Please Share That Peanut A Preposterous Pageant In Fourteen Acts:

Please Share that Peanut! Sesyle Joslin, 1965 The little Prince and Princess are picking buttercups in the cherry orchard when suddenly a towering monster belching fire and flame leaps upon them My dragon says the Princess No mine says the Prince But in the next moment they chorus Ours And in the accompanying illustration is a most companionable looking dragon agreeably snorting forth flames over which the Prince the Princess and assorted members of their retinue are toasting marshmallows In this scene and in other equally joyful and amusing situations Sesyle Joslin whose books have endeared her to the very young clearly establishes that saying Mine is not nearly so much fun as saying Ours
