II world Travels and Translations Alison Yarrington, Stefano Villani, Julia Kelly, 2013-11-01 This volume explores the fascinating interactions and exchanges between British and Italian cultures from the early modern period to the present. It looks at how these exchanges were mediated through personal encounters, travel writings and translations involving a variety of protagonists: explorers, writers, poets, preachers, diplomats and tourists. In particular, this book examines the understanding of Italy as a destination and set of locations, each with their own distinctive geographical character during a period which saw the creation of the modern Italian state. It also charts the shifts in travelling activity during this period from early explorers and cartographers via those taking part in the Grand Tour in the 18th and 19th centuries to more modern poet travellers and blogging tourists. Drawing upon literary studies, history, art history, cultural studies, translation studies, sociology and socio-linguistics, this volume takes a cross-disciplinary approach to its rich constellation of cultural transactions.

Shakespeare and the Modern Poet Neil Corcoran, 2010-04-01 Shakespeare is a major influence on poets writing in English, but the dynamics of that influence in the twentieth century have never been as closely analysed as they are in this important study. More than an account of the ways in which Shakespeare is figured in both the poetry and the critical prose of modern poets, this book presents a provocative new view of poetic interrelationship. Focusing on W. B. Yeats, T. S. Eliot, W. H. Auden, Ted Hughes and Sylvia Plath, Neil Corcoran uncovers the relationships, combative as well as sympathetic, between these poets themselves as they are intertwined in their engagements with Shakespeare. Corcoran offers many enlightening close readings, fully alert to contemporary theoretical debates. This original study of influence and reception beautifully displays the nature of poetic influence both of Shakespeare on the twentieth century and among modern poets as they respond to Shakespeare.

Wayfaring Alan Jacobs, 2010-06-28 With Wayfaring, Jacobs continues his tradition of exploring Christian theology and experience by way of the essay. Jacobs muses on the usefulness and dangers of blogging, the art of dictionary making, the world of Harry Potter and an appreciation of trees. Publisher's description

The Great William Theodore Leinwand, 2016-05-02 A unique literary journey through seven great writers' responses to Shakespeare, including Virginia Woolf, Allen Ginsberg, John Keats and more. No writer in the Western canon has been more influential on subsequent generations of writers than William Shakespeare. In The Great William, Theodore Leinwand explores how seven renowned writers—Samuel Taylor Coleridge, John Keats, Virginia Woolf, Charles Olson, John Berryman, Allen Ginsberg, and Ted Hughes—wrestled with this literary titan. What emerges is a constellation of remarkable intellectual and emotional encounters. Theodore Leinwand builds impressively detailed accounts of these writers' experiences through their marginalia, lectures, letters, journals, and reading notes. We learn why Woolf associated reading Shakespeare with her brother Toby and what Ginsberg meant when referring to the mouth feel of Shakespeare's verse. From Hughes's attempts to find a skeleton key to all of Shakespeare's plays to Berryman's tormented efforts editing King Lear, Leinwand reveals the palpable energy and conviction with which these very different writers engaged with Shakespeare. In uncovering these public and private reactions The Great William reveals the inspired insights intense vexations and profound admiration these writers experienced while reading Shakespeare A CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Award winner Approaches to Teaching the Works of Ralph Waldo Emerson Mark C. Understanding Beliefs Nils J. Nilsson, 2014-08-15 What beliefs are what they do for us how we come to hold them and how to evaluate them Our beliefs constitute a large part of our knowledge of the world We have beliefs about objects about culture about the past and about the future We have beliefs about other people and we believe that they have beliefs as well We use beliefs to predict to explain to create to console to entertain Some of our beliefs we call theories and we are extraordinarily creative at constructing them Theories of quantum mechanics evolution and relativity are examples But so are theories about astrology alien abduction guardian angels and reincarnation All are products with varying degrees of credibility of fertile minds trying to find explanations for observed phenomena In this book Nils Nilsson examines beliefs what they do for us how we come to hold them and how to evaluate them We should evaluate our beliefs carefully Nilsson points out because they influence so many of our actions and decisions Some of our beliefs are more strongly held than others but all should be considered tentative and changeable Nilsson shows that beliefs can be quantified by probability and he describes networks of beliefs in which the probabilities of some beliefs affect the probabilities of others He argues that we can evaluate our beliefs by adapting some of the practices of the scientific method and by consulting expert opinion And he warns us about belief traps holding onto beliefs that wouldn't survive critical evaluation The best way to escape belief traps he writes is to expose our beliefs to the reasoned criticism of others A Companion to Modernist Poetry David E.

Chinitz, Gail McDonald, 2014-06-23 A COMPANION TO MODERNIST POETRY A Companion to Modernist Poetry A Companion to Modernist Poetry presents contemporary approaches to modernist poetry in a uniquely in depth and accessible text The first section of the volume reflects the attention to historical and cultural context that has been especially fruitful in recent scholarship The second section focuses on various movements and groupings of poets placing writers in literary history and indicating the currents and countercurrents whose interaction generated the category of modernism as it is now broadly conceived The third section traces the arcs of twenty one poets careers illustrated by analyses of key works The Companion thus offers breadth in its presentation of historical and literary contexts and depth in its attention to individual poets it brings recent scholarship to bear on the subject of modernist poetry while also providing guidance on poets who are historically important and who are likely to appear on syllabi and to attract critical interest for many years to come Edited by two highly respected and notable critics in the field A Companion to Modernist Poetry boasts a varied list of contributors who have produced an intense focused study of modernist poetry The Matter of Capital Christopher Nealon, 2011-04-01 In this highly original reexamination of North American poetry in English from Ezra Pound to the present day Christopher Nealon demonstrates that the most vital writing of the period is deeply concerned with capitalism This focus is not exclusive to the work of left wing poets the problem of capitalism s effect on individuals communities and cultures is central to a wide variety of poetry across a range of political and aesthetic orientations Indeed Nealon asserts capitalism is the material out of which poetry in English has been created over the last century Much as poets of previous ages continually examined topics such as the deeds of King Arthur or the history of Troy poets as diverse as Jack Spicer John Ashbery and Claudia Rankine have taken as their matter the dynamics and impact of capitalism not least its tendency to generate economic and political turmoil Nealon argues persuasively that poets attention to the matter of capital has created a corresponding notion of poetry as a kind of textual matter capable of dispersal retrieval and disguise in times of crisis Offering fresh readings of canonical poets from W H Auden to Adrienne Rich as well as interpretations of younger writers like Kevin Davies The Matter of Capital reorients our understanding of the central poetic project of the last century Penelope Fitzgerald and the Consolation of Fiction Christopher Knight, 2016-09-13 Christopher J Knight s Penelope Fitzgerald and the Consolation of Fiction is a study of the British author Penelope Fitzgerald 1916 2000 attending to her nine novels especially as viewed through the lens both of late style she published her first novel The Golden Child at age sixty and in her words of consolation that is for doubts and fears as well as for naked human loss As in Shakespeare s late religiously inflected romances the two concerns coincide and Fitzgerald s ostensible comedies are marked by a clear experience of the tragic and the palpable sense of a world that verges on the edge of indifference to human loss Yet Fitzgerald her late age pessimism notwithstanding seeks with the aid of her own religious understandings in each of her novels to wrestle meaning consolation and even comedy from circumstances not noticeably propitious Or as she herself memorably spoke of her own deepest convictions I can only say that however close I ve come by this time to nothingness I have remained true to my deepest convictions I mean to the courage of those who are born to be defeated the weaknesses of the strong and the tragedy of misunderstandings and missed opportunities which I have done my best to treat as a comedy for otherwise how can we manage to bear it The recipient of Britain s Booker Prize and America s National Book Critics Circle Award Penelope Fitzgerald s reputation as a novelist and author more generally has grown since her death significantly to the point that she is now widely judged one of Britain s finest writers comparable in worth to the likes of Jane Austen George Eliot and Virginia Woolf James Lee Burke Laurence W. Mazzeno, 2017-12-18 James Lee Burke is an acclaimed writer of crime novels in which protagonists battle low life thugs who commit violent crimes and corporate executives who exploit the powerless He is best known for his Dave Robicheaux series set in New Orleans and the surrounding bayou country With characters inspired by his own family Burke uses the mystery genre to explore the nature of evil and an individual s responsibility to friends family and society at large This companion to his works provides a commentary on all of the characters settings events and themes in his novels and short stories along with a critical discussion of his writing style technique and literary devices Glossaries describe the people and places and define unfamiliar terms Selected interviews provide background information on both the writer and his stories Poetry for historians Carolyn Steedman, 2018-04-13 This is a book about the conflict between history and poetry and historians and poets in Atlantic World society from the end of the seventeenth century to the present day Blending historiography and theory it proceeds by asking what is the point of poetry as far as historians are concerned The focus is on W H Auden s Cold War era history poems but the book also looks at other poets from the seventeenth century onwards providing original accounts of their poetic and historical educations An important resource for those teaching undergraduate and postgraduate courses in historiography and history and theory Poetry for historians will also be of relevance to courses on literature in society and the history of education General readers will relate it to Steedman s Landscape for a Good Woman 1987 and Dust 2001 on account of its biographical and autobiographical insights into the way history operates in modern society

Modernism, Christianity and Apocalypse, 2014-10-30 Modernism Christianity and Apocalypse stages an encounter between the fields of Modernism and Christianity and Apocalypse Studies The modernist impulse to make it new to transform and reform culture is an incipiently apocalyptic one poised between imaginative representations of an Old Era or civilization and the experimental promise of the New Christianity figures in formative tension with the new but its apocalyptic paradigms continued to impact modernist visions of cultural revitalization In three sections tracing a rough chronology from the late nineteenth century fin de si cle via interwar conflicts and the rise of political religions to post 1945 anxieties such as the Bomb this thematic is explored in nineteen far ranging scholarly contributions outlining a distinctive and fresh interdisciplinary field of study
