The Prospects for a Regional Human Rights Mechanism in East Asia (RLE Modern East and South East Asia)

Hidetoshi Hashimoto, 2015-05-15 Regional inter governmental human rights organizations have been in operation for sometime in Europe the Americas and Africa These regional human rights mechanisms have proven to be useful and effective in comparison to the global human rights mechanisms available at the United Nations The purpose of this study first published in 2004 is to investigate the possibility of establishing a regional inter governmental human rights mechanism in East Asia with a focus on the contributions of nongovernmental organizations NGOs to such a development

The Prospects for a Regional Human Rights Mechanism in East Asia (RLE Modern East and South East Asia) Hidetoshi Hashimoto, 2015-05-15 Regional inter governmental human rights organizations have been in operation for sometime in Europe the Americas and Africa These regional human rights mechanisms have proven to be useful and effective in comparison to the global human rights mechanisms available at the United Nations The purpose of this study first published in 2004 is to investigate the possibility of establishing a regional inter governmental human rights mechanism in East Asia with a focus on the contributions of nongovernmental organizations NGOs to such a development

The ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights Hsien-Li Tan, 2011-07-07 This assessment of progress in Southeast Asia on human rights begins in the wake of the Asian values debate and culminates in the formal regional institutionalisation of the ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights AICHR Chapters examine the arduous negotiation of AICHR the evolving relationship between ASEAN states and the international human rights system and the historical and experiential reasons for hesitancy The text concludes with a discussion of how the evolving right to development impacts upon AICHR and international human rights in general and how their preference for economic social and development rights could help ASEAN states shape the debate

Emerging Regional Human Rights Systems in Asia Tae-Ung Baik, 2012-11 Analyses the emerging human rights norms regional institutions and enforcement mechanisms in Asia

A Selective Approach to Establishing a Human Rights Mechanism in Southeast Asia Hao Duy Phan, 2012-02-03 This book proposes a selective approach for states with more advanced human rights protection to establish a human rights court for Southeast Asia It argues the inclusive approach currently employed by ASEAN to set up a human rights body covering all member states cannot produce a strong regional human rights mechanism The mosaic of Southeast Asia reveals great diversity and high complexity in political regimes human rights practice and participation by regional states in the global legal human rights framework Cooperation among ASEAN members to protect and promote human rights remains limited The time honored principle of non interference and the ASEAN Way still predominate in relations within ASEAN These factors combine to explain why the ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights is unlikely to be strong and effective in changing and promoting regional human rights protection

Accommodating the Chinese Michelle Campbell Renshaw, 2005-04-02 This in depth comparative study demonstrates that the hospital established in China its planning and architecture financing and all aspects of day to day operation differed from its counterpart at home These differences were never due to a single or even dominant cause They were a result of a complex process involving accommodation appreciation negotiation opportunism and pragmatism      A Nation of a Hundred Million Idiots Jayson Makoto Chun, 2006-12-06 This book offers a history of Japanese television audiences and the popular media culture that television helped to spawn In a comparatively short period the television industry helped to reconstruct not only postwar Japanese popular culture but also the Japanese social and political landscape During the early years of television Japanese of all backgrounds from politicians to mothers debated the effects on society The public discourse surrounding the growth of television revealed its role in forming the identity of postwar Japan during the era of high speed growth 1955 1973 that saw Japan transformed into an economic power and one of the world s top exporters of television programming      Making a Market Economy Ning Wang, 2013-10-31 This study investigates the rise and growth of a market economy in the Longlake region Hubei province China Well known in China as the land of fish and rice the Longlake region has a long tradition of fresh water fishery Yet it is the last two decades of the twentieth century that have witnessed the dramatic transformation of fishery from subsistence oriented sideline production to a thriving market oriented economy Based on ethnographic fieldwork this study aims to examine the making of this burgeoning market economy focusing on a set of vital economic institutions including property rights and markets as well as the changing organizational forms in fishery Their evolution and the dynamics between them and the social cultural legal and political settings in which both economic institutions and organizations are deeply embedded constitutes the main substantive theme of this study      Buddhism, War, and Nationalism Xue Yu, 2013-10-14 This thesis examines the doctrinal grounds and different approaches to working out this new Buddhist tradition a startling contrast to the teachings of non violence and compassion which have made Buddhism known as a religion of peace In scores of articles as war approached in 1936 37 new monks searched and reinterpreted scripture making controversial arguments for ideas like compassionate killing which would justify participating in war      Japan's Foreign Policy Maturation Kevin Cooney, 2013-09-05 The sudden end of the Cold War took the Japanese foreign policy community by surprise The Yoshida Doctrine which served Japanese foreign policy so well during the Cold War is no longer a viable foreign policy option This dissertation examines the restructuring of Japanese foreign policy since the end of the Cold War Through a series of 56 interviews with Japanese foreign policy elites the changes in Japanese foreign policy are put into the context of the foreign policy literature      Gender and Community Under British Colonialism Siu

Keung Cheung, 2006-12-14 Gender and Community Under British Colonialism is a study of continuity and change in village communities in the New Territories of Hong Kong China      Postsocialist Cinema in Post-Mao China Chris Berry, 2004-06-01
This book argues that the fundamental shift in Chinese Cinema away from Socialism and towards Post Socialism can be located earlier than the emergence of the Fifth Generation in the mid eighties when it is usually assumed to have occurred. By close analysis of films from the 1949-1976 Maoist era in comparison with 1976-81 films representing the Cultural Revolution, it demonstrates that the latter already breaks away from Socialism      Indonesian Education Christopher Bjork, 2005-06-01
Indonesian Education: Teachers, Schools and Central Authority the first published study of life inside Indonesian schools explores the role that classroom teachers' behavior and locates their actions within the broader cultures of education and government in Indonesia
