Pmgjulius Caesar Pr Uk:

Assassination Miles Hudson, 2011-06-13 The assassination of political religious and military leaders often dictators is frequently seen as the short cut to solving a particular problem The author takes issue with this argument Examining a series of linked assassinations together with their causes and effects he seeks to demonstrate that in many cases the killings have produced unforeseen and unintended consequences that all too often result in the opposite result to that desired His case studies arranged intriguingly in pairs cover such diverse characters as Julius Caesar and Thomas Becket Gandhi and Jesus Christ Tsar Alexander II and Abraham Lincoln Michael Collins and Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson and Martin Luther King and Malcolm X This is an absorbing controversial and informative study      Death and Dynasty in Early Imperial Rome J.

Bert Lott, 2012-08-30 The founding of the Roman Principate was a time of great turmoil This book brings together a set of important Latin inscriptions including the recently discovered documents concerning the death of Germanicus and trial of Cn Piso in order to illustrate the developing sense of dynasty that underpinned the new monarchy of Augustus Each inscription is supplied with its original text a new English translation and a full introduction and historical commentary that will be useful to students and scholars alike The book also provides important technical help in understanding the production and interpretation of documents and inscriptions thereby making it an excellent starting point for introducing students to Roman epigraphy      Women in Journalism at the Fin de Siècle F. Gray, 2012-03-13 As the nineteenth century drew to a close women became more numerous and prominent in British journalism This book offers a fascinating introduction to the work lives of twelve such journalists and each essay examines the career writing and strategic choices of women battling against the odds to secure recognition in a male dominated society      The Autocar ,1957      The World Who's who of Women ,1976
