Dangerous Love Chad Ford,2020-06-23 Chad Ford reminds us that humanity lies within all of us and although conflict is everywhere in today s world we have the tools we need to overcome obstacles and to thrive This is a fantastic timely book that I highly recommend Steve Kerr Head Coach Golden State Warriors Knowing how to transform conflict is critical in both our personal and professional lives Yet by and large we are terrible at it The reason says longtime mediator Chad Ford is fear When conflict comes our instincts are to run or fight To transform conflict Ford says we need to turn toward the people we are in conflict with put down our physical and emotional weapons and really love them with the kind of love that leads us to treat others as fellow human beings not as objects in our way We have to open ourselves up with no guarantee that anyone on the other side will do the same While this can feel even more dangerous than conflict itself it allows us to see the humanity of others so clearly that their needs and desires matter to us as much as our own Ford shows dangerous love in action through examples ranging from his work in the Middle East to a deeply moving story about reconciling with his father He explains why we disconnect from people at the very time we need to be most connected and the predictable patterns of justification and escalation that ensue Most importantly he gives us a path to practice dangerous love in the conflicts that matter most to us

Living Scripture Mitch Finley,1990-10-01 Living Scripture captures the essence of each week s Scripture readings in an easy to read easy to use format

A Companion to Public History David M. Dean,2018-07-30 An authoritative overview of the developing field of public history reflecting theory and practice around the globe This unique reference guides readers through this relatively new field of historical inquiry exploring the varieties and forms of public history its relationship with popular history and the ways in which the field has evolved internationally over the past thirty years Comprised of thirty four essays written by a group of leading international scholars and public history practitioners the work not only introduces readers to the latest scholarly academic research but also to the practice and pedagogy of public history It pays equal attention to the emergence of public history as a distinct field of historical inquiry in North America the importance of popular history and history from below in Europe and European colonial settler states and forms of historical consciousness in non Western countries and peoples It also provides a timely guide to the state of the discipline and offers an innovative and unprecedented engagement with methodological and theoretical problems associated with public history. Generously illustrated throughout, The Companion to Public History's chapters are written from a variety of perspectives by contributors from all continents and from a wide variety of backgrounds, disciplines, and experiences. It is an excellent source for getting readers to think about history in the public realm and how present-day concerns shape the ways in which we engage with and represent the past. Cutting-edge companion volume for a developing area of study. Comprises 36 essays by leading authorities on all aspects of public history around the world. Reflects different national/regional interpretations of public history. Offers some essays in teachable forms: an interview, a roundtable discussion, a document analysis, a photo essay. Covers a full range of public history practice, including museums, archives, memorial sites, as well as historical fiction, theatre, re-enactment societies, and digital gaming. Discusses the continuing challenges presented by history within our broad collective memory, including museum controversies, repatriation issues, textbook wars, and commissions for Truth and Reconciliation. The Companion is intended for senior undergraduate students and graduate students in the rapidly growing field of public history and will appeal to those teaching public history or who wish to introduce a public history dimension to their courses.
