Pleasure and the Good Life Fred Feldman, 2004-03-25 Fred Feldman's fascinating new book sets out to defend hedonism as a theory about the Good Life He tries to show that when carefully and charitably interpreted certain forms of hedonism yield plausible evaluations of human lives Feldman begins by explaining what we mean when we ask what the Good Life is He argues that this should not be taken to be a question about the morally good life or about the beneficial life Rather the question concerns the general features of the life that is good in itself for the one who lives it Hedonism says roughly that the Good Life is the pleasant life After showing that the usual formulations of hedonism are often confused or incoherent Feldman presents a simple clear coherent form of sensory hedonism that provides a starting point for discussion He then considers a catalogue of classic objections to hedonism coming from sources as diverse as Plato Aristotle Brentano Ross Moore Rawls Kagan Nozick Brandt and others One of Feldman's central themes is that there is an important distinction between the forms of hedonism that emphasize sensory pleasure and those that emphasize attitudinal pleasure Feldman formulates several kinds of hedonism based on the idea that attitudinal pleasure is the Good He claims that attitudinal forms of hedonism which have often been ignored in the literature are worthy of more careful attention Another main theme of the book is the plasticity of hedonism Hedonism comes in many forms Attitudinal hedonism is especially receptive to variations and modifications Feldman illustrates this plasticity by formulating several variants of attitudinal hedonism and showing how they evade some of the objections He also shows how it is possible to develop forms of hedonism that are equivalent to the allegedly anti hedonistic theory of G E Moore and the Aristotelian theory according to which the Good Life is the life of virtue or flourishing He also formulates hedonisms relevantly like the ones defended by Aristippus and Mill Feldman argues that a carefully developed form of attitudinal hedonism is not refuted by objections concerning the shape of a life He also defends the claim that all of the alleged forms of hedonism discussed in the book genuinely deserve to be called hedonism Finally after dealing with the last of the objections he gives a sketch of his hedonistic vision of the Good Life

The Hedonism of Eudoxus of Cnidus Richard Davies, 2023-12-06 Mathematician and astronomer Eudoxus of Cnidus was a younger contemporary of Plato and an older contemporary of Aristotle on both of whom he exerted some influence during his stays in Athens This is perhaps most apparent with regard to his ethical doctrine that identifies the good as pleasure hedonism While Plato seems rather unsure how seriously to take this proposal Aristotle provides the materials for reconstructing the battery of ingenious arguments that Eudoxus brought forward in its defence Taken together in this Element these arguments foreshadow almost everything that has been said in the Western tradition in favour of the positive value of pleasure and if taken aright point in the direction of a hedonism that sets store by the cultivation of activities akin to those for which Eudoxus has been most renowned mathematics and astronomy

Political Jouissance Slavoj Žižek, Nicol A. Barria-Asenjo, 2024-08-22 When we oppose or disagree with something important do we ever really do it dispassionately Isn't setting the world to rights or condemning a political opponent always done with a hint of relish or at least enthusiasm This book's challenging essays explore the modes in which that transgressive pleasure of political jouissance operates Rather than delegitimizing or depoliticising the tacit enjoyment of outrage can in fact facilitate different forms of engagement The tendency for groups to be bonded by a common enemy for example brings with it a protection from censure or persecution and a way of alleviating guilt In this collection the authors seek out jouissance in the battle against patriarchy in social revolts in the age of mechanical surveillance in the necrosociety of neoliberalism or the proliferation of conspiracy theories Drawing on Lacan's insistence that jouissance is intrinsically political by its nature we can understand how readily psychoanalytic ideas can be put to use across the geopolitical spectrum     Elements of an Evolutionary Theory of Welfare Martin Binder, 2010-05-04 Recent work in behavioural economics has questioned traditional measures for welfare This book asks whether a different measure for individual welfare can and should be found This book explores whether a hedonistic view of welfare represents a viable alternative and what its normative implications are Binder follows a naturalistic methodology to examine the foundations of welfare connecting the concept with a dynamic theory of preference learning and providing a more realistic account of human behaviour     Principles of Economics Alfred Marshall, 1891     An Introduction to Drama Jay Broadus Hubbell, John Owen Beaty, 1927     The Ten Pleasures of Marriage A. Marsh, 1923     Pleasure Lisa Shapiro, 2018 For many the word pleasure conjures associations with hedonism indulgence and escape from the life of the mind However little we talk about it though pleasure also plays an integral role in cognitive life in both our sensory perception of the world and our intellectual understanding This previously important but now neglected philosophical understanding of pleasure is the focus of the essays in this volume which challenges received views that pleasure is principally motivating of action unanalyzable and caused rather than responsive to reason Like other books in the Oxford Philosophical Concepts series it traces the development of the focal idea from ancient times through the 20th century The essays highlight points of departure for new lines of inquiry rather than attempting to provide a full picture of how the idea of pleasure has been explored in philosophy The volume begins by showing how Plato Aristotle early Islamic philosophers and philosophers in the Medieval Latin tradition such as Aquinas honed in on the challenge of unifying the variety of pleasures so that they fall under one concept In the early modern period philosophers shifted from understanding the logic of pleasure to treating pleasure as a mental state As the studies of Malebranche Berkeley and Kant show the central problem becomes understanding the relation of pleasure to other sensory experiences and the role of pleasure in human cognition and knowledge Short interdisciplinary reflections interspersed between essays focus on art of 16th and 17th century textbooks and the difficult music of composers like Bach which demonstrate translation of these concerns to cultural production in the period As the essay on Mill shows the 19th century development of scientific psychology narrowed the definition of pleasure and so its philosophical focus Contemporary accounts of pleasure however in both philosophy and psychology are now recognizing the limitations of this narrow focus and are once again recognizing the complexity of pleasure and its role in human life     The Pleasures of Human Life, Examined and Enumerated John Platts, 1822     The Way to Do Good Jacob Abbott, 1886     The Pursuit of Happiness Daniel Garrison Brinton, 1893     Political Theories of Modern Government (Routledge Revivals) Peter Self, 2009-11-05 This reissued work originally published in 1985 is a uniquely broad and original survey of theories and beliefs about the growth behaviour performance and reform of the governments of modern Western democracies After analysing the external pressures which have shaped modern governments the author examines four different schools of political thought which seek to explain the behaviour and performance of governments and which offer different remedies for the pluralism corporatism and bureaucracy To examine and test these general theories the author looks closely at how governments actually work The book is illustrated with examples drawn from various Western societies The final chapters present the author s own conclusion about the future role of government the limits of market philosophy the future of politics and the principles and problems of institutional reform Pleasure, Mind, and Soul W. C. W. Taylor, 2008-01-24 C C W Taylor presents a selection of his essays in ancient philosophy drawn from forty years of writings on the subject The central theme of the volume is the moral psychology of Plato and Aristotle with a special focus on pleasure and related concepts an area central to Greek ethical thought Taylor also discusses Socrates and the Greek atomists including the Epicureans showing how Plato s ethics grows out of the thought of Socrates and that pleasure is also a central concept for the atomists Pleasure Mind and Soul provides a fascinating survey of a range of important topics in the work of some of the greatest ancient philosophers and which remain the subject of lively philosophical debate today The Thirteen Honoré de Balzac, 1901 The Human Comedy - La Comédie humaine (Complete Edition) Honoré de Balzac, 2019-12-18 Musaicum Books presents to you a meticulously edited Human Comedy collection This ebook has been designed and formatted to the highest digital standards and adjusted for readability on all devices Contents The Ball at Sceaux The Purse Vendetta A Second Home Domestic Peace Paz Study of a Woman Another Study of Woman The Grand Breteche Albert Savarus Letters of Two Brides A Daughter of Eve A Woman of Thirty The Deserted Woman La Grenadiere The Message Gobseck The Marriage Contract A Start in Life Modeste Mignon Beatrix Honorine Colonel Chabert The Atheist s Mass Pierre Grassou Scenes From Provincial Life Ursule Mirouet Eugenie Grandet The Vicar of Tours The Two Brothers An Old Maid The Collection of Antiquities The Lily of the Valley Two Poets A Distinguished Provincial at Paris Eve and David Scenes From Parisian Life Scenes from a Courtesan s Life A Prince of Bohemia A Man of Business Gaudissart II Unconscious Comedians Ferragus The Duchesse de Langeais The Girl with the Golden Eyes Father Goriot Rise and Fall of Cesar Birotteau The Firm of Nucingen Secrets of the Princesse de Cadignan Bureaucracy Sarrasine Facino Cane Cousin Betty Cousin Pons The Lesser Bourgeoisie Scenes From Political Life An Historical Mystery An Episode Under the Terror The Brotherhood of Consolation Scenes From Military Life A Passion in the Desert Scenes From Country Life Sons of the Soil The Magic Skin Christ in Flanders Melmoth Reconciled The Unknown Masterpiece
