Sentimental Men:

Sentimental Men Mary Chapman, Glenn Hendler, 1999-10-12 This text analyses cultural forms to demonstrate the centrality of masculine sentiment in American literary and cultural history They analyze sentimentalism not just as a literary game but as a structure of feeling manifested in many areas Association Men, 1916 Rewriting White Masculinities in Contemporary Fiction and Film Josep M. Armengol, 2024-03-25 This book focuses on the construction of hegemonic masculinity as well as its representations in literature culture and film Although white heterosexual masculinity continues to be the dominant model it remains paradoxically largely invisible in gender terms While the first three chapters thus offer introductory theoretical perspectives on the latest research on white masculinities the following chapters concentrate on applying masculinity theory to the analysis of both social constructions and cultural i e literary and film representations of men s emotions with a special focus on new fatherhood models friendships between men as well as gender based violence

Modern Sentimentalism Lisa Mendelman, 2019-12-17 Modern Sentimentalism examines how American female novelists reinvented sentimentalism in the modernist period Just as the birth of the modern woman has long been imagined as the death of sentimental feeling modernist literary innovation has been understood to reject sentimental aesthetics Modern Sentimentalism reframes these perceptions of cultural evolution Taking up icons such as the New Woman the flapper the free lover the New Negro woman and the divorcee this book argues that these figures embody aspects of a traditional sentimentality while also recognizing sentiment as incompatible with ideals of modern selfhood These double binds equally beleaguer the protagonists and shape the styles of writers like Willa Cather Edith Wharton Anita Loos and Jessie Fauset Modern sentimentalism thus translates nineteenth century conventions of sincerity and emotional fulfillment into the skeptical self conscious modes of interwar cultural production Reading canonical and under examined novels in concert with legal briefs scientific treatises and other transatlantic period discourse and combining traditional and quantitative methods of archival research Modern Sentimentalism demonstrates that feminine feeling far from being peripheral to twentieth century modernism animates its central principles and preoccupations Wounded Hearts Jennifer Travis, 2006-05-18 The literary study of emotion is part of an important revisionary movement among scholars eager to recast emotional politics for the twenty first century Looking beyond the traditional categories of sentiment sensibility and sympathy Jennifer Travis suggests a new approach to reading emotionalism among men She argues that the vocabulary of injury with its evaluations of victimhood and its assessments of harm has deeply influenced the cultural history of emotions From the Civil War to the early twentieth century Travis traces the history of male emotionalism in American discourse She argues that injury became a comfortable vocabulary particularly among white middle class men through which to articulate and to claim a range of emotional wounds The debates about injury that flourished in the cultural arenas of medicine psychology and the law spilled over into the realm of fiction as Travis demonstrates through readings of works by Stephen Crane William Dean Howells

Willa Cather Henry James and Edith Wharton Travis concludes by linking this history to twenty first century preoccupations with pain centered politics which she cautions too often focuses only on women and racial minorities Statistical Panic
Kathleen Woodward,2009-01-16 Reflections on how Americans are constrained by cultural scripts for age race and gender proper emotional behavior and how our increasingly media saturated culture impoverishes our interior lives The Cambridge Companion to Nineteenth-Century American Women's Writing Dale M.
