September 11 Fiction Of Matrix:

September 11 Fiction of Matrix Faruk Arslan, 2005-08-01 I was inspired by Hollywood movie in giving a name to this book Matrix is the name of a fake world which is believed to be fictitious September 11 was a starting point which differentiates between those who resist and those who don't and between those who believe and those who don't I agree with war on terrorism blame all kind of terrorist and terror acts but I disagree with the fiction of Matrix Absolutely Al Qaeda is a terrorist organization and Laden is the mastermind of terrorism Thank you Canada I am proud of being Canadian otherwise I would not feel free to write this book in US FARUK ARSLAN REGINA SASKATCHEWAN CANADA 9/11 Fiction,

Empathy, and Otherness Tim Gauthier, 2015-04-02 9/11 Fiction Empathy and Otherness analyzes recent works of fiction whose principal subject is the attacks of September 11 2001 The readings of the novels question and assess the validity and potential effectiveness of both the subsequent calls for a cosmopolitan outlook and the related but no less significant emphasis placed on empathy and exhibited in such recent studies as Jeremy Rifkin's The Empathic Civilization Karsten Stueber's Rediscovering Empathy and Julinna Oxley's The Moral Dimensions of Empathy As such this study examines the extent to which us and them narratives proliferated after 9/11 and the degree to which calls for greater empathy and a renewed emphasis on cosmopolitan values served to counterbalance an apparent movement towards increased polarization encapsulated in the oft mentioned clash of civilizations A principal objective of the book is thus to examine the ethical and political implications revealed in the exercising or withholding of empathy For though empathy in and of itself may not be sufficient it is nevertheless a vital component in the generation of actions one might identify as cosmopolitan In other words this book examines the responses to 9/11 in both Western and non Western novels in order to uncover what their dramatic renderings might tell us about the possibility of a truly globalized community The attainability of any cosmopolitan engagement is contingent upon our abilities to understand the other knowing always that otherness eludes our grasp and the best we can do is imagine some version of it It is primarily in this capacity that the novel has a role to play Whether it is the challenge of connecting with the survivors of trauma and the inhabitants of a traumatized city or with a hyperpower that has experienced its own vulnerability for the first time or even with the terrorist who seeks to commit violent acts these novels afford us the means of examining the complex dynamics involved in any exhibition of fellow feeling for the other and the ever present potential failure of that engagement The Sleeper Agent in Post-9/11 Media Vanessa Ossa, 2023-01-01 This book examines the figure of the sleeper agent as part of post 9/11 political journalistic and fictional discourse There is a tendency to discuss the terroristic threat after 9/11 as either a faraway enemy to be hunted down by military force or on the other hand as a ubiquitous intangible threat that required constant alertness at home The missing link between these two is the sleeper agent the foreign enemy hiding among US citizens By analyzing popular television shows several US comic books and a broad variety of Hollywood films that depict sleeper agents direct or allegorically this book explores how a shift in perspective from terrorist to sleeper agent brings new insights into our understanding of post 9 11 representations of terrorism The book s interdisciplinary focus between media studies cultural studies and American studies suggests that it will find an audience in a variety of fields including historical research narratology popular culture as well as media and terrorism studies

The Post-9/11 Great American Novel Sheheryar Sheikh,2025-10-16 A study of the confluences between liberal white Americans trauma their reverting to hyper conservative Islamophobia and Don DeLillo s call to American authors that they compose a new so called Great American Novel pluriverse in the wake of 9 11 In December 2001 Don DeLillo urged American writers to create the counternarrative that would reclaim control of culture in a call for nation rebuilding fiction that mirrors John William de Forest s original post Civil War coinage of the term and concept of the Great American Novel Through this conceptual framework Sheheryar Sheikh examines four major post 9 11 works to demonstrate a concerted effort by these authors to address the Muslim Question in novels that feature and critique traumatized white Americans creating mechanisms with which to mitigate the trauma of 9 11 as it resurges at even the thought of Muslims existing in America after 9 11 By looking at repression appropriation adversarial othering and enforced secularization as they appear in Jonathan Safran Foer s Extremely Loud Incredibly Close John Updike s Terrorist DeLillo s Falling Man and Amy Waldman s The Submission this study shows the iterations of solutions and the abandonment of these ideals by traumatized white liberals While the original concept of the Great American Novel featured fluid and multifaceted explorations of the American Dream The Post 9 11 Great American Novel shows how this renewed interest in creating nation rebuilding texts threatened to stagnate and calcify this literary form Specifically because these texts primarily congeal around the occlusion of Muslims and Islam within and from the United States

Fiction Beyond Secularism Justin Neuman,2014-07-31 Modernist thinkers once presumed a progressive secularity with the novel replacing religious texts as society s moral epics Yet religion beginning with the Iranian revolution of 1979 through the collapse of communism and culminating in the singular rupture of September 11 2001 has not retreated quietly out of sight In Fiction Beyond Secularism Justin Neuman argues that contemporary novelists who are most commonly identified as antireligious among them Orhan Pamuk Salman Rushdie Ian

McEwan Margaret Atwood Nadine Gordimer Haruki Murakami and J M Coetzee have defied assumptions and have instead written some of the most trenchant critiques of secular ideologies as well as the most exciting and rigorous inquiries into the legacies of the religious imagination As a result many readers or nonreaders on either side of the religious divide neglect the insights of works like The Satanic Verses Disgrace and Snow Fiction Beyond Secularism serves as a timely corrective

Turkey's Relations With Israel Ekavi Athanassopoulou, 2024-12-03 This book offers the first comprehensive history and analysis of Turkey's relations with Israel since 1948 when the state of Israel was established up until 2010 and places them within the wider framework of Turkey's foreign policy It highlights the remarkable lack of consistency in Turkey's foreign policy towards Israel under different Turkish governments which has given the relationship a pervasive sense of unpredictability Combining empirical analytical evidence with role theory insights as developed in Foreign Policy Analysis FPA it explores Turkish foreign policy makers' perceptions regarding the proper role and function of the country in the international system and the sub system of the Middle East and how they affected the policy towards Israel The author argues that Ankara's ambivalent policy towards Israel for over sixty years can be explained by Turkey's multiple and often contradictory national role conceptions The study which draws from archival material and over fifty interviews with Turkish Israeli American and Arab officials and experts places Ankara's policy into a larger analytical framework which helps link the past to the present and future The book is essential reading for students and scholars interested in understanding Turkey's foreign policy in general and towards the Middle East in particular
