Sense Of An Interior Four Writers And The Rooms That Shaped Them:

The Sense of an Interior Diana Fuss, 2004-08-02 The Sense of an Interior is a fascinating exploration of domestic space and of the ways it determines how writers work The book looks at four famous figures Emily Dickinson Sigmund Freud Helen Keller and Marcel Proust and examines the relationship between their work and the spaces where they wrote The Sense of an Interior Diana Fuss, 2004 Fuss brings us across the writer's threshold opening a door onto the hidden world where literature is produced These private home theaters for the rehearsal of language are each organized around a particular sensory challenge Dickinson who confined herself to the family homestead in Amherst suffered from periodic bouts of blindness Freud's famous consulting room in Vienna was arranged to compensate for his deafness in one ear Keller's home in Easton Connecticut became a place of danger and injury as old age and eczema gradually dulled her sensitivity to touch And Proust literary history's most acclaimed asthmatic distanced the bedroom of his Paris apartment from the odors of kitchen and courtyard to protect his delicate sense of smell BOOK JACKET Interiors and Narrative Estela Vieira, 2012-12-17 Interiors and Narrative shows how crucial interiors are for our understanding of the nature of narrative A growing cultural fascination with interior dwelling so prevalent in the late nineteenth century parallels an intensification of the rhetorical function interior architecture plays in the development of fiction The existential dimension of dwelling becomes so intimately tied to the novelistic project that fiction surfaces as a way of inhabiting the world This study illustrates this through a comparative reading of three realist masterpieces of the Luso Hispanic nineteenth century Machado de Assis's Quincas Borba 1891 Eça de Queirós's The Maias 1888 and Leopoldo Alas's La Regenta 1884 1885 The first full length study to juxtapose the renowned writers Interiors and Narrative analyzes the authors spatial poetics while offering new readings of their work The book explores the important links between interiors and narrative by explaining how rooms furnishings and homes function as metaphors for the writing of the narrative reflecting on the complex relation between private dwellings and human interiority and arguing that the interior design of rooms becomes a language that gives furnishings and decorative objects a narrative life of their own The story of homes and furnishings in these narratives creates a semiotic language that both readers and characters rely on in order to make sense of fiction and reality Interior Design Since 1900 (Fourth) (World of Art) Anne Massey, 2020-04-14 Newly updated and overflowing with color this well established history of interior design describes and illustrates each movement and change in taste throughout the twentieth century Interior design experienced an extraordinary amount of changes in taste and style during the twentieth century From William Morris and the Arts and Crafts movement to expressionism postmodernism and green design Interior Design Since 1900 charts them all Featuring more than two hundred color illustrations of interiors from around the world this book reveals the fundamental changes in style that occurred throughout the century The 1900s saw the emergence of professional designers and a growing appetite to redesign homes to keep up with popular fashion In recent decades the focus has shifted toward public spaces and sustainable design In this survey Anne Massey explores the social political economic and cultural contexts of these developments This book has been a classic introduction to interior design for almost thirty years The new fourth edition is brought up to date with a chapter on transnational design encompassing midcentury modernist work in Singapore and Sri Lanka as well as more recent interior spaces including luxury hotels in Dubai and a contemporary art museum in Cape Town Through this book Massey shows how a shared language of design and cutting edge technology are reshaping interiors around the globe

The Still Life in the Fiction of A. S. Byatt Elizabeth Hicks,2010-08-11 This book explores the ways in which English writer A S Byatt s visual still lifes descriptions of real or imagined artworks and what are termed verbal still lifes scenes such as laid tables rooms and market stalls are informed by her veneration of both realism and writing It examines Byatt s adoption of the Barthesian concept of textual pleasure showing how her ekphrastic descriptions involve consumption and take time to unfold for the reader thereby highlighting the limitations of painting It also investigates the ways in which Byatt s still lifes demonstrate her debts to English modernist author Virginia Woolf French writer Marcel Proust and the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood of nineteenth century Britain A number of Byatt s verbal still lifes are read as semiotic markers of her characters particularly with regard to economic status and class Further her descriptions uniting food and sexuality are perceived as part of her overall representation of pleasure Finally Byatt s employment of vanitas iconography in many of her portrayals of death is discussed showing how her recurring motif of Keats s Ode on a Grecian Urn teases out the still life s inherent tension between living passion and cold artwork

The Domestic Space Reader Kathy Mezei,Chiara Briganti,2012-01-01 Tune in to HGTV visit your local bookstore s magazine section or flip to the Homes section of your weekend newspaper and it becomes clear domestic spaces play an immense role in our cultural consciousness The Domestic Space Reader addresses our collective fascination with houses and homes by providing the first comprehensive survey of the concept across time cultures and disciplines This pioneering anthology which is ideal for students and general readers features writing by key scholars thinkers and writers including Gaston Bachelard Mary Douglas Le Corbusier Homi Bhabha Henri Lefebvre Mrs Beeton Ma Thanegi Diana Fuss Beatriz Colomina and Edith Wharton Among the many engaging topics explored are the impact of domestic technologies on family life the relationship between religion and the home nomadic peoples and housing domestic spaces in art and literature and the history of the bedroom the kitchen and the bathroom The Domestic Space Reader demonstrates how discussions of domestic spaces can help us better understand our inner lives and challenge our perceptions of life in particular times and places

The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design Graeme Brooker,Lois Weinthal,2013-10-24 The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design offers a compelling collection of original essays that seek to examine the shifting role of interior architecture and interior design and their importance and meaning within the contemporary world Interior architecture and interior design are disciplines that span a complexity of ideas ranging from human behaviour and anthropology to history and the technology of the future Approaches to designing the interior are in a constant state of flux reflecting and adapting to the changing systems of history culture and politics It is this process that allows interior design to be used as evidence for identifying patterns of consumption gender identity and social issues The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design provides a pioneering overview of the ideas and arrangements within the two disciplines that make them such important platforms from which to study the way humans interact with the space around them Covering a wide range of thought and research the book enables the reader to investigate fully the changing face of interior architecture and interior design while offering questions about their future trajectory

Gender and Space in British Literature, 1660-1820 Mona Narain, Karen Gevirtz, 2016-04-15 Between 1660 and 1820 Great Britain experienced significant structural transformations in class politics economy print and writing that produced new and varied spaces and with them new and reconfigured concepts of gender In mapping the relationship between gender and space in British literature of the period this collection defines charts and explores new cartographies both geographic and figurative The contributors take up a variety of genres and discursive frameworks from this period including poetry the early novel letters and laboratory notebooks written by authors ranging from Aphra Behn Hortense Mancini and Isaac Newton to Frances Burney and Germaine de Sta l Arranged in three groups Inside Outside and Borderlands the essays conduct targeted literary analysis and explore the changing relationship between gender and different kinds of spaces in the long eighteenth century In addition a set of essays on Charlotte Smith s novels and a set of essays on natural philosophy offer case studies for exploring issues of gender and space within larger fields such as an author s oeuvre or a particular discourse Taken together the essays demonstrate space s agency as a complement to historical change as they explore how literature delineates the gendered redefinition occupation negotiation inscription and creation of new spaces crucially contributing to the construction of new cartographies in eighteenth and early nineteenth century England

Museums and Biographies Kate Hill, 2012 Exploring the relationship between museums and biographies this collection of essays examines examples from the early 19th century to the present day

Metaphors of Confinement Monika Fludernik, 2019-08-13 Metaphors of Confinement The Prison in Fact Fiction and Fantasy offers a historical survey of imaginings of the prison as expressed in carceral metaphors in a range of texts about imprisonment from Antiquity to the present as well as non penal situations described as confining or restrictive These imaginings coalesce into a carceral imaginary that determines the way we think about prisons just as social debates about punishment and criminals feed into the way carceral imaginary develops over time Examining not only English language prose fiction but also poetry and drama from the Middle Ages to postcolonial particularly African literature the book juxtaposes literary and non literary contexts and contrasts fictional and nonfictional representations of im prison ment and discussions about the prison as institution and experiential reality It comments on present day trends of punitivity and foregrounds the ethical dimensions of penal punishment The main argument concerns the continuity of carceral metaphors through the centuries despite historical developments that included major shifts in policy such as the invention of the penitentiary The study looks at selected carceral metaphors often from two complementary perspectives such as the home as prison or the prison as home or the factory as prison and the prison as factory The case studies present particularly relevant genres and texts that employ these metaphors often from a historical perspective that analyses development through different periods
