Play It Again, Sam Andrew Horton, Stuart Y. McDougal, 2024-03-29. This title was originally published in 1998. Play It Again Sam is a timely investigation of a topic that until now has received almost no critical attention in film and cultural studies: the cinematic remake. As cinema enters its second century more remakes are appearing than ever before and these writers consider the full range of Hollywood films that have been recycled by Hollywood such as The Jazz Singer, Cape Fear and Robin Hood, foreign films including Breathless and Three Men and a Cradle, which Hollywood has reworked for American audiences, and foreign films based on American works among them Yugoslav director Emir Kusturica's Time of the Gypsies which is a makeover of Coppola's Godfather films. As these essays demonstrate, films are remade by other films. Alfred Hitchcock went so far as to remake his own The Man Who Knew Too Much and by other media as well. The editors and contributors draw upon narrative film and cultural theories and consider gender, genre and psychological issues presenting the remake as a special artistic form of repetition with a difference and as a commercial product aimed at profits in the marketplace The remake flourishes at the crossroads of the old and the new the known and the unknown Play It Again Sam takes the reader on an eye opening tour of this hitherto unexplored territory This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1998 Midland Scott Alan Wade,2023-07-31 Hiding out from a world overrun by the living dead fifteen year old Samantha Sam Grace has grown up on an isolated mountain top farm It s been a hard difficult life but now she must care for her gravely ill mother as well as her younger brothers and sister Her only chance to save her mother s life is to ride to nearby Las Vegas a city teeming with hundreds of thousands of the dead However the zombies are the least of her worries With terror lurking in every shadow where can she go to hide Is there anyone left alive to help What can she do when her bullets run out
