Clinical Decision Making for Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioners Thanavaro,Karen S. Moore,2016-03-15 Clinical Decision Making for Adult Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioners provides a systematic approach to clinical decision making for a wide variety of commonly encountered primary care issues in adult and geriatric practice Unlike other textbooks it details a progressive approach to handling such issues by focusing on the complete visit from history intake through management and follow up care The goal of this text is to enable students to learn a systematic approach to clinical problems and use evidence based guidelines to direct their management decisions Designed for both the student and the newly practicing NP this text serves as a guide to increase the practitioner's confidence with the application of assessment skills, diagnostic choices and management approaches. Throughout the text, students will find guidelines for the adult gerontology nurse practitioner role as well as real-life case studies that demonstrate what an NP may encounter in the clinical practice environment. The text is written at an application level, employs up-to-date evidence-based literature and features practice questions, all of which make this a strong resource for certification preparation. DHHS Publication No. (OHDS)., 1982 Safeguarding Adults

Gillian MacIntyre, Ailsa Stewart, Pearse McCusker, 2018-01-26. Safeguarding adults is a rapidly evolving area of professional practice and this timely new textbook provides an authoritative guide that critically engages with the recent developments and encapsulates some of the emerging approaches to contemporary adult safeguarding practice. Written by a collection of authors with a wealth of academic and practice experience and with a strong focus on multi-disciplinary working, the text covers key topics such as Safeguarding adults who lack capacity or whose level of capacity is unknown or unclear. Common issues and tensions surrounding the various UK laws and policies that seek to safeguard adults with mental health problems. Safeguarding older adults with a unique and insightful focus on the perspective of carers. Current limitations in practice including the blurred nature of the boundaries between informal and legally mandated care relating to the safeguarding of people with learning disabilities. Illustrated throughout by engaging case studies to help readers apply what they have learnt to everyday practice. This comprehensive guide to safeguarding adults is essential reading for students across a broad range of health and social care disciplines as well as practitioners looking for an up-to-date source of reference. Safeguarding Vulnerable Adults and the Law Michael Mandelstam, 2008-11-15. The book focuses on how many areas of law apply to vulnerable adults, bringing together an extensive body of case law to illustrate this. Also covered is how local authorities and the NHS may themselves be implicated in the harm suffered. For example, in terms of gross lapses in standards of care and basic dignity sometimes found in hospitals. Assisted Decision-making South African Law Reform Commission, 2004
