decisions A central focus of the book is the Sikh Dharma ideal of the graceful woman and the ways in which this concept both empowers and constrains women Women are free to choose their degree of engagement in the public sphere some build careers some are active in the 3HO community some dedicate their lives to their families Work in community businesses allows many women to combine family and work lives Curtailing this freedom of choice however is 3HO s teaching that women should also be gracious undemanding and willing to defer to those in authority Elsberg places this movement in the context of other alternative religious organizations and provides a brief history of Sikhism as well as reviewing events concerning Sikhs today She explores the range of ways in which gender identities are created transformed and contested particularly as a religion from one part of the world is adopted in a completely different country and culture The Author Constance Waeber Elsberg is professor of sociology and anthropology at Northern Virginia Community College
