

Preface

Hello there, I'm Olivia Widjaja and I'll be helping you out with English! As someone who used to struggle with English, I can understand why some students find it so difficult. However, after taking the time to appreciate the texts I studied, I can proudly say that my fondness for literature helped me achieve great marks in my final year of high school. I will admit, this wasn't a smooth ride. Throughout school, I found that I would excel in certain areas of English, and then not perform as well in other areas. Nevertheless, this didn't hinder my love for the texts I studied. As a result, I hope this guide can help you appreciate the texts you are studying and make English just a bit more enjoyable.

One of the main hurdles when it comes to studying English is being able to understand and analyse plays. It can be a bit difficult to keep up since the purpose of a play is for you to watch the performance. The fact that a lot of the stage directions and settings are heavily dependent on interpretation also increases the difficulty of studying this genre. Or perhaps it's the language that makes understanding plays difficult, especially Shakespearean plays. Regardless, this guide should break down all you need to know on how to analyse plays. I wish you all the best in your studies!
