Rustication Of Urban Youth In China:

The Rustication of Urban Youth in China Peter J. Seybolt, 1977 The Rustication of Urban Youth in China Peter Jordan Seybolt, 1977 The Rustication of Urban Youth in China. A Social Experiment. Ed. by P.J. Seybolt. Introd. by Th. P. Bernstein P. J. Seybolt, Th. P. Bernstein, 1977 China Under the Four Modernizations United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee, 1982 China Under the Four Modernizations, 1982 China's Sent-Down Generation Helena K. Rene, 2013-03-29 During China's Cultural Revolution Chairman Mao Zedong's rustication program resettled 17 million urban youths known as sent downs to the countryside for manual labor and socialist reeducation. This book, the most comprehensive study of the program to be published in either English or Chinese to date, examines the mechanisms and dynamics of statecraft in China from the rustication program's inception in 1968 to its official termination in 1980 and actual completion in the 1990s. Rustication, in the ideology of Mao's peasant-based revolution, formed a critical component of the Cultural Revolution's larger attack on bureaucrats, capitalists, the intelligentsia, and degenerative urban life. This book assesses the program's origins, development, organization, implementation, performance, and public administrative consequences. It was the defining experience for many Chinese born between 1949 and 1962, and many of China's contemporary leaders went through the rustication program. The author explains the lasting impact of the rustication program on China's contemporary administrative culture, for example, showing how and why bureaucracy persisted and even grew stronger during the wrenching chaos of the Cultural Revolution. She also focuses on the special difficulties female sent downs faced in terms of work pressures to marry local peasants and sexual harassment, predation, and violence. The author's parents were both sent downs, and she was able to interview over fifty former sent downs from around the country, something never previously accomplished. China's Sent Down Generation demonstrates the rustication program's profound long-term consequences for China's bureaucracy, for the spread of corruption, and for the families traumatized by this authoritarian social experiment. The book will appeal to academics, graduate and undergraduate students in public administration and China studies programs, and individuals who are interested in China's Cultural Revolution era. A Century of Student Movements in China Xiaobing Li, Qiang Fang, 2019-12-02 In this book, the authors offer their unique perspectives on the important roles Chinese students and intellectuals played in the shaping of the twentieth-century China. Their answers to these pivotal questions explore new nationalistic spirit, modern world views, and willingness of self-sacrifice, which had attributed to the spontaneous actions of the students as a New Culture emerged during the May Fourth Movement. These articles show how China nurtured these spontaneous student movements, even though the Nationalist Party in the Republic of China and the Communist Party in the People's Republic had exerted tight control over schools. Both governments established organizations as well as operations among students that effectively turned some of the student movements into a political instrument by the parties for their own agenda. Franklin Parker, Betty June Parker, 2017-12-12 The 3 053 entries in this work first published in 1986 comprise the compilers attempt at a comprehensive annotated bibliography of the most useful locatable books monographs pamphlets regularly and occasionally issued serials scholarly papers and selected newspaper accounts dealing in a significant way with formal and informal public and private education in the People s Republic of China before and since 1949 The Fading of the Maoist Vision Rhoads Murphey, 2013-11-05 First published in 1980 This book analyzes Chinese society and evaluates the achievements and failures of the Maoist ideology The central theme is the urban and rural balance in China s development from the Revolution to the late twentieth century The Fading of the Maoist Vision shows how the original Revolutionary blueprint was altered and the ways in which China has steered a different course from that charted by Mao as the ideological vision encountered an increasingly pressing set of economic realities The book Is particularly valuable in setting China s achievements in the larger context of global ideas about the problems of national development and by comparing them to the experience of India in its pursuit of the Gandhian ideal China's Changing Population Judith Banister, 1987 In this comprehensive analysis of thirty five years of population change in the People s Republic of China the author highlights China s shifting population policies and pieces together the available data assessing and adjusting them as necessary in order to discover the actual population changes China's Road to Development N. Maxwell, 2014-06-28 China s Road to Development is a collection of papers by specialists on aspects of China s economy and society It covers a wide range of subjects from development strategy to the specifics of small scale energy exploitation from the role of women in China s development to the greening of China through great efforts in afforestation Commenting on the limited issue original edition a special issue of the journal World Development from which this volume has been greatly expanded Dr Knowles President of the Rockefeller Foundation wrote A magnificent collection of essays by very astute and experienced observers covering everything from population control health economic planning trade city planning and rural development to Chinese aid in building the Tanzania Zambia railway If I could only afford two books on modern China I would get this one Higher Education, Meritocracy and Inequality in China Ye Liu, 2016-10-08 This book investigates the changing opportunities in higher education for different social groups during China s transition from the socialist regime to a market economy The first part of the book provides a historical and comparative analysis of the development of the idea of meritocracy since its early origins in China and in more recent western thought The second part then explores higher education reforms in China the part played by supposedly meritocratic forms of selection and the implications of these for social mobility Based on original empirical data Ye Liu sheds light on the socio economic gender and geographical inequalities behind the meritocratic facade of the Gaokao Liu argues that the Chinese philosophical belief in education based meritocracy had a modern makeover in the Gaokao and that this ideology induces working class and rural students to believe in upward social mobility through higher education When the Gaokao broke the promise of status improvement for rural students they turned to the Chinese Communist Party and sought political connections by actively applying for its membership This book reveals a bleak picture of visible and invisible inequality in terms of access to and participation in higher education in contemporary China Written in an accessible style it offers a valuable resource for researchers and non specialist readers alike Young Rebels in Contemporary Chinese Cinema Zhou Xuelin,2007-09-01 In the 1980s a new type of central character emerged in contemporary Chinese films angry and alienated youth Filmmakers treated youth as a separate category and showed them in urban situations behaving in unconventional and socially rebellious ways Young Rebels in Contemporary Chinese Cinema looks for evidence in films that exemplify this trend Chinese Education Since 1949 Theodore Hsi-en Chen,2014-05-19 Chinese Education Since 1949 Academic and Revolutionary Models covers the developments in the education in China This book is composed of 11 chapters that discuss the contrasting models of education Academic Model and Revolutionary Model It addresses the effectiveness of combining these models This book begins with the description of a political education ideological remolding development of a new school system assessment of worker peasant education types of literacy campaigns review of the Language Reform after 1949 description of Spare time Education and analysis of Sovietized Education Other chapters consider the study of Friendship Association the Hundred Flowers campaign and the response of the so called intellectuals A chapter is devoted to the educational revolution and transitional period The last chapter focuses on the revolutionary model of education The book can provide useful information to historians sociologists students and researchers 1968: The World Transformed Carole Fink,Philipp Gassert,Detlef Junker,1998-10-28 1968 The World Transformed presents a global perspective on the tumultuous events of the most crucial year in the era of the Cold War By interpreting 1968 as a transnational phenomenon authors from Europe and the United States explain why the crises of 1968 erupted almost simultaneously throughout the world Together the eighteen chapters provide an interdisciplinary and comparative approach to the rise and fall of protest movements worldwide The book represents an effort to integrate international relations the role of media and the cross cultural exchange of people and ideas into the history of that year 1968 emerges as a global phenomenon because of the linkages between domestic and international affairs the powerful influence of the media the networks of communication among activists and the shared opposition to the domestic and international status quo in the name of freedom and self determination Economic Transition in Hunan and Southern China A. S. Bhalla,1984-06-18 Out of the Crucible Zuoya Cao,2003-01-01 Out of the Crucible offers an informative and inviting study of the novels and short stories of the lives of the zhiqing the Chinese urban youth who were sent to rural areas during the rustication movement in the second phase of the Cultural Revolution Author Zuoya Cao a former zhiqing herself covers the works authors themes characters and plots of zhiqing literary writing from the late 1970s to the late 1990s She teases out the significant themes of zhiqing literature heroism and idealism suffering and internal transformation moral dilemmas and the loss of innocence love and cultural difference sexual and spiritual oppression zhiqing peasant relations the relationship between man and nature and the conflict between the desire to leave the countryside and the attachment to it Through a perceptive analysis of the treatment of these themes drawing on her extensive knowledge of Chinese literary and social history in addition to her own experiences Cao reveals the emotional aspects of the rustication movement and the humanistic significance of the zhiqing experience and enriches our understanding of modern Chinese literature and history

Morning Sun Laifong Leung, Jan Walls, 2016-09-16 This is a collection of interviews with 26 writers of China's zhiqing generation relatively young artists who participated in the Cultural Revolution as teen age Red Guards suffered through the subsequent rustication of intellectual youth and eventually returned to relatively normal lives but always with a tragic hiatus haunting their formative years While one goal of Professor Leung is to introduce to the West an important group of writers little known outside China she also aims to succeed through the interviews in providing a special perspective on the devastating political history of China since the 1970s years through the eyes of its keenest observers and in offering a perspective on the social political and cultural milieu of the period

China's Leaders David Shambaugh, 2021-06-25 Since the founding of the People's Republic of China over 70 years ago five paramount leaders have shaped the fates and fortunes of the nation and the ruling Chinese Communist Party Mao Zedong Deng Xiaoping Jiang Zemin Hu Jintao and Xi Jinping Under their leaderships China has undergone an extraordinary transformation from an undeveloped and insular country to a comprehensive world power In this definitive study renowned Sinologist David Shambaugh offers a refreshing account of China's dramatic post revolutionary history through the prism of those who ruled it Exploring the persona formative socialization psychology and professional experiences of each leader Shambaugh shows how their differing leadership styles and tactics of rule shaped China domestically and internationally Mao was a populist tyrant Deng a pragmatic Leninist Jiang a bureaucratic politician Hu a technocratic apparatchik and Xi a modern emperor Covering the full scope of these leaders personalities and power this is an illuminating guide to China's modern history and understanding how China has become the superpower of today Also available as an audiobook

The Top Books of the Year Rustication Of Urban Youth In China The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Rustication Of Urban Youth In China : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
