Protective Discrimination A. K. Lal, 2001 Contributed seminar articles with reference to India Politics of Protection
A.K. Lal, 2019-01-01 Contemporary Bihar represents a situation where the recently forged unity among the middle range castes has produced profound political consequences Struggle for availability of benefits of reservation has stirred them to federate for political aggregation It marks the inauguration of a phase of social upheaval and political renaissance Wide integration among intermediate castes is a remarkable contemporary reality This book details the strivings of this section of society for upward mobility in a historical perspective The themes in the protest ideology of the middle range castes in other parts of the country constitute priority areas for exploration as these provide clues to the understanding of change and continuity in the traditionally legitimised status structure Dalit Politics in Contemporary India Sambaiah Gundimeda, 2015-10-14 This book is a ground breaking intervention on Dalit politics in India Challenging received ideas it uses a comparative framework to understand Dalit mobilisations for political power social equality and justice The monograph traces the emergence of Dalit consciousness and its different strands in north and south India from colonial to contemporary times and interrogates key notions and events These include the debate regarding core themes such as the Hindu Muslim cleavage in the north and caste in the south the extent to which Dalits and other backward castes OBC base their anti Brahminism on similar ideologies and why Dalits in Uttar Pradesh north India succeeded in gaining power while they did not do so in the region of erstwhile Andhra Pradesh south India where Dalit consciousness is more evolved Drawing on archival material fieldwork and case studies this volume puts forward an insightful and incisive analysis It will be of great interest to researchers and scholars of Dalit studies and social exclusion Indian politics and sociology Combating Social Exclusion Rajesh K. Chander, 2019-07-01 This book attempts to make a holistic assessment and a humble intervention on the prevalent multiple social exclusion of dalits The study is based in modern India with a focus on Punjab in particular It further substantiates that how caste and other exclusions are a lived reality Challenging entrenched ideas it uses multi disciplinary perspectives methodologies and lived experiences to comprehend dalits social exclusion inter sectionalities and social inequalities It further interrogates linkages between key determinants like landlessness educational attainment asset ownership gender discrimination caste based segregation and discrimination employment economic activity development state intervention policy untouchability political exclusion diaspora effect parallel sites of assertion dalit consciousness heterogeneities amongst dalits with social exclusion inclusion The salient feature of the book that it has covered all the regions of the state and 15 out of the total 39 scheduled castes Drawing on Mixed Methods approach multi regional fieldwork and bottom up perspective this volume puts forward a perceptive analysis It will be of great interest to researchers working in the fields of Social Exclusion Sociology Gender Studies Dalit Studies Caste Studies Social Anthropology Indian Politics Economics Public Administration Public Policy Social Work Human Rights Rural Development Life Long Learning Development Studies Laws and Police Administration      Mapping Bihar Surendra Gopal, 2017-12-22 Written Indian history begins in sixth century bc with the history of Magadh present day states of Jharkhand and Bihar For almost a millennium Magadh dominated Indian history The situation changed when Islamicized Turks entered India The Mughals who followed the Turks ensured Bihar's economic prosperity Patna became the most important centre of Himalayan trade European Companies visited Patna to obtain a variety of goods local as well as Himalayan In the mid eighteenth century Bihar and Bengal fell into the hands of Englishmen A new chapter began At the turn of the nineteenth century Industrial Revolution began in Britain The East India Company stopped trading in textiles Instead they promoted cotton cultivation in order that cotton was available to British textile factories They promoted cultivation of indigo needed by the textile manufacturing factories coming up Land revenue source of the government's prime income was collected even when agricultural output suffered massively The government took deep interest in opium production but paid the cultivators less than the market price British interference in agricultural matters caused wide spread agrarian distress Indian society encountered many socio religious reform movements Raja Rammohun Roy and Swami Dayanand were major proponents of the new order Stress was laid on gender equality women empowerment and the modern system of education Institutions for training doctors engineers and scientists were opened As time progressed by and large Biharis accepted the changes Eventually social reform movements turned into the freedom movement in which Biharis played a leading role This comprehensive volume is indispensable for scholars working on Bihar and modern and medieval South Asia Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka      Sociological Bulletin Indian Sociological Society, 2003      Indian National Bibliography B.
