Murdering Masculinities Greg Forter, 2000-11 Though American crime novels are often derided for containing misogynistic attitudes and limiting ideas of masculinity Greg Forter maintains that they are instead psychologically complex and sophisticated works that demand closer attention Eschewing the synthetic methodologies of earlier work on crime fiction Murdering Masculinities argues that the crime novel does not provide a consolidated and stable notion of masculinity Rather it demands that male readers take responsibility for the desires they project on to these novels Forter examines the narrative strategies of five novels Hammett's The Glass Key Cain's Serenade Faulkner's Sanctuary Thompson's Pop 1280 and Himes's Blind Man with a Pistol in conjunction with their treatment of bodily metaphors of smell vision and voice In the process Forter unearths a generic unconscious that reveals things Freud both discovered and sought to repress

Transforming Citizenships Isaac West, 2014 Transforming Citizenships engages the performativity of citizenship as it relates to transgender individuals and advocacy groups Instead of reading the law as a set of self executing discourses Isaac West takes up transgender rights claims as performative productions of complex legal subjectivities capable of queering accepted understandings of genders sexualities and the normative forces of the law Drawing on an expansive archive from the correspondence of a transwoman arrested for using a public bathroom in Los Angeles in 1954 to contemporary lobbying efforts of national transgender advocacy organizations West advances a rethinking of law as capacious rhetorics of citizenship justice equality and freedom When approached from this perspective citizenship can be recuperated from its status as the bad object of queer politics to better understand how legal discourses open up sites for identification across identity categories and enable political activities that escape the analytics of heteronormativity and homonationalism

Award for Best First Book Project in LGBT Studies A transnational study of Asian performance shaped by the homoerotics of orientalism Brown Boys and Rice Queens focuses on the relationship between the white man and the native boy Eng Beng Lim unpacks this as the central trope for understanding colonial and cultural encounters in 20th and 21st century Asia and its diaspora Using the native boy as a critical guide Lim formulates alternative readings of a traditional Balinese ritual postcolonial Anglophone theatre in Singapore and performance art in Asian America Tracing the transnational formation of the native boy as racial fetish object across the last century Lim follows this figure as he is passed from the hands of the colonial empire to the postcolonial nation state to neoliberal globalization Read through such figurations the traffic in native boys among white men serves as an allegory of an infantilized and emasculated Asia subordinate before colonial whiteness and modernity Pushing further Lim addresses the critical paradox of this entrenched relationship that resides even within queer theory itself by formulating critical interventions around Asian performance Extravagant Camp Chris A. Eng, 2025-02-04 Winner of the 2023 2024 CLAGS Fellowship Award Illuminates an irreverent queer cultural strategy for grappling with and remaking abject histories of violence Extravagant Camp takes as its point of critical departure the multiple valences of the word camp the camp as a geopolitical space and process of concentrating racialized populations and the campy as a mode of queer expressiveness Engaging its double meaning Chris A Eng explores how camp and encampment have contoured the figure of the Asian American The book follows campy performances that imaginatively restage the camps that have been central to dominant narratives of Asian American history Chinese railroad labor Japanese American incarceration Vietnam War refugee resettlement and counterinsurgency camps across US imperial entanglements in the Philippines Illuminating an eclectic ensemble of performances that grapple with Asian American history from classical works in the Asian American literary tradition to emerging works of theater and film Extravagant Camp uncovers Asian American camp as a prevalent yet underappreciated cultural strategy for contesting accounts of Asian American racialization that overly rely on terms of abjection Theorizing Asian American camp as both a performance strategy and reading practice Eng examines how artists drag up the maligned racial roles of the coolie the internee the refugee and the diva to make different sense of these histories Extravagant Camp shows how Asian American camp takes on queerness as a resource to enliven modes of joy beauty and pleasure within structures of constraint revealing the types of power camp retrieves for racialized communities in the face of abjection Geared toward the extravagant Asian American camp demands a recognition of queer abjection not as the basis for our undoing but rather the grounds for a more radical social remaking
