Prospect Spirit Of Creative Poetry:

Prospect Spirit of Creative Poetry Walter Lee Moore, 1999-03      Oriental Prospects, 2022-07-04 A great deal of stimulating and valuable discussion as well as some indignation and hot air has been stimulated by Edward Said whose provocative study of Orientalism Western Conceptions of the Orient appeared twenty years ago This present book will we believe be recognized as a worthy addition to the many attempts that have since been made to sift the intrinsic and ingrained attitudes of West to East The fifteen articles in Oriental Prospects Western Literature and the Lure of the East cover literature from the Renaissance through the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries to the modern period some in pragmatic accounts of responses to and uses of experiences of the Orient and its cultural attitudes and artefacts others contending more theoretically with issues that Edward Said has raised Despite all the misunderstanding prejudice and propaganda in the scholarly and literary depiction of the Orient still today as in the past what emerges from this wide range of articles is that no species of literary text or academic study can appear without risking the accusation of escapist exoticism or cultural and economic exploitation and thus regrettably masking the essential and vital significance of the political and the real and imaginative trading between East and West      English Studies from Archives to Prospects Irena Zovko Dinković, Tihana Klepač, Martina Domines Veliki, 2016-04-26 When we think about what it is we do in academic literary studies we do so taking account of time the time of the institution in which this disciplinary practice takes place and the history of the discipline itself Since literary studies engage contemporary issues and how they impact the reader we must also acknowledge processes and events outside the field The contributions to this volume engage with the idea of temporality not only in Anglophone literature studies but in the humanities as a whole In the first section the literary contributions show that the humanities owe a debt to the past new paradigms question and challenge the validity of older ones without necessarily discarding them The second section shows how the disciplinary archive can be modified and expanded to engage its present condition while the last deals with what that condition forebodes Despite the range of perspectives adopted here all contributions echo the history of the discipline of literary studies itself its present condition and the possibilities for its survival in an age in which the relevance of humanities is being disputed      The Oxford Handbook of William Wordsworth Richard Gravil, Daniel Robinson, 2015-01-22 The Oxford Handbook of William Wordsworth deploys its forty seven original essays to present a stimulating account of Wordsworth's life and achievement and to map new directions in criticism In addition to twenty two essays wholly on Wordsworth's poetry other essays return to the poetry while exploring other dimensions of the life and work of the major Romantic poet The result is a dialogic exploration of many major texts and problems in Wordsworth scholarship This uniquely comprehensive handbook is structured so as to present in turn Wordsworth's life career and networks aspects of the major lyrical and narrative poetry components of The Recluse his poetical inheritance and his transformation of poetics the variety of intellectual influences upon his work from classical republican thought to modern science his shaping of modern culture in such fields as gender landscape psychology ethics politics religion and ecology and his 19th and 20th century reception most importantly by poets but also in modern criticism and scholarship L. M. Montgomery's Emily of New Moon Yan Du, Joe Sutliff Sanders, 2024-04-23 Contributions by Yoshiko Akamatsu Carol L Beran Rita Bode Lesley D Clement Allison McBain Hudson Kate Lawson Jessica Wen Hui Lim Lindsey McMaster E Holly Pike Katharine Slater Margaret Steffler and Anastasia Ulanowicz Lucy Maud Montgomery 1874 1942 was a Canadian author best known for writing the wildly popular Anne of Green Gables At the time of its publication in 1908 it was an immediate bestseller and launched Montgomery to fame Less known than the dreamy and accidentally mischievous Anne Shirley is Emily Byrd Starr the title character in the trilogy that followed much later in Montgomery's professional career Emily of New Moon Published in 1923 Emily of New Moon is the first in a series of novels about an orphan girl growing up on Prince Edward Island a story that mirrors Anne's but intentionally resists many of the defining qualities of Montgomery's most famous creation Despite being overshadowed by the immense popularity of Anne of Green Gables the Emily of New Moon trilogy has become a subject of endless fascination to fans and scholars around the world The trilogy was conceived during an important phase in Montgomery's career during which she turned from Anne and plunged into more intricate aspects of gender adolescence nature and authorship While the novels have attracted rich critical attention since their publication book length studies proved surprisingly scarce L M Montgomery's Emily of New Moon: A Children's Classic at 100 is the first scholarly volume exclusively dedicated to the trilogy coalescing different research perspectives It offers a fresh point of entrance into a well loved classic at its one hundredth anniversary The Creative Crone Sylvia Henneberg, 2010 Henneberg shows how these writers offer radically different but richly complementary strategies for breaking the silence surrounding age Rich provides an approach to aging so strongly intertwined with other political issues that its complexity may keep us from immediately identifying age as one of her chief concerns On the other hand Sartre's direct treatment of aging sensitizes us to its importance and helps us see its significance in such writings as Rich's Meanwhile Rich's efforts to politicize age create stimulating contexts for Sartre's work Henneberg explores elements of these writers' individual poems that develop themes of aging including imagery and symbol the construction of a persona and the uses of rhythms to reinforce the themes She also includes analyses of their fiction and nonfiction works and draws ideas from age studies by scholars such as Margaret Morganroth Gullette Kathleen Woodward and Thomas Cole From publisher description The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 2000 The Orchestration of the Arts — A Creative Symbiosis of Existential Powers M. Kronegger, 2013-03-09 Regardless of the subject matter our studies are always searching for a sense of the universal in the specific Drawing etchings and paintings are a way of communicating ideas and emotions The key word here is to communicate Whether the audience sees the work as laborious or poetic depends on the creative genius of the artist Some painters use the play of light passing through a landscape or washing over a figure to create an evocative moment that will be both timeless and transitory

The essential role of art remains what it has always been a way of human expression This is the role that our participants concentrate on as they discuss art as the expression of the spirit a creative act through which the artist makes manifest what is within him Spirit suggests the unity of feeling and thought Avoiding broad generalities our participants address specific areas in orchestration with music architecture literature and phenomenology Profs Souiller Scholz Etlin Sweetser Josephs show us at what point art is an intimate profound expression and the magic of a civilization as a whole springing from its evolving thoughts and embodying ideals such as the Renaissance the Baroque Modernism and at what point it reflects the transformation of a particular society and its mode of life Littell's Living Age ,1885 Publishers Trade List R R

Bowker Publishing,2001 Philosophy and the Spiritual Life Victoria S. Harrison,Tyler Dalton McNabb,2023-07-01 This book breaks new ground for the philosophy of religion by showcasing work that engages with the lived reality of the spiritual life It demonstrates that philosophy's relationship with spirituality is more than a historical curiosity and that in the twenty first century it is still meaningful to think about philosophy in connection with spirituality The chapters are organised around the following themes spiritual practice and philosophical understanding philosophical reflections on living a spiritual life philosophical problems concerning the spiritual life The first part discusses whether or not the topic of spirituality should be given a more fundamental role within the philosophy of religion and if so how that might be accomplished The second part addresses fundamental issues concerning human beings their lives and their self understanding in relation to the spiritual life The final part considers philosophical problems that emerge when discussing the spiritual life By bringing together discussions of these topics this volume constitutes a valuable resource for scholars in disciplines in which the spiritual life is a focus of interest particularly philosophy theology and religious studies Understanding Maritain Deal Wyatt

Hudson,Matthew J. Mancini,1987 Louis H. Sullivan and a 19th-Century Poetics of Naturalized Architecture LaurenS. Weingarden,2017-07-05 For most of the twentieth century modernist viewers dismissed the architectural ornament of Louis H Sullivan 1856 1924 and the majority of his theoretical writings as emotional outbursts of an outmoded romanticism In this study Lauren Weingarden reveals Sullivan's eloquent articulation of nineteenth century romantic practices literary linguistic aesthetic spiritual and nationalistic and thus rescues Sullivan and his legacy from the narrow role imposed on him as a pioneer of twentieth century modernism Using three interpretive models discourse theory poststructural semiotic analysis and a pragmatic concept of sign functions she restores the integrity of Sullivan's artistic choices and his historical position as a culminating figure within nineteenth century romanticism By giving equal weight to Louis Sullivan's writings and designs Weingarden shows how he translated both Ruskin's tenets of Gothic naturalism and Whitman's poetry of the American landscape into elemental structural forms and organic ornamentation Viewed as a site where various romantic discourses converged Sullivan's oeuvre demands a cross disciplinary exploration of each discursive practice and its rules of accumulation exclusion reactivation The overarching theme of this study is the interrogation and restitution of those

Foucauldian rules that enabled Sullivan to articulate architecture as a pictorial mode of landscape art which he considered co equal with the spiritual and didactic functions of landscape poetry

Restoration and Eighteenth-Century Poetry 1660-1780 (Routledge Revivals) Eric Rothstein, 2014-10-10 Restoration and Eighteenth Century Poetry 1660 1780 originally published in 1981 considers poetry written between 1660 and 1780 a period which although largely recovered from its nineteenth century reputation still attracts widely varying critical responses Abandoning the old labels such as neoclassicism romanticism and sensibility the author focuses on descriptions of genres and their formal elements and traces the broader patterns of literary and historical change running through the period Eric Rothstein describes different poetic modes panegyric satire pastoral and topographical poetry the epistle and the ode to suggest their aesthetical possibilities as well as their process of change He also considers style and the uses of the past topics which have often caused particular problems for the students of the period What becomes clear is the extraordinary originality flexibility and power with which Restoration and eighteenth century poets handles the stylistic assumptions and the body of poems they inherited and employed in their own works      English Poetry and Prose of the Romantic Movement George Benjamin Woods,1916
