Christianity and Cultures David Emmanuel Singh,Bernard C. Farr,2008-11-01 This volume on Christianity and Cultures is a way of marking an important milestone in the relatively short story of the Oxford Centre for Mission Studies OCMS The papers here have been exclusively sourced from Transformation a quarterly journal of OCMS and seek to provide a tripartite view of Christianity s engagement with cultures by focusing on the question how is Christian thinking forming or reforming through its interaction with the varied contexts it encounters As Christianity has taken and still takes shape in multiple contexts it naturally results in a variety of expressions and emphases One can gain an appreciation of these by studying different strands of theological missiological thinking socio political engagements and forms of family relationships in interaction with the host cultures
