Natural Resources Economic Development And The State The Philippine Experience:

Natural Resources, Economic Development, and the State Germelino M. Bautista, 1994 This monograph takes off from a definition of environmental problems not only in terms of the degradation of specific resources but also of their habitats Guided by a framework developed to offset some of the limitations inherent in the neo classical economic definition of the nature causes and solutions of Philippine environmental problems it discusses the factors which facilitated the degradation of ecological zones in the Philippines The monograph ends with recommendations on policy directions in the immediate and medium term period The Social Dynamics of Deforestation in the Philippines Gerhard van den Top, 2003

This work offers a detailed case study on the dynamics of forest use degradation and loss in Northeast Luzon Philippines Following an interdisciplinary approach the study charts the degradation and loss of forest in this area between 1950 and 1990 as it relates to the social and political context of logging forest migration and changes in upland agriculture Based on ten years of research the author introduces us to the actions livelihood options and motives of all the principal group of actors
