost entirely by reservists the USS Abercrombie DE343 and her sister ships did the dirty work of the Pacific War They escorted convoys chased submarines picked up downed pilots and led the landing craft to the invasion beaches yet they received little credit and less glory This book is a stirring tribute to their heroic efforts written by a naval officer who served in the Abercrombie

during the war and later became a best selling author First published in 1984 it has long been acclaimed for presenting a view of the navy as the sailors actually saw it the joys and pains the humor and gravity the successes and defeats Ed Stafford provides an authentic day by day account of life on board DE343 from the Battle of Leyte Gulf and picket duty against kamikazes at Okinawa to the signing of the peace treaty in Tokyo Harbor To create an accurate picture he consulted ship logs and after action reports and interviewed members of the crew Although the book focuses on events in a particular warship it tells the story of every small ship and their valiant crews that rose to the challenge and fought with everything they had until the war was won

South Pacific at Seventeen James Richard Snellen, 2008 Entering the service at age seventeen Navy veteran James Snellen recounts his World War II experiences aboard the USS Cofer APD 62 and his mine sweeping duties within the South Pacific

Pollywog and Shellback Tales of the South Pacific John H. Gamble, 2011 Learn about little known combat ventures aboard a U S Navy vessel during World War II from the eyewitness accounts of Navy veteran John Gamble Pollywog and Shellback Tales of the South Pacific describes life as a World War II sailor in the Pacific theater Gamble throws us onboard his ship the same way he was thrown at breakneck speed Leaving high school friends behind Gamble joins the U S Navy and is trained as a radioman in the new technology of radar He learns the basics of Navy life forms friendships along the way and helps to make his ship what the admirals need it to be a fighting machine to defeat the enemy and bring peace back to the Pacific While Pollywog and Shellback Tales of the South Pacific is not a complete summary of Gamble s wartime experiences the stories give an astounding look at what it was like to be a sailor on a Navy ship during the battles of the Pacific Glimpse the individual perspective of combat at sea and imagine one man s commitment to his country no matter the cost John Gamble Sr was born and raised in the Atlantic coast region of what is now part of New York City Many years after returning from naval combat in the Pacific he was one of relatively few workers fortunate enough to have worked on the lunar landing module this was destined to make the first moon landing He could see the whole world opening up and felt caught in the upheaval as his generation came into being He witnessed Einstein s theories become reality as the atom was split and the scientific wonder gave birth to a horrific nuclear arms race He witnessed what were then the world s two tallest buildings being erected and witnessed their demise Mindful of Nostradamus s papers he grew fascinated as the changes in technology brought new dimensions to his thinking According to Gamble there are many bittersweet moments in life We must choose to have hope and be among those who desire to see a hopeful future

Movies on the Fantail James B. Grenga, 2001

Three Years Aboard a Navy Destroyer Otis Ted Holly, 2011-04-25 This book is a sea story about a U S Navy destroyer and her crew The author served on this ship the USS Brush DD745 for 3 years and 2 months in the early 1950s Life on the Brush involved a lot of sea duty She spent most of this time at sea either conducting training exercises off the coast of California or steaming around somewhere in the Far east The Brush made 3 seven month cruises to the Orient while the author was aboard her The main objective of this book and the reason for writing it was to tell about what the crew of the Brush experienced on these 3 cruises The first cruise was made in early 1953 The Brush was sent to the Korean War theatre and spent several months there doing what destroyers do during war time The men experienced things off North Korea that they will never forget In addition to the Korean Patrol the Brush participated in the Formosa Patrol for a month or so and went to the island city of Hong Kong while she was down that way The second cruise was made in May 1954 On this cruise the brush spent most of her time in the South China Sea Formosa Strait and in the Sea of Japan The Brush commenced the third cruise in June 1955 This was more of a peace time cruise and we never had to go into harms way Although the author had a number of interesting personal experiences which he wrote about Comments by people who have read the book Three Years Aboard A Navy Destroyer As the son of one of the USS Brushs skippers identified in Ted Hollys book I was particularly fascinated to read of his and his shipmates many and varied experiences during their three Far East cruises His folksy stories of a young mans explorations of the vastness of the oceans the wonders of the orient and the uncertainties of combat are told in a detailed and entertaining style offering multiple layers of insight to life aboard a tin can in the 1950s In addition to his prose Mr Holly has included many photographs and maps which enhance and elucidate the storytelling It is a terrific read for anyone interested in the naval service in general and the unforgotten Korean War in particular Dennis Quigley Captain USMC Retired Arizona the straightforward and unglossed memories of a young sailor out of high school and soon into a U S destroyer greyhound of the seas Ted Holly was everybodys favorite sailor squared away with a great attitude in a key job around the nerve center of a 2200 tonner loaded for whatever kind of scrap This book is an honest snapshot of the times the people and the ships that sailed to the Korean Conflict Ted Brown LT USNR Retired New Hampshire This book Three Years Aboard A Navy Destroyer vividly recounts typical destroyer i e USS BRUSH DD745 operations during the final days of the Korea War and the transition into post war routine operations It accurately reports destroyer actions against North Korean trains sinking of floating mines with rifle fire the Wonsan Harbor actions and support of Korean Forces engaged in clandestine operations It also provides a typical sailors view and experiences of the liberty ports in Japan and the exotic Hong Kong as a British Colony And the author returns to Japan 29 years later and gives an interesting comparison of his experiences and the differences that he observed between his first trip and the 1982 trip The BRUSH was my first duty station after being commissioned in June 1951 until my transfer in November 1953 So I shared with the author the destroyer actions described I was amazed that he was able to capture these events in so much detail and I enjoyed remembering the details of these events Herbert O Burton Captain USN Retired North Carolina Three Years Aboard A Navy Destroyer is a marvelous account of the experience of the author as a young sailor during a period that few since the days of World War II have had the opportunity to share While certainly many have sailed the seas and some have encountered hostile action this account fills the gap for those who have not had such an experience Ted Holly communicates in the language of the sailor his experience that draws the reader into such that it is as if he or she is there He captures the attention of the reader and presents an engaging account of the experiences of life aboard a 2200 ton vessel which is missing all of the comforts of the cruise ship from the periods of relative boredom to the periods of action with live ammunition. Rev Ralph H Spiller Jr PhD LMHC CWO3 USN Retired Florida Maine. Ted Hollys book is remarkable at several levels. First he treats a subject from his own experience that is not often considered: life on an American destroyer during the Korean War. Further he lends authenticity to his narrative through the painstaking process of obtaining and relying on the actual ships logs day by day throughout his entire tenure aboard the USS Brush. Added to that he as a quartermaster was well placed to hear and see much of what was happening aboard the ship. Ted includes exhaustive details on some of the high points of the ships experience: the shell hit in Wonsan Harbor and the attack on the submarine as examples. Even for we who were aboard during much of the time covered in the book, some of the events were revelations. We either remembered them differently or not at all or in less detail but must defer to Teds account because of his reliance on the logs. Therefore for any member of the crew during that period Teds book is an enjoyable and enlightening read. Don Gordon RD 3 C USN Retired North Carolina Great book. As a Destroyer Sailor aboard the USS DeHaven during the Korean War I can testify Ted has written a fine book about his navy years aboard the USS Brush. If you are a navy destroyer sailor reading this book then get ready to relive an exciting experience. I can recommend Teds book to anyone interested in ships shipboard life and even to one who has never been to sea. An outstanding experience. The World War II Shipboard Journal of CPO Charles Joseph Sullivan USS Wisconsin Radio Club, 2016-06-30. CPO Charles Joseph Sullivan was Chief Boatswain's Mate and Master At Arms onboard the Battleship USS Wisconsin BB 64 for the duration of the ship's involvement in World War II. He kept a meticulous daily journal of all of the onboard activities that he observed. This book contains a transcript of his entire journal with key events annotated including photographs from his personal collection. His journal starts when the Wisconsin departed the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard. After transiting the Panama Canal the Wisconsin steamed to Pearl Harbor and beyond into some of the most important naval engagements of the war. CPO Sullivan saw his ship attacked by Japanese aircraft including Kamikazes. The Wisconsin bombarded Formosa, Luzon, Okinawa, and the Japanese mainland. Sullivan was there the whole time. 105,831 miles worth and 1,562 sixteen inch shells fired from the day the Wisconsin was commissioned until the day she dropped anchor in Tokyo Bay at war's end. It's documented here in his own words.

The Art of Creative Research Philip Gerard, 2017-02-21. Everyone who writes a novel, a poem, or a memoir almost certainly conducts research along the way, whether to develop a story idea or to capture the voice, the speech patterns, or the exact words of a character, or to ensure authenticity or accuracy of detail in describing a person, a place, an object, a setting. This kind of experiential research is an art form of its own, and this book is the first to treat it as such. Addressing writers of fiction, poetry, and nonfiction, Philip Gerard covers all the different kinds of archives that might inform creative work, including historical documents, site visits, interviews, and memory. He offers practical tips for drawing on these different types of sources.

including such mundane matters as planning and budgeting for travel costs arranging access in advance and troubleshooting when plans go awry And he illustrates how the insights gleaned from research can be incorporated into stories poems and nonfiction using examples from a wide range of writers Riverace... Cold Warrior Thomas J. Highstreet,2004-07-01 They called him Chief After almost seventeen years in the United States Navy the United States Army wanted him for duty in Vietnam A lifetime of an association with boats from Chris Craft in his home town in Michigan to years at sea and ashore with the Navy he was now about to jump to the Officer level in the Army from a non commissioned petty officer rank in the Navy But boats would continue to be the major factor in his life as he also moved from Cold Warrior to Hot Warrior in an advisory role fro the South Vietnamese and along the rivers and marshes and jungle of an Asian country at war There would be live ammunition and dead soldiers but Thomas J Highstreet Warrant Officer 1 wasn t going to waste his energy as a newly appointed warrant officer on matters not within his control He had only a few years left in his military career and had no intention of allowing them to slip by without a total commitment to the duty he had accepted He fully believed he would not die trying he would live doing He was ready and he would survive He was a warrior
