

Proximity

Out of the fog comes a little white bus.
It ferries us south to the technical mouth of the bay. This is biopharma, Double Helix Way.

In the gleaming canteen, mugs have been dutifully stacked for our dismantling,
a form of punishment.

Executives take the same elevator as I.
This one's chatty, that one's gravely engrossed in his cloud. Proximity measures shame.

I manage in an office, but an office that faces a hallway, not the bay. One day
I hope to see the bay that way. It all began in the open, a cubicle—there's movement.

My door is always open, even when I shut it.
I sit seven boxes below the CEO on the org chart. It's an art, the value-add, the compound noun. Calendar is a verb.

To your point, the kindest prepositional phrase.

Leafy trees grow a short walk from Building 5.
Take a walk. It might be nice to lie and watch the smoky marrow rise and fall, and rise. Don't shut your eyes.

Proximities Poems:

Proximities Aaron Rosen, 2001 Rosen is a master of opposites brought into close proximity call it storm and calm or the proximity of appearance and illusion certainty and hesitation His is a poetry of discovery and preservation the structures of his art     Proximity and Distance Yosef Tobi, 2004-05-01 The first steps in Hebrew secular poetry took place around the turn of the ninth century under the impact of contemporary Arabic poetry This impact was so great that some researchers incorrectly define the Hebrew poetry as a school which is distinct from the Arabic school only by virtue of its Hebrew language However the right way to the essence of medieval Hebrew poetry is not only by revealing and describing its ties with Arabic poetry but also by determining the specific characteristics by which it stubbornly distinguished itself from its Arabic contemporaries This innovative critical approach is the central feature of this book     Proximity and Distance Joseph Tobi, 2004-01-01 The central feature of this book is an innovative critical approach which understands medieval Hebrew poetry not only by revealing its ties with Arabic poetry but also by determining the specific characteristics by which it stubbornly distinguished itself from Arabic poetry     Putin's Postbox Marcel Beyer, 2022-04-01 Eight essays on literature language art Europe and life from one of Germany's most revered living writers After a visit to Putin's old postbox the reader is taken to Dresden and Brixton Gdańsk and Minsk diverted to birds bees stray cats and pet dogs confronted with Stasi and KGB Proust and Jan Shkabarshy puzzled by overcoats and anoraks Francis Bacon and Vermeer and lost then found in service stations and memorial centres Throughout Marcel Beyer forges unexpected links and makes unpredictable leaps I work from the margins partly very literally as I build my sentences for instance when I start with the name of a colour rather than a noun to explore how the sentence might be steered from there to a subject In my reading I am drawn to the outliers or as malicious claims would have it to the obscure Central books that is those everyone can agree on have never much interested me I am rarely tempted to explore the centre of my world in writing and even if I did want to encroach upon a centre I would have to choose a path from the outside But outside too one advances to the heart of things Inspired by the great W G Sebald Beyer's playful literary investigations wend through the high points and horrors of Europe's artistic history towards a profoundly personal conclusion     Practices of Proximity Katherine E. Russo, 2010-04-16 Practices of Proximity investigates the appropriation of the English language taking place in the Australian literary contact zone between an official white Australia the apparent owners of both the land and the English language and Australian Indigenous peoples Rescuing the debate from seemingly peripheral locations the empty Great Sandy Desert or the abject urban margin it insists on the complex ultimately open ended and multilateral ownership of the English language by all who inhabit the intersubjective space of literature rendering the inherited authority of who owns meaning problematical and ethically suspect Documenting the complex practices of bricolage and relexification of a multi accentuated Australia the book invites readers to consider Australian Indigenous literature as a space from which a re routing of issues of co habitation sovereignty and being and becoming Australian might begin This interdisciplinary study of Australian Indigenous practices of appropriation ranges from texts produced during the first encounters of Indigenous and non Indigenous peoples to the work of established and rising authors such as Oodgeroo Noonuccal Jack Davis Lionel Fogarty Romaine Moreton and Kim Scott Ireland in Proximity David Alderson, Fiona Becket, Scott Brewster, Virginia Crossman, 2002-01-22 Ireland in Proximity surveys and develops the expanding field of Irish Studies reviewing existing debates within the discipline and providing new avenues for exploration Drawing on a variety of disciplinary and theoretical approaches this impressive collection of essays makes an innovative contribution to three areas of current and often contentious debate within Irish Studies This accessible volume illustrates the diversity of thinking on Irish history culture and identity By invoking theoretical perspectives including psychoanalysis cultural theories of space postcoloniality and theories of gender and sexual difference the collection offers fresh perspectives on established subjects and brings new and under represented areas of critical concern to the fore Chapter subjects include sexuality and gender identities the historiographical issues surrounding the Famine the Irish diaspora theories of space in relation to Ulster and beyond Contributors include David Alderson Aidan Arrowsmith Caitriona Beaumont Fiona Becket Scott Brewster Dan Baron Cohen Mary Corcoran Virginia Crossman Richard Kirkland David Lloyd Patrick McNally Elisabeth Mahoney Willy Maley Shaun Richards ibhear Walshe Choosing Not Choosing Sharon Cameron, 1992 Although Emily Dickinson copied and bound her poems into manuscript notebooks in the century since her death her poems have been read as single lyrics with little or no regard for the context she created for them in her fascicles Choosing Not Choosing is the first book length consideration of the poems in their manuscript context Sharon Cameron demonstrates that to read the poems with attention to their placement in the fascicles is to observe scenes and subjects unfolding between and among poems rather than to think of them as isolated riddles enigmatic in both syntax and reference Thus Choosing Not Choosing illustrates that the contextual sense of Dickinson is not the canonical sense of Dickinson Considering the poems in the context of the fascicles Cameron argues that an essential refusal of choice pervades all aspects of Dickinson s poetry Because Dickinson never chose whether she wanted her poems read as single lyrics or in sequence nor is it clear where any fascicle text ends or even how in context a poem is bounded not choosing is a textual issue it is also a formal issue because Dickinson refused to choose among poetic variants it is a thematic issue and finally it is a philosophical one since what is produced by not choosing is a radical indifference to difference Extending the readings of Dickinson offered in her earlier book Lyric Time Cameron continues to enlarge our understanding of the work of this singular American poet I Remember Death By Its Proximity to What I Love Mahogany L. Browne, 2021-09-14 Mahogany L Browne s evocative book length poem explores the impacts of the prison system on both the incarcerated and the loved ones left behind I Remember Death by Its Proximity to What I Love is an expansive poetic meditation on who we think is bound by incarceration The answer all of us Weaving personal narrative case studies and inventive form Browne invokes the grief pain and resilience in the violent wake of the prison system This poem is dirge work but allows us to revel in the intricacies of our human condition Written by a beloved and prolific writer organizer and educator this work serves as a practice of self reflection and accountability Browne steps into the lineage of Sonia Sanchez s Does Your House Have Lions with the precision of a master wordsmith and the empathy of an attentive storyteller

Heidegger and Homecoming Robert Mugerauer,2008-10-21 Martin Heidegger s philosophical works devoted themselves to challenging previously held ontological notions of what constitutes being and much of his work focused on how beings interact within particular spatial locations Frequently Heidegger used the motifs of homelessness and homecoming in order to express such spatial interactions and despite early and continued recognition of the importance of homelessness and homecoming this is the first sustained study of these motifs in his later works Utilizing both literary and philosophical analysis Heidegger and Homecoming reveals the deep figural unity of the German philosopher s writings by exploring not only these homecoming and homelessness motifs but also the six distinctive voices that structure the apparent disorder of his works In this illuminating and comprehensive study Robert Mugerauer argues that these motifs and Heidegger s many voices are required to overcome and replace conventional and linear methods of logic and representation Making use of material that has been both neglected and yet to be translated into English Heidegger and Homecoming explains the elaborate means with which Heidegger proposed that humans are able to open themselves to others while at the same time preserve their self identity

Shbahoth - Songs of Praise in the Babylonian Jewish Tradition Sara Manasseh,2016-12-05 Sara Manasseh brings a significant but less widely known Jewish repertoire and tradition to the attention of both the Jewish community Ashkenazi Sephardi Oriental and the wider global community The book showcases thirty one songs and includes English translations complete Hebrew texts transliterations and the music notation for each song The accompanying downloadable resources include eighteen of the thirty one songs sung by Manasseh accompanied by ud and percussion The remaining thirteen songs are available separately on the album Treasures performed by Rivers of Babylon directed by Manasseh www.riversofbabylon.com While in the past a book of songs with Hebrew text only was sufficient for bearers of the tradition the present package represents a song collection for the twenty first century with greater resources to support the learning and maintenance of the tradition Manasseh argues that the strong inter relationship of Jewish and Arab traditions in this repertoire linguistically and musically is significant and provides an intercultural tool to promote communication tolerance understanding harmony and respect The singing of the Shbahoth the Baghdadian Jewish term for Songs of Praise has been a significant aspect of Jewish life in Iraq and continues to be valued by those in the Babylonian Jewish diaspora

Studies Literature language English abstract The Renaissance was a cultural movement that began in the 14th century in Italy and gradually affected other western European countries up to the 17th century The beginning of the Renaissance in England was approximately around 1500 and ended in 1642 when the English Civil War started Several genres made the most of all written literature of that time to all of the head sonnets and sonnet cycles Pamphilia to Amphilanthus a sonnet cycle of 103 poems and a few songs was written by Lady Mary Wroth and one of the first poems written by an English woman in history Wroth s sonnets deal partly with desire but she hides it behind metaphors or innuendos In contrast to her prudish style of writing John Donne s poems are much more provocative He is not afraid of talking about desire and physical proximity He wrote several poems but not linked to each other like in a sonnet sequence This essay will focus on the poems 15 31 33 46 and 47 of Pamphilia to Amphilanthus by Wroth and on The Flea and The Ecstasy by Donne Donne s poems were only published after his death in 1631 hence the exact composing date is unknown Poems Heinrich Heine,1887 The Complete Poems of John Donne,... John Donne,1872 The Sanskrit poems of Mayūra Mayūra,1917 Poet Lore ,1891 Poems Selected from Heinrich Heine Heinrich Heine,1887 The Sanskrit poems of Mayūra Columbia University,Mayūra,1917
