D. Broad's Theory of Perception, by Martin Lean... [A Dissertation.].* Martin Lean,1953 Psychology and Philosophy of Abstract Art Paul M.W. Hackett,2016-05-25 This book examines how we perceive and understand abstract art in contrast to artworks that represent reality Philosophical psychological and neuroscience research including the work of philosopher Paul Crowther are considered and out of these approaches a complex model is developed to account for this experience The understanding embodied in this model is rooted in facet theory mapping sentences and partially ordered analyses which together provide a comprehensive understanding of the perceptual experience of abstract art Causal Theories of Mind Steven Davis,2012-01-19 No detailed description available for Causal Theories of Mind Dictionary of Twentieth-Century British Philosophers Stuart Brown,2005-06-01 This is a two volume work with entries on individuals who made some contribution to philosophy in the period 1900 to 1960 or soon after The entries deal with the whole philosophical work of an individual or in the case of philosophers still living their whole work to date Typically the individuals included have been born by 1935 and by now have made their main contributions Contributions to the subject typically take the form of books or journal articles but influential teachers and people otherwise important in the world of philosophy may also be included The dictionary includes amateurs as well as professional philosophers and where appropriate thinkers whose main discipline was outside philosophy There are special problems about the term British in the twentieth century partly because of human migration partly because of decolonialization and the changing denotation of the term The intention has been to include not only those who were British
