There are extensive footnotes and bibliographies. Collection Management in Academic Libraries Clare Jenkins, Mary Morley, 1999 Economic constraints curriculum changes growing student numbers and the information explosion resulting from technological developments have put a higher priority on the successful management of increasingly diverse library collections This new edition of Collection Management in Academic Libraries written by senior university librarians and expert commentators from both the UK and North America provides an enlightening overview of collection management policy and practice in academic libraries today Though recognizing the continuing importance of traditional printed holdings the book highlights the central role now played in academic libraries by electronic information It explores possible scenarios for the future and discusses the management of access to remote sources of information and issues relating to infrastructure support New chapters are included on the management of electronic information learning support document delivery strategies preservation and disaster planning and collection management for the twenty first century The chapters on organization of collection management finance and budgeting performance measurement serials management stock retention and relegation have been revised in the light of recent changes in collection priorities and user demand Collection Management in Academic Libraries is chiefly aimed at library managers and students of library and information science Those responsible for acquisitions reader services and serials management will also find that lessons from the experience and research described in the book will help to equip them better for the challenges in their own institutions

Leadership and Administration of Successful Archival Programs Bruce W. Dearstyne, 2001-10-30 Strong archival programs are rare in part because the archival field has not given sustained attention to program leadership and management issues over the years As a consequence many programs are underfunded and undersupported and lack sufficient space staff and other resources to carry out their immensely important work This collection of essays from eight of the archival field's notably successful leaders provides first hand accounts of how to carry out planning build coalitions and alliances garner resources empower and inspire program personnel change program direction and take programs in new dynamic directions There is an abundance of literature on archival theory techniques and practice but leadership program building and related topics are seldom covered in archival literature This collection of essays provides varying perspectives insights advice caveats and other helpful information based on the experiences of highly regarded professionals in the field who have actually developed and administered successful programs They address such issues as how to define program success the traits of a successful program leadership traits and similarities and differences between archival program and similar programs such as libraries
