British Museum Catalogue of printed Books, 1889      Complete Poetry and Prose Louise Labé, 2007-11-01 Thanks to her acclaimed volume of poetry and prose published in France in 1555 Louise Labé 1522-66 remains one of the most important and influential women writers of the Continental Renaissance Best known for her exquisite collection of love sonnets Labé played off the Petrarchan male tradition with wit and irony and her elegies respond with lyric skill to predecessors such as Sappho and Ovid The first complete bilingual edition of this singular and broad ranging female author Complete Poetry and Prose also features the only translations of Labé's sonnets to follow the exacting rhyme patterns of the originals and the first rhymed translation of Labé's elegies in their entirety      Concordance to the French Poetry and Prose of John Gower R. F. Yeager, Mark West, Robin L. Hinson, 2012-01-01 That the poet John Gower was a major literary figure in England at the close of the fourteenth century is no longer in question Scholarly attention paid to him and to his work over the past twenty five years has redeemed him from an undeserved obscurity imposed by the preceding two hundred The facts of his life and career are now documented and recent critical assessment has placed his achievement most accurately alongside Chaucer's Langland's and the Gawain poet's Unique among his contemporaries all of whom undoubtedly read and used French in some measure Gower alone has left us a significant body of verse and prose in Anglo-Norman chiefly the twelve stanza poem Mirour de l'Omme the Cinkante Balades and the Traicté pour les amantz marietz We are offered in this concordance of his Anglo-Norman work a unique opportunity to view a poetic language as it was written and read in England until Gower's death in 1408 and beyond      Prose and Verse Thomas Moore, 1878      Poetry, Bible and Theology from Late Antiquity to the Middle Ages Michele Cutino, 2020-07-06 This volume examines for the first time the most important methodological issues concerning Christian poetry i.e. biblical and theological poetry in classical meters from a diachronic perspective Thus it is possible to evaluate the doctrinal significance of these compositions and the role that they play in the development of Christian theological ideas and biblical exegesis      Bryn Mawr College Monographs, 1915      Le Theatre, 1905      The Medieval Opus: Imitation, Rewriting and Transmission in the French Tradition, 1996 The Medieval Opus is a broad but detailed study of the art of imitation as rewriting that was practiced in medieval French texts and in texts in other languages influenced by French models It contains the proceedings of a symposium on this topic The volume will be of interest to scholars and students of medieval French as well as other medieval literatures influenced by French models The range of texts is broad from epic to romance and from lyric to late medieval lyric narrative genres The authors teach in a number of countries in Europe and North America and they represent a variety of approaches ages and critical perspectives on medieval rewriting Two major concepts inform the papers the bridge work and the specimen text The bridge work Tony Hunt's term refers here to two works that have identifiable links to others and that by those links reveals something of the art of writing for both works Specimen texts are works representative of the art of imitation illustrated by the bridge works The proceedings move beyond the analysis of a general art of composition to investigate original rewriting in specific works that serve as specimen texts The goal of the proceedings has been to appreciate originality within the framework of the medieval art of literary writing     Prose and Verse, Humorous, Satirical, and Sentimental Thomas Moore,1878     Aloysius Bertrand's Gaspard de la Nuit Beyond the Prose Poem Valentina Gosetti,2016-03-22 Aloysius Bertrand's Gaspard de la Nuit 1842 is a familiar title to music lovers thanks to Ravel's piano work of the same name and to specialists of French literature especially those interested in Baudelaire's prose poetry Yet until very recently the collection and its author have generally been viewed almost exclusively through the prism of their pioneering role in the development of the prose poem By placing Bertrand back in his original context adopting a comparative approach and engaging with recent critical work on the collection Valentina Gosetti proposes a substantial reassessment of Gaspard de la Nuit and promotes a new understanding of Bertrand in his own terms rather than those of his successors Through his playful and ironic reinterpretation of Romantic clichés and his overt defiance of the boundaries of poetry and beauty Bertrand emerges as a fascinating figure in his own right This book is one of the first full length studies of Bertrand's work and it will be of particular interest to specialists of the nineteenth century and of provincial literature and to students of nineteenth century poetry or the fantastic     Histoire de la littérature latine chrétienne, depuis les origines jusqu'à Charlemagne Adolf Ebert,1883     Biographie Universelle, Ancienne Et Moderne ,1843     Conceptions of Europe in Renaissance France ,2006-01-01 This collection of essays by ten leading British and French Renaissance specialists explores for the first time differing conceptions of Europe in Renaissance France Four essays concentrate on problems of definition in ideological chronological geographical and linguistic terms concentrating on the relationship between Christendom and Europe Antiquity and its Renaissance heirs and Latin and the vernacular languages of south western France A further three essays address cultural exchange and political collaboration and inevitably conflict between France and England at the time of the Wars of Religion exploring Catholic and Protestant reactions to the battle of Lepanto Anglo French Protestant espionage and pragmatic conceptions of the state based on geography rather than religion The final three contributions focus on the construction of a European identity in the early modern period that defines itself in contrast to a significant other be it Islamic or Atlantic with particular reference to the presentation of Turkish characters in the work of Christian writers exotic travel in the work of François Rabelais and the genre of the Livre des contraires This volume will be of interest to scholars and students of French Renaissance literature and to those interested in the prehistory of our contemporary conception of Europe     Catalogue of the Highly Important, Extensive, and Valuable Library of M. Farrier,2024-02-02 Originally published in 1993 The Medieval Charlemagne Legend is a selective bibliography for the literary scholar of historical and literary material

Continued Matilda Tomaryn Bruckner,2009-01-15 Matilda Tomaryn Bruckner provides the first book length examination of all four verse continuations that follow Chr tien s unfinished Grail story a powerful site of rewriting from the late twelfth through the fifteenth centuries By focusing on the dialogue between Chr tien and the verse continuators this study demonstrates how the patterns and puzzles inscribed in the first author s romance continue to guide his successors whose additions and reinventions throw new light back on the problems medieval readers and writers found in the mother text questions about society and the individual love gender relations and family ties chivalry violence and religion issues of collective authorship and doubled heroes interpretation rewriting and canon formation However far the continuations appear to wander from the master text the manuscript tradition supports an implicit claim of oneness extending across the multiplicity of discordant voices combined in a dozen different manuscript compilations the varying ensembles in which most medieval readers encountered Chr tien s Conte Indeed considered as a group the continuators show remarkable fidelity in integrating his romance s key elements as they respond sympathetically to the dynamic incongruities and paradoxical structure of their model its desire for and deferral of ending its non Aristotelian logic of and both in which contiguity forces interpretation and further narrative elaboration Unlike their prose competitors the verse continuators remain faithful to the dialectical movement inscribed across the interlace of two heroes intertwined stories the contradictory yet complementary spirit that propels Chr tien s decentered Conte du Graal Out of the Mouths of Babies Julie Singer,2025-03-10 A wide ranging study of the rich questions raised by speaking infants in medieval French literature Medieval literature is full of strange moments when infants even fetuses speak In Out of the Mouths of Babies Julie Singer explores the unsettling questions raised by these events including What is a person Is speech fundamental to our humanity And what does it mean or what does it matter to speak truth to power Singer contends that descriptions of baby talk in medieval French literature are far from trivial Through treatises manuals poetry and devotional texts Singer charts how writers imagined infants to speak with an authority untainted by human experience What their children say then offers unique insight into medieval hopes for universal answers to life s deepest wonderings Biographie Universelle Classique.
