Nature Needs Us:

More than Nature Needs Derek Bickerton, 2014-01-13 How did humans acquire cognitive capacities far more powerful than any hunting and gathering primate needed to survive Alfred Russel Wallace co founder with Darwin of evolutionary theory set humans outside normal evolution Darwin thought use of language might have shaped our sophisticated brains but this remained an intriguing guess until now Combining state of the art research with forty years of writing and thinking about language origins Derek Bickerton convincingly resolves a crucial problem that biology and the cognitive sciences have systematically avoided Before language or advanced cognition could be born humans had to escape the prison of the here and now in which animal thinking and communication were both trapped Then the brain's self organization triggered by words assembled mechanisms that could link not only words but the concepts those words symbolized a process that had to be under conscious control Those mechanisms could be used equally for thinking and for talking but the skeletal structures they produced were suboptimal for the hearer and had to be elaborated Starting from humankind's remotest past More than Nature Needs transcends nativist thesis and empiricist antithesis by presenting a revolutionary synthesis that shows specifically and in a principled way how and why the synthesis came about Sermons Charles K. Watt (M.A.), 1868

Mother Nature & Her Human Friends John KixMiller,2025-01-03 Mother Nature and Her Human Friends is a narrative poem The characters include Will a twenty year old who works for Miller the landscaper of the Bonvern Valley Park Will discovers a cave of vines and a hidden pool and tired of his studio apartment spends the night in the cave with his dog Hilda He has a dream vision of Mother Nature who speaks to him and creates a new direction for his life A day later Will meets Linda in the cave and together they gather a new group called Mother Nature's Friends They build a network to save the forest and the wetland in their valley and risk their lives to protect the living beauty around them I've worked all my life trying to re-envision who we are and what nature is and can be The idea that nature has no soul is a travesty a monstrous loss of our identity But now I see a different goal a new role for us to play Lisa Nieves Parks Commissioner for Bonvern Valley

Survival of the Beautiful David Rothenberg, 2012-02-02 The peacock's tail said Charles Darwin makes me sick That's because the theory of evolution as adaptation can't explain why nature is so beautiful It took the concept of sexual selection for Darwin to explain that a process that has more to do with aesthetics than the practical Survival of the Beautiful is a revolutionary new examination of the interplay of beauty art and culture in evolution Taking inspiration from Darwin's observation that animals have a natural aesthetic sense philosopher and musician David Rothenberg probes why animals humans included have innate appreciation for beauty and why nature is indeed beautiful Sexual selection may explain why animals desire but it says very little about what they desire Why will a bowerbird literally murder another bird to decorate its bower with the victim's blue feathers Why do butterfly wings boast such brilliantly varied patterns The beauty of nature is not arbitrary even if random mutation has played a role in evolution What can we learn from the amazing range of animal aesthetic behavior about animals and about ourselves Readers who enjoyed the bestsellers The Art Instinct and The Mind's Eye will find Survival of the Beautiful an equally stimulating and profound exploration of art science and the creative impulse
