Power of Touch Elizabeth Pye, 2016-09-16 Despite the fact that we have a range of senses with which to perceive the world around us museums and other cultural institutions have traditionally used sight as the main way to convey information In everyday life though we use touch constantly in conjunction with sight Why then does it play so small a role in the study and enjoyment of museum objects Contributors to this volume explore how the sense of touch can be utilized in cultural institutions to facilitate understanding and learning Keyguide to Information Sources in Museum Studies Peter

Woodhead, Geoffrey Stansfield, 1994 This revised and updated edition provides an integrated guide to the documentation reference aids and key organizational sources of information about museums and museum studies worldwide Part One provides an overview of museums and the literature about them Part Two is an annotated bibliography and Part Three is an international directory of organizations A detailed index completes the work Museum, Media, Message Eilean

Hooper-Greenhill, 2013-03-07 Collecting together a group of talented writers Museum Media Message considers in depth the most up to date approaches to museum communication including museums as media museums and audience and the evaluation of museums Addressing the need for museums to develop better knowledge of visitor experience this volume introduces a broad range of issues and presents the ultimate how why and who of museum communication Museum Media Message combines philosophical discussion practical examples and case studies and examines museum communication in three sections analyzing how museums and galleries construct and transmit complex systems of value through processes of collection and exhibition raising philosophical and management issues and exploration of work with specific audiences introducing methods for studying the audiences experiences of communication events in museums Perfect for people who want to develop a more critical and informed professional museum practice and for students looking to enhance their skills of analysis and reflection this book is of value to anyone interested in the current debates and issues of this new and growing field

Museum Security and Protection Robert Burke, David Liston, 2005-09-26 Acknowledged as the international standard text for basic security procedures in museums

Telling Children About the Past Nena Galanidou, Liv Helga Dommasnes, 2007-12-01 This book brings together archeologists historians psychologists and educators from different countries and academic traditions to address the many ways that we tell children about the distant past Knowing the past is fundamentally important for human societies as well as for individual development The authors expose many unquestioned assumptions and preformed images in narratives of the past that are routinely presented to children The contributors both examine the ways in which children come to grips with the past and critically assess the many ways in which contemporary societies and an increasing number of commercial agents construct and use the past

The Manual of Museum Planning Gail Dexter Lord, Barry Lord, 1999 An essential resource for all museum professionals as well as trustees architects designers and government agencies involved with the dynamic world of museums and galleries

Managing Museums and Galleries Michael Fopp, 2012-10-12 The current economic climate coupled with an all embracing desire for museums to be respondent to the market make a proper grounding in management essential The bottom line is one of the most powerful measures of management performance Museums and galleries invariably have a neutral bottom line they are not set up to make a profit and many of them are constrained by governmental accounting rules and charity legislation Managing these organisations is difficult and this book tackles the issues that make it easier Managing the Museum examines the highly sophisticated principles and techniques of modern business management from the perspective of museums and galleries and delineates their practical application This volume surveys the day to day issues of time management delegation and recruitment to the problems of strategic planning and initiating and controlling conflict and change This study incorporates the needs of both the independent and national sectors and discusses the links between the museum and commerce

The Museum of the Future Karl Borromäus Murr, 2024-09-09 Peter Sloterdijk sees our digitalized world in a growing spatial crisis accompanied by the danger of a general virtuality of all relationships Others view the digitalization of the world as opening up a grassroots democratic space that allows everyone access to culture Against this backdrop this anthology examines the spatial characteristics of the museum between physical place and virtual space The chapters collected here approach the museum space from various disciplinary perspectives such as philosophy history art history architecture scenography museum education and curatorial studies At the same time the contributions by international museum experts are assigned to different literary genres fundamental considerations alternate with think pieces case studies and interviews

Manual of Curatorship John M. A. Thompson, 2015-07-17 Based on original contributions by specialists this manual covers both the theory and the practice required in the management of museums It is intended for all museum and art gallery profession staff and includes sections on new technology marketing volunteers and museum libraries

Museum Ethics Gary Edson, 2005-09-27 A number of developments in the museum movement during the last few years have forced museums to give greater attention to ethical issues Members of a profession are increasingly regarded constituting an ethical community Every person with such a community must have a sense of personal obligation as well as a responsibility for others to assure ethical achievement This volume firmly places notions of ethics in the field of action Museum Ethics considers the theoretical and practical elements of the philosophy of conduct in relation to critical contemporary issues and museums This discussion encompasses the procurement of artifacts the rights of indigenous peoples repatriation the politics of display the conservation of objects and the role of education as well as the day to day management of a museum All persons active in museum matters whether custodian curator or trustee have an ethical obligation to the museum profession and the public This volume will allow the professional and student to work towards a more responsible and responsive museum community

Museums and the Shaping of Knowledge Eileen Hooper Greenhill, 1992-01-23 Museums have been active in shaping knowledge over the last six hundred years Yet what is their function within today's society At the present time when funding is becoming increasingly scarce difficult questions are being asked about the justification of museums Museums and the Shaping of Knowledge presents a critical survey of major changes in current assumptions about the nature of museums Through the examination of case studies Eileen Hooper Greenhill reveals a variety of different roles for museums in the production and shaping of knowledge Today museums are once again organising their spaces and collections to present themselves as environments for experimental and self directed learning

Marketing the Museum Fiona Mclean, 2012-12-06 Marketing the Museum is the ideal guide to the ways in which museums can overcome the numerous hurdles on the route to truly achieving a marketing orientation The history of the museum is one of shifting purposes and changing ideals and this volume asks if it is possible to define the product which the modern museum can offer This book explores the crucial question Are the theories of marketing developed for manufactured goods in any way relevant to the experience of visiting a museum In covering one of the most highly disputed issues in the field this book is essential reading for museum professionals students and anyone who has dealing in the many branches of the heritage industry around the world

Consuming History Jerome de Groot, 2016-02-08 Consuming History examines how history works in contemporary popular culture Analysing a wide range of cultural entities from computer games to daytime television it investigates the ways in which society consumes history and how a reading of this consumption can help us understand popular culture and issues of representation In this second edition Jerome de Groot probes how museums have responded to the heritage debate and how new technologies from online game playing to internet genealogy have brought about a shift in access to history discussing the often conflicted relationship between public and academic history and raising important questions about the theory and practice of history as a discipline Fully revised throughout with up to date examples from sources such as Wolf Hall Game of Thrones and 12 Years a Slave this edition also includes new sections on the historical novel gaming social media and genealogy It considers new ground breaking texts and media such as YouTube in addition to entities and practices such as re enactment that have been underrepresented in historical discussion thus far Engaging with a broad spectrum of source material and comparing the experiences of the UK the USA France and Germany as well as exploring more global trends Consuming History offers an essential path through the debates for readers interested in history cultural studies and the media Museums: A Place to Work Jane R.
