Proust Romancier:

Marcel Proust's, A la Recherche Du Temps Perdu Jack Louis Jordan,1993 Marcel Proust Maurice Bardèche,1971

Proust and Venice Peter Collier,1989-10-26 This study of Proust's famous novel A la recherche du temps perdu Remembrance of Things Past focuses on Venice one of the hero's central obsessions and shows how a whole network of allusions to art from Titian to Turner from Byzantine mosaic to Fortuny dresses ties in with the hero's quest for self knowledge and self fulfilment A Reader's Guide to Proust's 'In Search of Lost Time' David Ellison,2010-02-18 A detailed analysis of Proust's masterpiece aimed at students coming to the work for the first time The Cambridge Companion to the French Novel Timothy Unwin,1997-10-28 This volume offers a unique and valuable insight into the novel in French over the past two centuries In a series of essays acknowledged experts discuss a variety of topics including nineteenth century realism women and fiction popular fiction experiment and innovation war and the Holocaust the Francophone novel and postmodern fiction They offer a challenging reassessment of major figures while deliberately reading traditional views of literary history against the grain Theoretical discussion is combined with close reading of texts and exploration of context comparison with other genres and other literatures and reference to novels from earlier periods This companionable introduction includes a chronology and guide to further reading From it emerges a strong sense of the vitality and energy of the modern French novel and of the debates surrounding it Marcel Proust and Spanish America Herbert E. Craig,2002 Craig begins by attributing the early introduction of the Recherche to the intimate friendship between Proust and the pianist composer Reynaldo Hahn who was born in Caracas He then shows in chapter 1 how literary critics of the principal newspapers and literary magazines of such countries as Venezuela Argentina and Chile examined this French text which we know today as one of the fundamental works of modernism Shortly thereafter interest in the Recherche spread to Cuba Mexico Uruguay and Colombia Eventually it would be read in all parts of the New World Over the years Spanish Americans have continued to write about the Recherche and have published several noteworthy books on it which are included in the comprehensive bibliography which serves as an appendix BOOK JACKET Proust's Self-reader Phillip Bailey,1997

Proust's Cup of Tea Emily Eells,2017-03-02 Proust's Cup of Tea analyzes Proust's reading of various Victorian authors and shows how they contributed to A la recherche du temps perdu This book proves that British literature and art played a fundamental role in Proust's writing process by citing from the manuscript versions of his novel as well as from his correspondence essays and the lengthy critical apparatus accompanying his translations of Ruskin Eells reflects here on why Proust was attracted to Victorian culture and how he incorporated it into his novel The works of the British novelists he was most interested in Thomas Hardy and George Eliot address questions of gender which Proust develops in his own work He builds Sodome et Gomorrhe I the section of his novel focusing on homosexuality on a series of explicit citations and guarded allusions to Shakespeare Darwin Walter Scott Oscar Wilde and Robert Louis Stevenson Eells explores how Proust followed in the pioneering footsteps of those British writers who had ventured beyond the boundaries of conventional sexuality though he took pains to erase their traces in the definitive version of his work This study also highlights how Proust made his fictitious painter Elstir into a master of ambiguity by modeling his art on Turner the Pre Raphaelites and Whistler Eells shows that Proust drew on Victorian culture in his depiction of sexual ambiguity arguing that he confounded eroticism and aestheticism in the way he inextricably linked the man woman figure with British art and literature As Proust aestheticized male and female homosexuality using references to British art and letters Eells coins the term Anglosexuality to refer to his characters of the third sex She defines Anglosexuality as an intersexuality represented through intertextuality as an artistic sensitivity an aesthetic stance and a new way of seeing Proust's Cup of Tea thus demonstrates that Victorian culture and homoeroticism form one of the cornerstones of Proust's monumental work Marcel Proust Romancier Maurice

Bardeche,1971 Proust, Class, and Nation Edward J. Hughes,2011-09-08 Edward J Hughes here seeks to assess how Proust and his novel A la Recherche du Temps Perdu might be understood in relation to issues of class and nation

Proust's Duchess Caroline Weber,2019-11-26 PULITZER PRIZE FINALIST A brilliant look at turn of the century Paris through the first in depth study of the three women Proust used to create his supreme fictional character the Duchesse de Guermantes Weber has done a remarkable job of bringing to life a world of culture glamour and privilege The Wall Street Journal Genevi ve Hal vy Bizet Straus Laure de Sade Comtesse de Adh aume de Chevign and lisabeth de Riquet de Caraman Chimay the Comtesse Greffulhe these were the three superstars of fin de si cle Parisian high society who as Caroline Weber says transformed themselves and were transformed by those around them into living legends paragons of elegance nobility and style All well but unhappily married these women sought freedom and fulfillment by reinventing themselves between the 1870s and 1890s as icons At their fabled salons they inspired the creativity of several generations of writers visual artists composers designers and journalists Against a rich historical backdrop Weber takes the reader into these women's daily lives of masked balls hunts dinners court visits nights at the opera or theater But we see as well the loneliness rigid social rules and loveless arranged marriages that constricted these women's lives Proust as a twenty year old law student in 1892 would worship them from afar and later meet them and create his celebrated composite character for The Remembrance of Things Past The Orient of Style Beryl Schlossman,1991 In this study of modernist aesthetics Beryl Schlossman reveals how for such writers as Marcel Proust Gustave Flaubert and Charles Baudelaire the Orient came to symbolize the highest aspirations of literary representation She demonstrates that through allegory modernism became a style itself a style that married the ancient and the modern and that emerged as both a cause and an effect both an ideal construct and an textual materiality all symbolized by the Orient land of style place of plurality and site of the coexistence of holy lands Toward the end of Remembrance of Things Past the narrator describes the act of creating a work of art as a conversion of sensation into a spiritual equivalent By means of such allegories of conversion Schlossman shows the modernist artist disappeared within the work of art and left behind the trace of his sublime vocation a vocation in which he was transformed in Schlossman's words into a kind of priest kneeling at the altar of beauty before the masked divinity of representation The author shows how allegory the representation of the symbolic as something real was adapted by modernist writers to reflect subjectivity while masking an authorial origin She reveals how modernist allegory arose as Walter Benjamin suggests at the crossroads of history sociology economics urban architecture and art providing a kind of map of capitalism and was produced through the eyes of a melancholic gazing at a monument of absence

The City as Catalyst Diana Festa-McCormick, 1979 A series of ten chapters on cities as pictured and explored by as many novelists In these ten separate yet connected chapters the city is not merely a setting for the events but a moving force and the catalyst for action

Love, Desire and Transcendence in French Literature Paul Gifford, 2016-12-05 European literature and theory of the twentieth century have been intensely preoccupied with questions of Desire whereas love has increasingly represented a fractured and strange if not actually suspect proposal this is a prime symptom of an age of deep cultural mutation and uncertainty Paul Gifford's book allows this considerable contemporary phenomenon to be observed steadily and whole with strategic understanding of its origins nature and meaning Gifford paints a clear and coherent picture of the evolution of erotic ideas and their imaginary and formal expressions in modern French writing He first retraces the formative matrix of French tradition by engaging with five classic sources Plato's Symposium the Song of Songs the myth of Genesis the tension between Greek Eros and Christian Agape and the repercussions of Nietzsche's declaration of the death of God Modern variations on these perennial problematics are then pursued in ten chapters devoted to Proust Valéry Claudel Breton Bataille Duras Barthes Irigaray Emmanuel Kristeva Literary and theoretical perspectives are perfectly blended in his study of these attempts at deciphering Eros The book will appeal not only to students of French literature but to all those interested in the cultural upheavals of the twentieth century

Passion for Place Book II Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-06-29 Among the multiple subliminal passions that inspire our life in innumerable ways literature shows us one that seems to play a particularly penetrating role in human concerns This passion which Tymieniecka calls an esoteric passion finds its projection and crystallization in space it is the esoteric passion for space This subliminal passion investigated through literature allows the philosopher to reach beneath the fallacious separations of nature humanness and the cultural world restoring the wholeness of experience that has become lost in the artificial one-sidedness of contemporary approaches confined to language as they are The elemental passion for place is investigated here in the literary fruits of creative imagination Unravelling from the very depths of the primogenital onto poietic unfolding of life the passion for place is revealed as projecting into the flux of life it is a station of life significance This collection presents papers from two conferences of the International Society of Phenomenology and Literature held in Cambridge MA in 1993 4

The Variety of Worlds / Die Vielheit der Welten / La Pluralité des Mondes Adolf Portmann, Rudolf Ritsema, 2023-11-13 Proustian

Passions Ingrid Wassenaar, 2000 A la recherche du temps perdu occupies an undisputed place in the unfolding intellectual history of the moi in France There is however a general tendency in writing on this novel to celebrate the wonders of the moi sensible uncritically This effaces all that is morally dubious or frankly experimental about Proust's account of selfhood It denies the rigour with which Proust tries to understand exactly why it is so difficult to explain one's own actions to another The great party scenes for example or the countless digressions read like manuals on how acts of self justification take place Proust however is not merely interested in some kind of taxonomy of excuses hypocrisy disingenuousness and Schadenfreude He wants to know why self justification tends to be interpreted as indicative of moral or psychological weakness He asks himself whether self justification informs isolated moments of everyday existence or whether it endures in an overall conception of self that lasts an individual's lifetime He investigates whether it dictates the functioning of an entire social group Can we decide he asks whether justifying one's self should be written off as morally repugnant or taken seriously as evidence of moral probity

Paratexts Gerard Genette, 1997-03-13 Paratexts are those liminal devices and conventions both within and outside the book that form part of the complex mediation between book author publisher and reader titles forewords epigraphs and publishers jacket copy are part of a book's private and public history In this first English translation of Paratexts Gerard Genette shows how the special pragmatic status of paratextual declaration requires a carefully calibrated analysis of their illocutionary force With clarity precision and an extraordinary range of reference Paratexts constitutes an encyclopedic survey of the customs and institutions as revealed in the borderlands of the text Genette presents a global view of these liminal mediations and the logic of their relation to the reading public by studying each element as a literary function Richard Macksey's foreword describes how the poetics of paratexts interact with more general questions of literature as a cultural institution and situates Genette's work in contemporary literary theory
