Prospects For Democratic Development In Africa Essays In Public Policy:

Democracy and Elections in Africa Staffan I. Lindberg, 2006-09-11 Outstanding Academic Title for 2007 Choice Magazine This volume studies elections as a core institution of liberal democracy in the context of newly democratizing countries Political scientist Staffan I Lindberg gathers data from every nationally contested election in Africa from 1989 to 2003 covering 232 elections in 44 countries He argues that democratizing nations learn to become democratic through repeated democratic behavior even if their elections are often flawed Refuting a number of established hypotheses Lindberg finds no general negative trend in either the frequency or the quality of African elections Rather elections in Africa based on his findings are more than just the goal of a transition toward democracy or merely a formal procedure The inception of multiparty elections usually initiates liberalization and repeated electoral activities create incentives for political actors fostering the expansion and deepening of democratic values In addition to improving the democratic qualities of political regimes a sequence of elections tends to expand and solidify de facto civil liberties in society Drawing on a wealth of data Lindberg makes the case that repetitive elections are an important causal factor in the development of democracy He thus extends Rustow s 1970 theory that democratic behavior produces democratic values A Decade of Democracy in Africa ,2002-10-31 The democratic experiment in Africa has had a checkered history over the past ten years Analysts of this process tend to focus on the political and legal space instead of including broader issues such as norms generational change and class Authors in this volume argue that African civil society is less likely to support democracy they measure African democracy by the women s rights movements unravel the mythical hope of technology and point to ideological capitulation necessary for a limited transition Past experience from Botswana South Africa Ghana Kenya Uganda and Madagascar will give the readers an understanding of democracy in Africa Contributors are Judith van Allen Lisa Aubrey Nigel Gibson Richard R Marcus Kenneth Mease Stephen N Ndegwa Stephen Orvis Dan Ottemoeller and Wisdom J Tettey Handbook of Economic Development Kuo-Tsai Liou, 1998-06-25 Featuring over 1900 references drawings and tables and drawing on disciplines as diverse as political economics public management and urban affairs this versatile text offers comprehensive information on major policy and managerial issues important to local and national economic development Pulling together the work of over 40 researchers the book examines the role of government in economic advances and reform provides a complete up to date survey of the literature on local and national economic development details local and regional economic progress in the US adopts an innovative interdisciplinary approach to the study of economic expansion and more

Democratic Transitions in East Africa F. Wafula Okumu, 2019-07-16 Originally published in 2004 Genocide in Rwanda massive floods of refugees and displaced people in the Horn of Africa violent civil wars in the West African countries of Sierra Leone and Liberia these are testimonies to the tremendous cost to grassroots communities when the authority and legitimacy of national political systems and leaders are called into question The consolidation of democracy represents one tangible strategy to restore authority and legitimacy of political rule providing the peace and security necessary for political enfranchisement and economic opportunity This volume explores the factors that are crucial to the emergence of democratic political systems on the African continent specifically focusing on Kenya Tanzania and Uganda It highlights the political challenges facing these countries during this crucial transition period and provides insights that are applicable to other countries engaged in this process in Africa and beyond

African Economies and the Politics of Permanent Crisis, 1979-1999 Nicolas Van de Walle, 2001-09-24 This Book explains why African countries have remained mired in a disastrous economic crisis since the late 1970s It shows that dynamics internal to African state structures largely explain this failure to overcome economic difficulties rather than external pressures on these same structures as is often argued Far from being prevented from undertaking reforms by societal interest and pressure groups clientelism within the state elite ideological factors and low state capacity have resulted in some limited reform but much prevarication and manipulation of the reform process by governments which do not really believe that reform will be effective

Democracy, Governance, and Economic Performance Yi Feng, 2003 A theoretical and empirical examination of why political institutions and organizations matter in economic growth

Closing the Circle Richard Sandbrook, 2000 It is a truism that many African countries face a three pronged tribulation political tyranny failed capitalist development and violent domestic conflict The relationship between effective democratic institutions successful development and civil peace is less clear This book analyzes the experience with democratization of a carefully selected sample of countries Ghana Mali and Niger in West Africa Zambia Tanzania and Madagascar in East Africa and Sudan

Sustainable Peace Philip G. Roeder, Donald S. Rothchild, 2005 How can leaders craft political institutions that will sustain the peace and foster democracy in ethnically divided societies after conflicts as destructive as civil wars This volume compares power dividing and power sharing solutions

Consolidating the Third Wave Democracies Larry Diamond, 1997-08-13 An in depth analysis of the struggle to consolidate new and fragile democracies available two paperback volumes for course use The global trend that Samuel P Huntington has dubbed the third wave of democratization has seen more than 60 countries experience democratic transitions since 1974 While these countries have succeeded in bringing down authoritarian regimes and replacing them with freely elected governments few of them can as yet be considered stable democracies Most remain engaged in the struggle to consolidate their new and fragile democratic institutions Consolidating the Third Wave Democracies provides an in depth analysis of the challenges that they face Consolidating the Third Wave Democracies is available in two paperback volumes each introduced by the editors and organized for convenient course use The first paperback volume Themes and Perspectives addresses issues of institutional design civil military relations civil society and economic development It brings together some of the world's foremost scholars of democratization including Robert A Dahl Samuel P Huntington Juan J Linz Guillermo O'Donnell Adam Przeworski Philippe C Schmitter and Alfred Stepan The second paperback volume Regional Challenges focuses on developments in

Southern Europe Latin America Russia and East Asia particularly Taiwan and China It contains essays by leading regional experts including Yun han Chu P Nikiforos Diamandouros Thomas B Gold Michael McFaul Andrew J Nathan and Hung mao Tien

African Renaissance in the Millennium Emmanuel Ike Udogu,2007-01-01 The book brings into sharp focus some of the major political social and economic issues that might impede Africa s development project in the 21st century It debates and suggests ways that policy makers might tackle these issues in order to promote the vision of the continent s transformation in the millennium

Globalization - The Juggernaut of the 21st Century Jan-Erik Lane,2016-04-22 While some people debate whether globalization really exists it proceeds apace affecting all societies It presents us with unknown challenges and as governments start to discuss what to do about these challenges it is becoming obvious that globalization is not manageable With globalization the juggernaut of the 21st century all countries of the world become interdependent in relation to the coming energy crisis climate change the sharper cleavages between rich and poor countries and people and the emergence of a multicultural social structure This interesting and erudite book adopts a distinctive approach to the multiple dimensions of the globalization debate The impressive coverage of philosophical thought including Popper Weber Habermas Lipset and Hobbes makes a valuable contribution to the debates on globalization

U.S.-China trade issues after the WTO and the PNTR deal , The Design and Use of Political Economy Indicators K. Banaian,B. Roberts,2008-11-10 This edited volume seeks to provide a critical and technical look at international political economic indices PEIs It examines measurement issues relates PEIs to economic theory and suggests better measures than those currently used

Race and Ethnicity in Comparative Perspective Georgia A. Persons,2018-04-24 Contradictory forces are at play at the close of the twentieth century There is a growing closeness of peoples fueled by old and new technologies of modern aviation digital based communications new patterns of trade and commerce and growing affluence of significant portions of the world s population Television permits individuals around the world to learn about the cultures and lifestyles of peoples of physically distant lands These developments give real meaning to the notion of a global village Peoples of the world are growing closer in new and increasingly important ways Nonetheless there are disturbing signs of a growing awareness of ethnic differences in all parts of the world the United States included and a concomitant rise in ethnic based conflicts many of them extraordinarily violent in nature Fear resentment intolerance and mistreatment of the other abound in world news accounts Not only does this phenomenon pose an interesting juxtaposition to the concept of the emergent global village but its emergence in the post cold war era internationally and the post civil rights era in the United States raises significant and compelling questions Why are such conflicts occurring now How do analysts explain these developments The essays in Race and Ethnicity in Comparative Perspective lucidly explore some of the complexities of the persistence and re emergence of race and ethnicity as major lines of divisiveness around the world Contributors analyze manifestations of race based movements for political empowerment in Europe and Latin America as well as racial intolerance in these same settings

Attention is also given to the conceptual complexities of multidimensional and shared cultural roots of the overlapping phenomena of ethnicity nationalism identity and ideology The book greatly informs discussions of race and ethnicity in the international context and provides an interesting perspective against which to view America's changing problem of race Race and Ethnicity in Comparative Perspective is a timely thought provoking volume that will be of immense value to ethnic studies specialists African American studies scholars political scientists historians and sociologists Public Relations

Theory II Carl H. Botan, Vincent Hazleton, 2010-08-27 This volume addresses the next generation of public relations theory reflecting the growth that has occurred in the discipline during the last several years It is appropriate for scholars students and practitioners in the field of public relations North Korea at a Crossroads , Freedom's fall in Hong Kong ,

U.S. foreign policy and intellectual property rights in Latin America ,1998 Handbook of Administrative Ethics Terry Cooper, 2019-02-21 Delineating implications for administrative ethics from other fields such as sociology psychology and philosophy this reference provides a comprehensive review of administrative ethics in the public sector Detailing the context within which contemporary ethics training has developed the book examines the effectiveness of ethics training legal and organizational devices for encouraging desired conduct and other topics of particular relevance to the political and social contexts of public administration Written by over 25 leading scholars in public administration ethics the book creates a taxonomy for administrative ethics using the categories of modern philosophy Governing for Prosperity Bruce Bueno de Mesquita, Hilton L. Root, 2000-07-11 How do political institutions help promote prosperity in some countries and poverty in others What can be done to encourage leaders to govern not for patronage but for economic growth In this book such distinguished political economists as Douglass North Robert Barro and Stephen Haber answer these questions providing a solution to one of the most important policy puzzles of the new century how to govern for prosperity The authors begin from a premise that political leaders are self interested politicians rather than benign agents of the people they lead When leaders depend on only a few backers to stay in power they dole out privileges to those people thereby dissipating their country's total resources and national growth potential On the other hand leaders who need large coalitions to stay in office implement policies that generally foster growth and political competition over ideas The result is that those who promote policies that lead to stagnation tend to stay in office for a long time and those who produce prosperity tend to lose their jobs Analyzing countries in North and South America and Asia the authors discuss the range of political regimes that permit or even encourage leaders to rule by mismanaging their nation's resources And they show that nations must forge institutions that allow all social groups to participate in and benefit from the economy as well as force political leaders to be responsible for policy outcomes
