Protagonistas De La Literatura Mexicana:

Protagonistas de la literatura mexicana Emmanuel Carballo, 2005 Diecinueve protagonistas de la literatura mexicana del siglo XX. Emmanuel Carballo, 1965 Ensayos selectos Emmanuel Carballo, 2004 Gender, Nation and the Formation of the Twentieth-century Mexican Literary Canon Sarah E. L. Bowskill, 2017-12-02 The post revolutionary Mexican literary canon was formed by cultural and political elites who sought to identify and reward those novels which would best represent the new nation Reviewers found what they were looking for in Gregorio Lopez y Fuentes's El indio 1935 for example but not in Consuelo Delgado's Yo tambien Adelita 1936 This groundbreaking study provides a fresh perspective on canon formation by uncovering the circumstances and readings which produced a male dominated Mexican literary canon Dictionary of Mexican Literature Eladio Cortés, 1992-11-24 This volume features approximately 600 entries that represent the major writers literary schools and cultural movements in the history of Mexican literature A collaborative effort by American Mexican and Hispanic scholars the text contains bibliographical biographical and critical material placing each work cited within its cultural and historical framework Intended to enrich the English speaking public's appreciation of the rich diversity of Mexican literature works are selected on the basis of their contribution toward an understanding of this unique artistry The dictionary contains entries keyed by author and works the length of each entry determined by the relative significance of the writer or movement being discussed Each biographical entry identifies the author's literary contribution by including facts about his or her life and works a chronological list of works a supplementary bibliography and when appropriate critical notes Authors are listed alphabetically and cross referenced both within the text and the index to facilitate easy access to information Selected bibliographical entries are also listed alphabetically by author and include both the original title and English translation publisher date and place of publication and number of pages The Mexican Novel Comes of Age Walter M. Langford, 1971 Poverty and Antitheatricality Stephen Buttes, 2025-06-17 Poverty and Antitheatricality argues that many major analytical approaches today misunderstand the problem of poverty by emphasizing its status as an experience These experiential models transform poverty from a specific socioeconomic status lived in a particular historical sequence into a transhistorical presence of marginality that is not only inevitable but necessary Embedded in capitalist socialist and populist forms of socioeconomic organization these models paradoxically suggest that if we want to have a world free of poverty we must always have the poor and their experience of formlessness Taking up the paired terms form and formlessness Stephen Buttes demonstrates how they sustain not only debates about poverty and its political role within modernity but also the idea of the work of art within the history of modernism Offering critiques of critical theory alongside new readings of both canonical and little studied Latin American authors and artists Poverty and Antitheatricality makes a compelling case that understanding the kind of problem the work of art is opens up overlooked but essential pathways to understanding poverty and the kind of problem it is The Inner Life of Mestizo Nationalism Estelle Tarica, 2008 The only recent English language work on Spanish American indigenismo from a literary perspective Estelle Tarica's work shows how modern Mexican and Andean discourses about the relationship between Indians and non Indians create a unique literary aesthetic that is instrumental in defining the experience of mestizo nationalism Engaging with narratives by Jess Lara Jos Mara Arguedas and Rosario Castellanos among other thinkers Tarica explores the rhetorical and ideological aspects of interethnic affinity and connection In her examination she demonstrates that these connections posed a challenge to existing racial hierarchies in Spanish America by celebrating a new kind of national self at the same time that they contributed to new forms of subjection and discrimination Going beyond debates about the relative merits of indigenismo and mestizaje Tarica puts forward a new perspective on indigenista literature and modern mestizo identities by revealing how these ideologies are symptomatic of the dilemmas of national subject formation The Inner Life of Mestizo Nationalism offers insight into the contemporary resurgence and importance of indigenista discourses in Latin America Estelle Tarica is associate professor of Latin American literature and culture at the University of California Berkeley

Avenues of Translation Regina Galasso, Evelyn Scaramella, 2019-04-15 Winner of the 2020 SAMLA Studies Book Award Edited Collection Cities both near and far communicate in a variety of ways Travel between through and among urban centers initiates contact and cities themselves are sites of ever changing cultural and historical encounters Predictable and surprising challenges and opportunities arise when city borders are crossed voices meet and artistic traditions find their counterparts Using the Latin word for translation translatio or to carry across as a point of departure Avenues of Translation explores how translation perpetuates diversifies deepens and expands the literary production of cities in their greater cultural context and how translation shapes an understanding of and access to a city's past and present literary and cultural practices Thinking about translation and the city is a way to tell the backstories of the cities texts and authors that are united by acts of translation Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press

Uncivil Wars Sandra Messinger Cypess, 2012-08-01 The first English language book to place the works of Elena Garro 1916 1998 and Octavio Paz 1914 1998 in dialogue with each other Uncivil Wars evokes the lives of two celebrated literary figures who wrote about many of the same experiences and contributed to the formation of Mexican national identity but were judged quite differently primarily because of gender While Paz's privileged prize winning legacy has endured worldwide Garro's literary gifts garnered no international prizes and received less attention in Latin American literary circles Restoring a dual perspective on these two dynamic writers and their world Uncivil Wars chronicles a collective memory of wars that shaped Mexico and in turn shaped Garro and Paz from the Conquest period to the Mexican Revolution the Spanish Civil War which the couple witnessed while traveling abroad and the student massacre at Tlatelolco Plaza in 1968 which brought about social and political changes and further tensions in the battle of the sexes The cultural contexts of machismo and ethnicity provide an equally rich ground for Sandra Cypess's exploration of the tandem between the writers' personal lives and their literary production Uncivil Wars illuminates the complexities of Mexican society as seen through a tense marriage of two talented often oppositional writers The result is an alternative interpretation of the myths and realities that have shaped Mexican identity and its literary soul well into the twenty first century A Rosario

Castellanos Reader Rosario Castellanos, 2010-06-28 Thinker writer diplomat feminist Rosario Castellanos was emerging as one of Mexico's major literary figures before her untimely death in 1974 This sampler of her work brings together her major poems short fiction essays and a three act play The Eternal Feminine Translated with fidelity to language and cultural nuance many of these works appear here in English for the first time allowing English speaking readers to see the depth and range of Castellanos work In her introductory essay Reading Rosario Castellanos Contexts Voices and Signs Maureen Ahern presents the first comprehensive study of Castellanos work as a sign or signifying system This approach through contemporary semiotic theory unites literary criticism and translation as an integral semiotic process Ahern reveals how Castellanos integrated women's images bodies voices and texts to feminize her discourse and create a plurality of new signs messages about women in Mexico Describing this process in The Eternal Feminine Castellanos observes it's not good enough to imitate the models proposed for us that are answers to circumstances other than our own It isn't even enough to discover who we are We have to invent ourselves Latin American Women Writers: An Encyclopedia María Claudia André, Eva

Paulino Bueno, 2014-01-09 Latin American Women Writers An Encyclopedia presents the lives and critical works of over 170 women writers in Latin America between the sixteenth and twentieth centuries This features thematic entries as well as biographies of female writers whose works were originally published in Spanish or Portuguese and who have had an impact on literary political and social studies Focusing on drama poetry and fiction this work includes authors who have published at least three literary texts that have had a significant impact on Latin American literature and culture Each entry is followed by extensive bibliographic references including primary and secondary sources Coverage consists of critical appreciation and analysis of the writers' works Brief biographical data is included but the main focus is on the meanings and contexts of the works as well as their cultural and political impact In addition to author entries other themes are explored such as humor in contemporary Latin American fiction lesbian literature in Latin America magic realism or mother images in Latin American literature The aim is to provide a unique thorough scholarly survey of women writers and their works in Latin America This Encyclopedia will be of interest to both to the student of literature as well as to any reader interested in understanding more about Latin American culture literature and how women have represented gender and national issues throughout the centuries
