The Methuen Drama Book of Plays by Black British Writers Mustapha Matura, Jackie Kay, Winsome Pinnock, Roy Williams, Kwame Kwei-Armah, Bola Agbaje, 2013-10-16 The Methuen Drama Book of Plays by Black British Writers provides an essential anthology of six of the key plays that have shaped the trajectory of British black theatre from the late 1970s to the present day. In doing so it charts the journey from specialist black theatre companies to the mainstream including West End success while providing a cultural and racial barometer for Britain during the last forty years. It opens with Mustapha Matura's 1979 play Welcome Home Jacko which in its depiction of a group of young unemployed West Indians was one of the first to explore issues of youth culture identity and racial and cultural identification. Jackie Kay's Chiaroscuro examines debates about the politics of black mixed race and lesbian identities in 1980s Britain and from the 1990s Winsome Pinnock's Talking in Tongues engages with the politics of feminism to explore issues of black women's identity in Britain and Jamaica. From the first decade of the twenty-first century the three plays include Roy Williams' seminal pub drama Sing Yer Hearts Out for the Lads exploring racism and identity against the backdrop of the World Cup. Kwame Kwei-Armah's National Theatre play of 2004 Fix Up about black cultural history and progress in modern Britain and finally Bola Agbaje's terrific 2007 debut Gone Too Far which examines questions of identity and tensions between Africans and Caribbeans living in Britain. Edited by Lynnette Goddard this important anthology provides an essential introduction to the last forty years of British black theatre

Our Grand Finale Laraine Denny Burrell, 2017-10-17 Laraine Burrell gets the call to come back to England from the United States just in time to visit briefly with her father before he passes away. Following his death she is overcome with grief, feeling that she has squandered the time she had with her father. Instead of staying close she chose to travel the world and seek her own goals as a young woman always thinking there would be time later on to tell her dad all the things she wanted to tell him how much she loved him and how he was her hero. Now she realizes it's too late. Wanting to do something significant for her father to make up for her neglect Burrell reflects on the fascinating life her father a Royal Yachtsman led and decides that the one thing she can do for him is to tell his exceptional life story and make sure he is not forgotten. Our Grand Finale is the culmination of that effort an exploration of both the author's and her father's unusual life experiences and a reminder that later doesn't always come
