Carmody, 2020-05-01 This book offers a detailed history of the development of teacher education in Zambia Also analysed is the nature of education offered at different times and how the teacher and his/her education reflect this arguing the need for a fundamentally new philosophy of education and a mode of teacher formation in line with it

The Economic Impact of Christian Missionaries in Zambia Michael Chanda Chiseni, 2024-07-19 This open access book examines the long term impact of Christian missionaries in Zambia and sub Saharan Africa more generally on education health and economic development It examines how Christian missionaries provided Western style education and healthcare within sub Saharan Africa during the 20th century and how this was provided along unequal gender and regional lines With sub Saharan Africa currently facing challenges in the provision of essential public goods and services the legacy of Christian missionaries in Zambia provides an insightful case study for better understanding how gendered education and regional health inequality have hindered economic development in this region This book offers a new perspective on colonialism and the economic challenges faced within Africa It will be relevant to students and researchers interested development economics and economic history

Encounters between Jesuits and Protestants in Africa Robert Aleksander Maryks, Festo Mkenda, S.J., 2018-01-03 Protestants entering Africa in the nineteenth century sought to learn from earlier Jesuit presence in Ethiopia and southern Africa The nineteenth century was itself a century of missionary scramble for Africa during which the Jesuits encountered their Protestant counterparts as both sought to evangelize the African native Encounters between Jesuits and Protestants in Africa edited by Robert Alexander Maryks and Festo Mkenda S J presents critical reflections on the nature of those encounters in southern Africa and in Ethiopia Madagascar the Democratic Republic of Congo and Fernando Po Though largely marked by mutual suspicion and outright competition the encounters also reveal personal appreciations and support across denominational boundaries and thus manifest salient lessons for ecumenical encounters even in our own time This volume is the result of the second Boston College International Symposium on Jesuit Studies held at the Jesuit Historical Institute in Africa Nairobi Kenya in 2016 Thanks to generous support of the Institute for Advanced Jesuit Studies at Boston College it is available in Open Access

Religion and Education: Framing and Mapping a Field Stephen G. Parker, J. Berglund, David Lewin, Deirdre Raftery, 2019-08-26 This publication makes the case for religion and education as a distinct but cross disciplinary field of inquiry To begin with consideration is given to the changing dynamic between religion and education historically and the differing understandings of religious education within it Next religion and education is examined from methodologically specific perspectives namely the philosophical historical sociological and psychological The authors outline the particular insights to be gleaned about religion and education on the basis of their commitment to these methodological standpoints Overall this publication is concerned with demonstrating the scope of the field and the importance of having a range of disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives informing it

Beyond Intolerance Stella Adamma Nneji, 2018-04-20 There is no gainsaying the fact that the problem of religious intolerance has become a worldwide problem In today's pluralistic society the dialogical tension between openness and identity has become a major challenge for interreligious dialogue and peaceful co-existence This tension is expressed in the question Can one maintain one's own religious identity without one closing oneself off from the other This question is central to the challenges posed on how religious education can contribute to sustainable peace in Nigeria and the world over In this book Stella Nneji critically assesses the various models of religious pedagogy mono religious multi religious and inter religious by asking how these models relate to the dialogical tension between openness and identity in Nigeria a nation perceivably confronted with an enduring history of post colonial strife religious intolerance and violence The contention is that the mono religious and multi religious models which while dominant in current practice and in academia nevertheless fall short of expressing the authentic challenges and opportunities religious intolerance presents in Nigerian multi religious cultural context In this connection this book provides a clear notion of the theological foundation principles and framework of inter religious education and a practical guide for authentic dialogue in a plural context She calls for a paradigm shift for confessional religious pedagogy to a model of inter religious learning as incorporated within the hermeneutical communicative education On this basis the book proposes a new model for the role of religious education in Nigeria This model in a critical enculturated way attempts to recognize the tensions of authentic religious difference presupposing a broad spectrum of difference in the classroom in a way that also incorporates genuine religious encounters and expressions of identity

McBride, Bestern Kaani, Gad Elbeheri, 2023-07-28 This volume highlights the shortcomings concerning literacy development in Africa and collates the current available literature based on empirical research in various countries in a coherent manner Further emphasized is how the current research can guide practical information to improve the literacy situation in Africa The research studies will encompass various fields such as linguistics neurosciences and education and will provide future research directions and instructional recommendations to improve the literacy situation in Africa

Missions, States, and European Expansion in Africa Chima J. Korieh, Raphael Chijioke Njoku, 2007-11-21 Missions States and European Expansion in Africa aims to explore the ways Christianity and colonialism acted as hegemonic or counter hegemonic forces in the making of African societies As Western interventionist forces Christianity and colonialism were crucial in establishing and maintaining political cultural and economic domination Indeed both elements of Africa's encounter with the West played pivotal roles in shaping African societies during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries This volume uses a wide range of perspectives to address the intersection between missions evangelism and colonial expansion across Africa The contributors

address several issues including missionary collaboration with the colonizing effort of European powers disagreements between missionaries and colonizing agents the ways in which missionaries and colonial officials used language imagery and European epistemology to legitimize relations of inequality with Africans and the ways in which both groups collaborated to transform African societies Thus Missions States and European Expansion in Africa transcends the narrow boundaries that often separate the role of these two elements of European encounter to argue that missionary endeavours and official colonial actions could all be conceptualized as hegemonic institutions in which both pursued the same civilizing mission even if they adopted different strategies in their encounter with African societies

The Palgrave Handbook of African Colonial and Postcolonial History Martin S. Shanguhya, Toyin Falola, 2018-01-28 This wide ranging volume presents the most complete appraisal of modern African history to date It assembles dozens of new and established scholars to tackle the questions and subjects that define the field ranging from the economy the two world wars nationalism decolonization and postcolonial politics to religion development sexuality and the African youth experience Contributors are drawn from numerous fields in African studies including art music literature education and anthropology The themes they cover illustrate the depth of modern African history and the diversity and originality of lenses available for examining it Older themes in the field have been treated to an engaging re assessment while new and emerging themes are situated as the book's core strength The result is a comprehensive vital picture of where the field of modern African history stands today

A History of the Church in Africa Bengt Sundkler, Christopher Stead, 2000-05-04 Bengt Sundkler's long awaited book on African Christian churches will become the standard reference for the subject

Higher Education: Handbook of Theory and Research J.C. Smart, 2012-12-06

Crossroads of Culture Lindland, Eric, 2020-02-27 Combining history ethnography and culture theory this book explores how residents in northwestern Malawi have responded over time to the early missionary assertion that local religious and healing practices were incompatible with Christianity and western medicine It details how local agents in the past and today have constructed new cultural forms that weave facets of ancestral spiritualism and divination with Christianity and biomedicine Alongside a rich historical review of the late 19th century encounter between Tumbuka speakers and the Scottish Presbyterians of the Livingstonia Mission the book explores the contemporary therapeutic dance complex known as Vimbuza and considers two case studies each the story of a man confronting illness and struggling to understand the roots and meaning of his affliction In the process the book considers the enduring missiological and anthropological topics of conversion and syncretism and questions the assertion by some scholars that Western missionaries in Africa have been successful agents of religious hegemony

Institutions and Ethnic Politics in Africa Daniel N. Posner, 2005-06-13 This book presents a theory to account for why and when politics revolves around one axis of social cleavage instead of another It does so by examining the case of Zambia where people identify themselves either as members of one of the country's seventy three tribes or as members of one of its four principal language groups Drawing on a simple model of identity choice it shows that the answer depends on whether the country is operating under single party or multi party rule The book thus demonstrates how formal institutional rules determine the kinds of social cleavages that matter in politics Historical Dictionary of the British Empire Kenneth J. Panton,2015-05-07 For much of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Britain was the dominant world power its strength based in large part on its command of an Empire that in the years immediately after World War I encompassed almost one quarter of the earth s land surface and one fifth of its population Writers boasted that the sun never set on British possessions which provided raw materials that processed in British factories could be re exported as manufactured products to expanding colonial markets The commercial and political might was not based on any grand strategic plan of territorial acquisition however The Empire grew piecemeal shaped by the diplomatic economic and military circumstances of the times and its speedy dismemberment in the mid twentieth century was similarly a reaction to the realities of geopolitics in post World War II conditions Today the Empire has gone but it has left a legacy that remains of great significance in the modern world The Historical Dictionary of the British Empire covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Britain The Evolution of Education in Zambia Brendan Patrick Carmody,2004 The Rotarian ,1987-04 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine Education in Zambia Brendan Patrick Carmody,1999 This book fills a gap by providing a much needed history of Catholic missionary education in Zambia It traces the contribution of the Catholic Church s contribution to the development of education in Zambia over more than a century providing more widely an overview of Zambia s educational history and insights into the development of the country s political history It articulates the perspectives of missionaries and officials of education departments of Zambian students lecturers and administrators The study further vividly illustrates how the mission school generated creative tension between modernity and education and Christian conversion and analyses the psychological impacts of religious conversion and how these have been played out in Zambia It argues that in the circumstances Catholic schools have been instruments of liberation in Zambia but duly recognises the ambiguities of modernisation and the need to respect and acknowledge the riches of local tradition Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian,Mark A. Lamport,2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women s education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church s founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian education Biblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education Zambia Jan Kees van Donge, 2000 Since the launch of the Human Genome project in 1990 understanding molecular and clinical genetics has become an essential aspect of modern medical education Solid knowledge of genetics is now crucial to a host of healthcare professionals including primary care physicians nurses and physician assistants This third edition takes this information and incorporates it into a student friendly format that focuses on the core concept of human genetics Each chapter uses the same problem based approach as the previous editions and addresses the important role of genetics and disease by integrating molecular and clinical genetics Some Basics of Religious Education in Zambia ,2007
