Guernsey, 2017-07-05 The Artist and the State 1777-1855 The Politics of Universal History in British French Painting is the first book-length study to examine political uses of universal history or the philosophy of history in European art from 1777 to 1855 Daniel R. David Grant, 2017-01-28 A unique backstory of Alexander and his successors the biased historians deceits wars generals and the tale of the literature that preserved them Babylon mid June 323 BCE the gateway of the gods prostrated in the Summer Palace of Nebuchadrezzar II on the east bank of the Euphrates wracked by fever and having barely survived another night King Alexander III the rule of Macedonia for 12 years and 7 months had his senior officers congregate at his bedside Abandoned by Fortune and the healing god Asclepius he finally acknowledged he was dying Some 2 340 years on five barely intact accounts survive to tell a hardly coherent story At times in close accord though more often contradictory they conclude with a melee of death scene rehashes all of them suspicious the first portrayed Alexander dying silent and intestate he was Homeric and vocal in the second the third detailed his Last Will and Testament though it is attached to the stuff of romance Which account do we trust In Search Of The Lost Testament Of Alexander The Great is the result of a decade of contemplations on Alexander presented as a rich thematic narrative Grant describes as the backstory behind the history of the great Macedonian and his generals Taking an uncompromising investigative perspective Grant delves into the challenges faced by Alexander s unique tale the forgeries and biased historians the influences of rhetoric romance philosophy and religion on what was written and how Alexander s own mercurial personality is vividly dissected and the careers and the wars of his successors are presented with a unique eye But the book never loses sight of central aim to unravel the mystery behind Alexander s unconvincingly reported intestate death And out of Grant s research emerges one unavoidable verdict after 2 340 years the Last Will and Testament of Alexander III of Macedonia needs to be extracted from romance and reinstated to its rightful place in mainstream history Babylon in June 323 BCE Although the result a decade of academic research In Search Of The Lost Testament Of Alexander The Great is written in an entertaining and engaging style that opens the subject to both scholars and the casual reader of history looking to learn more about the Macedonian king and the men who made his story It concludes with a wholly new interpretation of the death of Alexander the Great and the mechanism behind the wars of succession that followed The American Benedictine Review, 2020 Urgency and

Severity: Pauline Rationale for Expulsion in 1 Corinthians 5:1-13 David E. Bosworth, 2024-05-21 When Paul heard that a Christ follower in Corinth was in an incestuous relationship with his stepmother the apostle insisted the man be removed immediately from the congregation This dramatic response is surprising as Paul responds to other serious situations with much less vehemence Why did Paul react to the immoral man with such urgency and severity Using socio cultural tools this study explains the importance of group identity and witness for Paul s ecclesiology The argument lays a foundation for contemporary readers to appraise contexts where an expulsive response to sin might be appropriate "What Is Critique?" and "The Culture of the Self" Michel Foucault, 2024-01-02 Newly published lectures by Foucault on critique Enlightenment and the care of the self On May 27 1978 Michel Foucault gave a lecture to the French Society of Philosophy where he redefined his entire philosophical project in light of Immanuel Kant s 1784 text What Is Enlightenment Foucault strikingly characterizes critique as the political and moral attitude consisting in the art of not being governed like this one that performs the function of destabilizing power relations and creating the space for a new formation of the self within the politics of truth This volume presents the first critical edition of this crucial lecture alongside a previously unpublished lecture about the culture of the self and three public debates with Foucault at the University of California Berkeley in April 1983 There for the first time Foucault establishes a direct connection between his reflections on the Enlightenment and his analyses of Greco Roman antiquity However far from suggesting a return to the ancient culture of the self Foucault invites his audience to build a new ethics that bypasses the traditional references to religion law and science The Classical

Love in Interpretation Bryant K. Owens, 2019-02-28 Dr Bryant K Owens presents the argument of the value of the Christian tradition of caritas or love from the philosophy and the subsequent hermeneutic of Saint Augustine of Hippo 354 430 within contemporary philosophical scholarship Dr Owens s study of Augustine s investigations into biblical interpretation will reveal that he sought the beauty of understanding as evidenced through caritas The shift in the Western philosophical tradition during the Enlightenment period resulted in a solid break from authority based hermeneutics to the autonomy of the mind The result was a greater emphasis on the literal meaning of a text as gleaned from the subjective mind of the reader and through grammatical and historical criticism over the spiritual meaning of the text or application of the greater meaning to Christian living Dr Owens proposes that the benefits of Augustine s caritas as the a priori spirit of the biblical text and the proper application of that spirit in contemporary scholarship should be the epistemological focus of hermeneutics rather than the emphasis on method prevalent from Spinoza to Dilthey The concluding value from Augustine s hermeneutic is that caritas is a product of understanding while at the same time is the method or means by which caritas is produced Therefore Augustine s hermeneutic argues that the sense or spirit of Scripture is caritas and is the truth to which all Christian philosophy must cohere Gentlefolk in the Making John E. Mason, 2016-11-11 A detailed compilation of books on polite conduct from Elyot s The Governour to Chesterfield s Letters with generous quotations from the more important ones
