Hausa Cinema of Northern Nigeria Abdalla Uba Adamu, 2025-06-26 This historical account of cinema in Nigeria explores the transcultural transfer of media from India to Africa through films. Hausa Cinema of Northern Nigeria examines how the Hindi Cinema of India became the template for storytelling in the Hausa regional cinema of Northern Nigeria and explores the emergence of Indigenous language within cinema in this region. Such emergence created points of divergence with the Islamic public culture leading to censorship both within the entertainment industry and the newly re-introduced Shari'a government of Kano. Throughout this book Abdalla Uba Adamu explores the tension between Islamic society and the intrusion of transglobal media influences in cinema in Kano. He provides a deeper understanding of global media transnationalism and its impact on Muslim African popular culture. This book also discusses how the Muslim Hausa youth used the agencies of transglobal media technologies to transform the Hausa narrative style from a linear and didactic format to a complex configuration. By examining the Hausa film industry's history, Adamu challenges the notion of cultural and media imperialism and the dominance of media consumption in contemporary African societies.

Focus: Music and Religion of Morocco Christopher Witulski, 2019-05-13 Focus: Music and Religion of Morocco introduces the region and its history, highlighting how the pressures of religious life, post-colonial economic struggle and global media come together within Moroccan musical life. Musical practices contextualize and clarify global historical and contemporary movements, many of which remain poorly understood while articulating the daily realities of the region's populations in ways that rarely show through current news accounts of religious extremism, poverty and inequality and forced migration. As with other volumes in the series, Focus: Music and Religion of Morocco addresses large conceptual issues through interwoven case studies in three parts. Part I: Memories and Medias Who We Are highlights how issues of religion, colonialism, nationalism and globalization transcend boundaries through music to create a sense of personal and national identity, whether hundreds of years ago or on today's satellite television stations. Part II: Contesting Mainstreams Where We're Going explores Morocco's sacred and secular music practices as they relate to the country's diversity and its contemporary politics. Part III: Focusing In Faith and Fun in Fez highlights Fez s sacred music industry by introducing musicians who navigate musical and religious expectations to appeal to both their own devotional ethics and their audiences wants Links to music examples referenced in the text can be accessed on the eResource site www.routledge.com 9781138094581 Silabus & rencana pelaksanaan pembelajaran (RPP) madrasah tsanawiyah ,2006 Curriculum planning of junior Islamic religious schools in Indonesia
