Prudence Crandall Edmund Fuller, 1971      Notable Black American Women Jessie Carney Smith, Shirelle Phelps, 1992
Arranged alphabetically from Alice of Dunk's Ferry to Jean Childs Young this volume profiles 312 Black American women who have achieved national or international prominence      Prudence Crandall's Legacy Donald E. Williams, 2014-06-03 The compelling and lively story of a pioneering abolitionist schoolteacher and her far reaching influence on civil rights and American law Richard S Newman author of Freedom's Prophet When Prudence Crandall a Canterbury Connecticut schoolteacher accepted a black woman as a student she unleashed a storm of controversy that catapulted her to national notoriety and drew the attention of the most significant pro and anti slavery activists of the early nineteenth century The Connecticut state legislature passed its infamous Black Law in an attempt to close down her school Crandall was arrested and jailed but her legal legacy had a lasting impact Crandall v State was the first full throated civil rights case in U S history The arguments by attorneys in Crandall played a role in two of the most fateful Supreme Court decisions Dred Scott v Sandford and the landmark case of Brown v Board of Education In this book author and lawyer Donald E Williams Jr marshals a wealth of detail concerning the life and work of Prudence Crandall her unique role in the fight for civil rights and her influence on legal arguments for equality in America that in the words of Brown v Board attorney Jack Greenberg serves to remind us once more about how close in time America is to the darkest days of our history The book offers substantive and well rounded portraits of abolitionists colonizationists and opponents of black equality portraits that really dig beneath the surface to explain the individuals motivations weaknesses politics and life paths The New England Quarterly Taking readers from Connecticut schoolrooms to the highest court in the land Williams gives us heroes and villains triumph and tragedy equity and injustice on the rough road to full freedom Richard S Newman author of Freedom's Prophet      Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature      Self-Taught Heather Andrea Williams, 2009-11-20 In this previously untold story of African American self education Heather Andrea Williams moves across time to examine African Americans relationship to literacy during slavery during the Civil War and in the first decades of freedom Self Taught traces the historical antecedents to freedpeople's intense desire to become literate and demonstrates how the visions of enslaved African Americans emerged into plans and action once slavery ended Enslaved people Williams contends placed great value in the practical power of literacy whether it was to enable them to read the Bible for themselves or to keep informed of the abolition movement and later the progress of the Civil War Some slaves devised creative and subversive means to acquire literacy and when slavery ended they became the first teachers of other freedpeople Soon overwhelmed by the demands for education they called on northern missionaries to come to their aid

Williams argues that by teaching building schools supporting teachers resisting violence and claiming education as a civil right African Americans transformed the face of education in the South to the great benefit of both black and white southerners

The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America

The Dark Past William M. Wiecek, 2024 The Dark Past offers a historical overview and interpretive guide to all the major cases decided by US Supreme Court that have affected the freedom and rights of Black Americans since 1800 It lends coherence to what could otherwise be a disjointed chronicle of cases and connects the events of the past to the current era of racial inequality

An African American Dilemma Zoë Burkholder, 2021 Presenting a revealing historical perspective on today's charged schooling choices An African American Dilemma illuminates the tensions between school integration and separation that have shaped the long history of black struggles for equal education and civil rights in the North

Connecticut Vanguards: Historic Trailblazers & Their Legacies Eric D. Lehman, 2018-03-26 Author Eric D Lehman chronicles the lives of two dozen men and women who left their marks on Connecticut and the world as a whole Noah Webster Charles Goodyear P T Barnum and Katharine Hepburn all have Connecticut in common Like so many other residents they had an inventive spirit and drive that changed the course of history for the rest of the state Some of the state's natives like Eli Whitney and Henry C Lee pioneered new methods Prudence Crandall and Helen Keller championed the rights of the underprivileged Some like Frederick Law Olmsted and Sol LeWitt changed our perception of the world

Reader's Guide to American History Peter J. Parish, 2013-06-17 There are so many books on so many aspects of the history of the United States offering such a wide variety of interpretations that students teachers scholars and librarians often need help and advice on how to find what they want The Reader's Guide to American History is designed to meet that need by adopting a new and constructive approach to the appreciation of this rich historiography Each of the 600 entries on topics in political social and economic history describes and evaluates some 6 to 12 books on the topic providing guidance to the reader on everything from broad surveys and interpretive works to specialized monographs The entries are devoted to events and individuals as well as broader themes and are written by a team of well over 200 contributors all scholars of American history

George Washington's Hair Keith Beutler, 2021-11-10 Mostly hidden from public view like an embarrassing family secret scores of putative locks of George Washington's hair are held more than two centuries after his death in the collections of America's historical societies public and academic archives and museums Excavating the origins of these bodily artifacts Keith Beutler uncovers a forgotten strand of early American memory practices and emerging patriotic identity Between 1790 and 1840 popular memory took a turn toward the physical as exemplified by the craze for collecting locks of Washington's hair These new sensory views of memory enabled African American Revolutionary War veterans women evangelicals and other

politically marginalized groups to enter the public square as both conveyors of these material relics of the Revolution and living relics themselves George Washington's Hair introduces us to a taxidermist who sought to stuff Benjamin Franklin's body an African American storyteller brandishing a lock of Washington's hair an evangelical preacher burned in effigy and a schoolmistress who politicized patriotic memory by privileging women as its primary bearers As Beutler recounts in vivid prose these and other ordinary Americans successfully enlisted memory practices rooted in the physical to demand a place in the body politic powerfully contributing to antebellum political democratization Hartford's Ann Plato and the Native Borders of Identity Ron Welburn, 2015-04-21 Upholds Ann Plato as a noteworthy nineteenth century writer while reexamining her life and writing from an American Indian perspective Who was Ann Plato Apart from circumstantial evidence there's little information about the author of Essays Including Biographies and Miscellaneous Pieces in Prose and Poetry published in 1841 Plato lived in a milieu of colored Hartford Connecticut in the early nineteenth century Although long believed to have been African American herself she may also Ron Welburn argues have been American Indian like the father in her poem The Natives of America Combining literary criticism ethnohistory and social history Welburn uses Plato as an example of how Indians in the Long Island Sound region adapted and prevailed despite the contemporary rhetoric of Indian disappearance This study seeks to raise Plato's profile as an author as well as to highlight the dynamics of Indian resistance and isolation that have contributed to her enigmatic status as a literary figure Hartford's Ann Plato and the Native Borders of Identity is a brilliant and fascinatingly imaginative work of research and speculation The research is forbiddingly wide deep learned determined and resourceful The book is fascinating as a work of speculative scholarship not only about Ann Plato but also about eighteenth and nineteenth century New England and Long Island American Indians who continued to live more or less in the region of their ancestors and often continued to uphold Indian culture while at the same time disappearing from the written record Welburn's work will speak to audiences interested in American Indian studies New England history nineteenth century African American history and literary studies and the history of American poetry Robert Dale Parker editor of Changing Is Not Vanishing: A Collection of American Indian Poetry to 1930 Connecticut Encyclopedia Jennifer Herman, 2008-01-01 The Connecticut Encyclopedia contains detailed information on States Symbols and Designations Geography Archaeology State History Local History on individual cities towns and counties Chronology of Historic Events in the State Profiles of Governors Political Directory State Constitution Bibliography of books about the state and an Index

Rodriguez, 2015-03-26 The struggle to abolish slavery is one of the grandest quests and central themes of modern history These movements for freedom have taken many forms from individual escapes violent rebellions and official proclamations to mass organizations decisive social actions and major wars Every emancipation movement whether in Europe Africa or the Americas has profoundly transformed the country and society in which it existed This unique A-Z encyclopedia examines every effort to end slavery in the United States and the transatlantic world It focuses on massive broad based movements as well as specific incidents events and developments and pulls together in one place information previously available only in a wide variety of sources While it centers on the United States the set also includes authoritative accounts of emancipation and abolition in Europe Africa the Caribbean and Latin America The Encyclopedia of Emancipation and Abolition provides definitive coverage of one of the most significant experiences in human history It features primary source documents maps illustrations cross references a comprehensive chronology and bibliography and specialized indexes in each volume and covers a wide range of individuals and the major themes and ideas that motivated them to confront and abolish slavery      Connecticut

Vanguards Eric D. Lehman, 2018-03-26 Author Eric D Lehman chronicles the lives of two dozen men and women who left their marks on Connecticut and the world as a whole Noah Webster Charles Goodyear P T Barnum and Katharine Hepburn all have Connecticut in common Like so many other residents they had an inventive spirit and drive that changed the course of history for the rest of the state Some of the state's natives like Eli Whitney and Henry C Lee pioneered new methods Prudence Crandall and Helen Keller championed the rights of the underprivileged Some like Frederick Law Olmsted and Sol LeWitt changed our perception of the world      Elder Care in Crisis Emily K. Abel, 2022-10-25 Explains why there is a crisis in caring for elderly people and how the COVID 19 pandemic exacerbated it Because government policies are based on an ethic of family responsibility repeated calls to support family members caring for the burgeoning elderly population have gone unanswered Without publicly funded long term care services many family caregivers cannot find relief from obligations that threaten to overwhelm them The crisis also stems from the plight of direct care workers nursing home assistants and home health aides most of whom are women from racially marginalized groups who receive little respect remuneration or job security Drawing on an online support group for people caring for spouses and partners with dementia Elder Care in Crisis examines the availability and quality of respite care which provides temporary relief from the burdens of care the long tortuous process through which family members decide whether to move spouses and partners to institutions and the likelihood that caregivers will engage in political action to demand greater public support When the pandemic began caregivers watched in horror as nursing homes turned into deathtraps and then locked their doors to visitors Terrified by the possibility of loved ones in nursing homes contracting the disease or suffering from loneliness some caregivers brought them home Others endured the pain of leaving relatives with severe cognitive impairments at the hospital door and the difficulties of sheltering in place with people with dementia who could not understand safety regulations or describe their symptoms Direct care workers were compelled to accept unsafe conditions or leave the labor force At the same time however the disaster provided an impetus for change and helped activists and scholars develop a vision of a future in which care is central to social life Elder Care in Crisis exposes the harrowing state of growing old in America offering concrete solutions and illustrating why they are necessary      Self Taught Norm Polonski, 1967 A plan for use in the San Diego schools is outlined for a voluntary teacher centered inservice training program to take place within the school day This plan would use the many available teacher education films for inservice education avoiding the additional inconvenience entailed in the planning and staffing of workshops or inservice programs requiring course attendance These films would form the basis for all inservice education Each month the teachers in each department would select an appropriate film for their students to view in the auditorium while they the teachers would be viewing a recent teacher education film chosen from a list of 66 compiled by the secondary instructional committee The plan would be entirely voluntary requiring no tests term papers or extra curricular activities but also offering no artificial incentives such as salary credits The pilot project is targeted to begin in January 1968 with one person in each secondary school in the area having been contacted to aid in explaining and promoting the program This article appeared in sdta bulletin volume 48 no 3 December 1967 P 9 aw
