Cholera Amanda J Thomas,2015-09-21 A fusion of science social and medical history fascinating the understanding of and responses to cholera are covered in detail and with sensitivity The Victorian Web Discover the story of the disease that devastated the Victorian population and brought about major changes in sanitation Drawing on the latest scientific research and a wealth of archival material Amanda J Thomas uses first hand accounts blending personal stories with an overview of the history of the disease and its devastating after effects on British society This fascinating history of a catastrophic disease uncovers forgotten stories from each of the major cholera outbreaks in 1831 2 1848 9 1853 4 and 1866 Amanda J Thomas reveals that Victorian theories about the disease were often closer to the truth than we might assume among them the belief that cholera was spread by miasma or foul air The book acts as a complete overview of cholera in Victorian Britain taking a new accessible approach to a topic previously covered predominately by academic researchers Harpenden History The Hanging Valley (An Inspector Banks Mystery) Peter Robinson,2013-10-22 When a faceless body is found in a tranquil valley just south of the village of Swainshead Chief Inspector Alan Banks soon finds that no one in the village is willing to talk about it except to say Not again An unsolved murder from five years before and the unsolved disappearance of a prominent local man s girlfriend appear to be connected As Banks delves deeper into the mystery someone begins to intentionally slow down the investigation When events take a turn Inspector Banks must track his killer across the Atlantic and find a way to make a break in the case before time runs out Fourth in the critically acclaimed Inspector Banks Mystery Series Shared

Psychosis Zafar Y. Ibrahim,2003-10 The Billionaire's Christmas Proposal Victoria James,2015-11-16 She s everything he wants for Christmas Social worker Allison Barrington s home went up in smoke literally a month before Christmas Now the guardian of her teenage sister and a crazy pup she shows up on the doorstep of the only man in the city she can trust Resisting Ethan Dane had never been easy but luckily Allie isn t into cutthroat playboy businessmen And Ethan is as driven as they come Ethan Dane has wanted Allie since the moment he laid eyes on her at their best friends wedding Having her in his home is the perfect chance to prove to her that their chemistry can t be denied but when he finds out that the biggest business coup of his career means destroying the youth center where Allie works Ethan is forced to decide what kind of man he wants to be Narrative Being Vs. Narrating Being Armela Panajoti,2015-11-25 This edited volume focuses on Anglo American modernist fiction offering challenging perspectives that consider modernism in the instances in which it transcends itself moving broadly speaking towards postmodernist self irony As such the contributions here discuss issues such as being in creation narrativizing being and creation the relation between being and narrative the situation of being in narrative time and space the relation between authority and narrative possible authority over narrative and the authority of narrative interaction between narrative and the other the authority of the other over and within the narrative and the interreferentiality of text and author Divided into two parts Towards High Modernism and After Modernism the book allows the reader to chronologically follow how authors relations to literature in general evolved with the changing world and new perspectives on the nature of reality This book offers an insightful contribution to the on going discussion on the ambiguities inherent in the concepts of author narrative and being and will stimulate intellectual confrontation and circulation of ideas within the field

Canon and Criterion in Christian Theology William James Abraham,2002 Canon and Criterion in Christian Theology provides an original and important narrative on the significance of canon in the Christian tradition Standard accounts of canon reduce canon to scripture and treat scripture as a criterion of truth Scripture is then related in positive or negative ways to tradition reason and experience Such projects involve a misreading of the meaning and content of canon they locate the canonical heritage of the church within epistemology and Abraham charts the fatal consequences of this move from the Fathers to modern feminist theology In the process he shows that the central epistemological concerns of the Enlightenment have Christian origins and echoes He also shows that the crucial developments of theology from the Reformation onwards involve extraordinary efforts to fix the foundations of faith This trajectory is now exhausted theologically and spiritually Hence the door is opened for a recovery of the full canonical heritage of the early church and for fresh work on the epistemology of theology

Pain, Death, and the Law Austin Sarat,2009-09-11 This collection of essays examines the relationship between pain death and the law and addresses the question of how the law constructs pain and death as jurisprudential facts The empirical focus of these essays enables the reader to delve into both the history and the theoretical complexities of the pain death law relationship The combination of the theoretical and the empirical broadens the contribution this volume will undoubtedly make to debates in which the right to live or die is the core issue at hand This volume will be an important read for policy makers and legal practitioners and a valuable text for courses in law the social sciences and the humanities Austin Sarat is William Nelson Cromwell Professor of Jurisprudence and Political Science Amherst College
