absurdities Psmith in the City Sir Pelham Grenville Wodehouse, 2020-09-28 Considering what a prominent figure Mr John Bickersdyke was to be in Mike Jackson's life it was only appropriate that he should make a dramatic entry into it. This he did by walking behind the bowler's arm when Mike had scored ninety-eight, causing him thereby to be clean bowled by a long hop. It was the last day of the Ilsworth cricket week and the house team were struggling hard on a damaged wicket. During the first two matches of the week all had been well. Warm sunshine, true wickets, tea in the shade of the trees. But on the Thursday night as the team champed their dinner contentedly after defeating the Incogniti by two wickets, a pattering of rain made itself heard upon the windows. By bedtime it had settled to a steady downpour. On Friday morning when the team of the local regiment arrived in their brake the sun was shining once more in a watery melancholy way but play was not possible before lunch. After lunch the bowlers were in their element. The regiment winning the toss put together a hundred and thirty-two, principally to a last wicket stand between two enormous corporals who swiped at everything and had luck enough for two whole teams. The house team followed with seventy-eight, of which Psmith, by his usual golf methods, claimed thirty. Mike, who had gone in first as the star bat of the side, had been run out with great promptitude off the first ball of the innings, which his partner had hit in the immediate neighbourhood of point. At close of play the regiment had made five without loss. This on the Saturday morning helped by another shower of rain which made the wicket easier for the moment, they had increased to a hundred and forty-eight, leaving the house just two hundred to make on a pitch which looked as if it were made of linseed. It was during this week that Mike had first made the acquaintance of Psmith's family. Mr Smith had moved from Shropshire and taken Ilsworth Hall in a neighbouring county. This he had done as far as could be ascertained simply because he had a poor opinion of Shropshire cricket. And just at the moment cricket happened to be the pivot of his life. Psmith in the City
