Playing With Water Passion And Solitude On A Philippine Island:

Playing with Water James Hamilton-Paterson,1998-04-21 A wonderful inner journey in the outer light and color of a remote coast uncommonly well written Peter Matthiessen Playing with Water James Hamilton-Paterson,2014-10-16
Playing with Water is an account of several seasons alone on a Philippine island which the author calls Tiwarik It is a place of cool streaming winds and rapturous ultramarine descents but for James Hamilton Paterson it is much more besides

Ethnography in the Raw Brian Moeran,2021-04-01 Ethnography in the Raw describes the author s encounters with the Philippine family into which he has married his wife s friends and acquaintances and their lives in a remote rural village in the rice basin of Luzon about 130 miles northeast of Manila The book links detailed descriptions of his Philippine family with cultural practices such as circumcision marriage and cockfights combined with theoretical musings on the concepts of sacrifice social exchange patron client relations food and religious symbolism It is both anthropological fieldwork in the raw and an incisive analysis of contemporary Philippine society and culture The Rough Guide to the Philippines David Dalton,Rough Guides,2007-09-06 Vols for 2nd ed 2007 written and researched by David Dalton Islands Magazine,2001-04 Textures of Place Paul C. Adams,Steven D. Hoelscher,Karen E. Till,2001 A fresh and far ranging interpretation of the concept of place this volume begins with a fundamental tension of our day as communications technologies help create a truly global economy the very political economic processes that would seem to homogenize place actually increase the importance of individual localities which are exposed to global flows of investment population goods and pollution Place no less today than in the past is fundamental to how the world works The contributors to this volume distinguished scholars from geography art history philosophy anthropology and American and English literature investigate the ways in which place is embedded in everyday experience its crucial role in the formation of group and individual identity and its ability to reflect and reinforce power relations Their essays draw from a wide array of methodologies and perspectives including feminism ethnography poststructuralism ecocriticism and landscape ichnography to examine themes as diverse as morality and imagination attention and absence personal and group identity social structure home nature and cosmos The Rough Guide to First-Time Asia Lesley Reader,Lucy Ridout,2010-02-01 The Rough Guide First Time Asia tells you everything you need to know before you go to Asia from visas and vaccinations to budgets and packing It will help you plan the best possible trip with advice on when to go and what not to miss and how to avoid trouble on the road You ll find insightful information on what tickets to buy where to stay what to eat how to stay healthy and save money in Asia The Rough Guide First Time Asia includes insightful overviews of 21 Asian countries from Bhutan to Vietnam Bangladesh to Thailand highlighting the best places to visit with websites clear maps suggested reading and budget information Be inspired by the things not to miss section whilst useful contact details will help you plan your route All kinds of advice and anecdotes from travellers who ve been there and done it will make travelling stress free The Rough Guide First Time Asia has everything you need to get your
