Salvation Scenes From The Life Of St Francis:

Salvation Valerie Martin, 2002-03-12 From the award winning author of Property and bestselling author of Mary Reilly a bold retelling of a familiar beloved story Los Angeles Times inspired by the fresco cycles that depict the life of St Francis of Assisi Drawing from myriad sources and moving in reverse chronological order she begins in the dark final days with a suffering Francesco on the verge of death then shows us the unwashed and innocent revolutionary unafraid to lecture a pope on Christ's message We see his mystical friendship with Chiara di Offreducci a nobleman's daughter who turns her back on the world to join him and finally the frivolous young Francesco on the deserted road where his encounter with a leper leads him to an ecstatic embrace of God Salvation is at once an illuminating glimpse into the medieval world and an original and intimate portrait of the man whose legend has resonated through the centuries Finding Saint Francis in Literature and Art C. Ho, B. Mulvaney, 2009-08-03 Contributors demonstrate how the tools of various intellectual disciplines can be used to examine what we now know about the story of Saint Francis in his own era and how that story has been appropriated in our period The Fiction of Valerie Martin Veronica Makowsky, 2016-03-21 In the first book length study of Valerie Martin's fiction Veronica Makowsky explores the work of this lauded but often overlooked contemporary novelist Winner of the Orange Prize for her novel Property 2003 Martin also won the Kafka Prize for Mary Reilly 1990 which was then translated into sixteen languages and made into a popular film Despite these successes her critically acclaimed novels and stories have yet to attain a broad readership Makowsky addresses this disconnect through a detailed critical study of Martin's distinguished oeuvre grounding each work in its historical cultural and theoretical contexts Makowsky begins with a sketch of Martin's life and then considers each of her ten novels and four collections of short stories Throughout Makowsky's deft critique reveals Martin to be an astute observer of people and places Pointing to both early works like A Recent Martyr 1987 and recent books such as The Ghost of the Mary Celeste 2014 Makowsky identifies a potent mixture of pleasure and fear in Martin's writing that emphasizes the author's nuanced exploration of human imagination Notable too are Martin's literary techniques especially point of view and her allusions to masterpieces in Western literature The works of Henry and William James in particular influenced Martin's thematic blend of intellectualism and empathy evident in her rounded depictions of women in works like Italian Fever 1999 and The Great Divorce 1994 A rich and substantive study The Fiction of Valerie Martin demonstrates and deconstructs the mastery of this thought provoking author in turn firmly establishing Martin's place in the canon of contemporary writers Property Valerie Martin, 2007-12-18 WINNER OF THE ORANGE PRIZE Set in 1828 on a Louisiana sugar plantation this novel from the bestselling author of Mary Reilly presents a fresh unsentimental look at what slave owning does to and for one's interior life The writing so prized and clean limbed is a marvel Toni Morrison Nobel Prize winning author of Beloved Manon Gaudet pretty bitterly intelligent and monstrously self absorbed seethes under the dominion of her boorish husband In particular his relationship with her slave Sarah who is both his victim and his mistress Exploring the permutations of Manon's own obsession with Sarah against the backdrop of an impending slave rebellion Property unfolds with the speed and menace of heat lightning casting a startling light from the past upon the assumptions we still make about the powerful and powerful Hearing the Call Across Traditions Adam Davis, 2009 Explore the connections between faith service and social justice through the prose verse and sacred texts of the world's great faith traditions Christianity Judaism Islam Buddhism Hinduism Taoism and more Drawing from diverse literary genres religious and philosophical perspectives and historical periods these short and provocative readings cut to the heart of the many obstacles and joys that accompany lives devoted to faith and service This rich collection will create a platform for discussing and understanding the faith based service of others as well as inspire you to reflect on the meaning behind your own commitment to improving the world Book jacket Animal Soundscapes in Anglo-Norman Texts Liam Lewis, 2022 A redefinition of the animal's relationship to sound and language in French texts from medieval England The barks hoots and howls of animals and birds pierce through the experience of medieval texts In captivating episodes of communication between species a mandrake shrieks when uprooted from the ground a saint preaches to the animals and a cuckoo causes turmoil at the parliament of birds with his familiar call This book considers a range of such episodes in Old French verse texts including bestiaries treatises on language the Life of Saint Francis of Assisi and the Fables by Marie de France aiming to reconceptualize and reinterpret animal soundscapes It argues that they draw on sound to produce competing perspectives forms of life and linguistic subjectivities suggesting that humans owe more to animal sounds than we are disposed to believe Texts inviting readers to listen and learn animal noises to seek spiritual consolation in the jargon of birds or to identify with the speaking wolf create the conditions for an assertion of human exceptionalism even as they simultaneously invite readers to question such forms of control By asking what it means for an animal to cry make noise or speak in French this book provides an important resource for theorizing sound and animality in multilingual medieval contexts and for understanding the animal's role in the interpretation of the natural world Saint Francis and the Sultan John V. Tolan, 2009-03-26 In September 1219 as the armies of the Fifth Crusade besieged the Egyptian city of Damietta Francis of Assisi went to Egypt to preach to Sultan al Malik al Kamil Although we in fact know very little about this event this has not prevented artists and writers from the thirteenth century to the twentieth unencumbered by mere facts from portraying Francis alternatively as a new apostle preaching to the infidels a scholastic theologian proving the truth of Christianity a champion of the crusading ideal a naive and quixotic wanderer a crazed religious fanatic or a medieval Gandhi preaching peace love and understanding Al Kamil on the other hand is variously presented as an enlightened pagan monarch hungry for evangelical teaching a cruel oriental despot or a worldly libertine Saint Francis and the Sultan takes a detailed look at these richly varied artistic responses to this brief but highly symbolic meeting Throwing into relief the changing fears and hopes that Muslim Christian encounters have inspired in European artists and writers in the centuries since it gives a uniquely broad but precise vision of the evolution of Western attitudes towards Islam and the Arab world over the last eight hundred years A Jesuit
