

Anna Clarke was born in Fife Town in April 1970 and it was here as well as in Montreal and Oxford that she received her education. She studied a lot during her childhood as her father, Professor Ian Ford Clarke, the educationist, moved to different universities. She started reading for a degree in Mathematics but was interrupted by illness. Later she went on to take an external degree in Economics. She has held a wide variety of jobs, largely in publishing and university administration, and was for some years secretary to Victor Gollancz, the publisher. Apart from her intention to continue writing suspense stories, she plans to study for a degree in literature at the Open University. Her main interests now are fiction, philosophy and modern art, as well as psychoanalysis. She has published three previous novels of suspense.

What the critics have said about Anna Clarke's previous novels

THE END OF A SHADOW

"That Anna Clarke's story ... is crisscrossed with suspense would not of itself ensure success ... It is precisely because this Clarke probes far more deeply into her characters than is usual in a novel of this nature that we are held so enthralled."

"An additional pleasure in the author's picture lies in the quietness of the workings of a small lot of outsiders." Reviewing Sunday Telegraph

"What Clarke knows far more about the publishing world, this is also proof of supposing the intriguing, suspenseful and confidence of the work, rights well after." The Times Literary Supplement

A MIND TO MURDER

"An effective, neatly written and cleverly sustained exercise in suspense." Financial Times

"Impassioned creation of a brilliant professional class family being disrupted by his insidiously suspicious."

The Times Literary Supplement

"Ingeniously conceived and rather handsomely conceived." Star

PLANT COUNTER-PLOT

PLOT COUNTER-PLOT

Anna Clarke

Gifted, rich, suspenseful that was how Helen Mitchell appeared to those who met her expert hands, including David Ashford. An extraordinary young ladies who was desperate for love, why that was Helen writing her new novel in her pen in secret? Why had the past become more dangerous than the present?

This last, suspenseful story gives the reader an Helen Mitchell for investigation with those from that first sexual encounter at a party to the ultimate deadlock from which there seems only one escape. Both are concerned in plotting, in manipulating character and events. These inseparable work has become a character in the other's story. What you will write the final word!

This is a novel, a novel with a novel of a double battle of wit between two ingenious minds, written with insight and compassion and deftly representing past and present, fantasy and reality.
