East of Empire Erin M.B. O'Halloran, 2025-03-11 From the outset of the twentieth century Egyptian and Indian leaders understood their movements for self determination as linked and part of a shared project Following World War I as connections between the Middle East and South Asia proliferated Egypt and India lay squarely at the heart of increasingly complex and multilateral relations East of Empire traces how anticolonial nationalism gained momentum across the East and documents the friendships rivalries cultural exchanges and shifting political alliances that came to animate the interwar project of Easternism a cosmopolitan vision of the world whose center of gravity lay beyond Europe in the great city of Cairo Erin O Halloran offers a compelling new account of the era immediately preceding decolonization and the epochal partitions of India and Palestine Alongside well known figures like Mohandas K Gandhi Jawaharlal Nehru and Saad Zaghlul she introduces less familiar but no less intriguing personalities feminists diplomats and poets surrealists socialists and spies Each dreamed wrote organized and fought for the liberation of the East a space universally evoked though seemingly impossible to pin down Drawing on a broad cross section of Indian Arab British and European sources East of Empire transcends archival partitions to tell a powerful and nearly forgotten set of stories about the rise of anticolonial nationalism and the end of empire across the Middle East and South Asia

Napoleon's Empire Ute Planert, 2016-01-26 The Napoleonic Empire played a crucial role in reshaping global landscapes and in realigning international power structures on a worldwide scale When Napoleon died the map of many areas had completely changed making room for Russia's ascendancy and Britain's rise to world power

Poems of Nation, Anthems of Empire Suvir Kaul, 2000 In Poems of Nation Anthems of Empire Suvir Kaul argues that the aggressive nationalism of James Thomson's ode Rule Britannia 1740 is the condition to which much English poetry of the late seventeenth and eighteenth centuries aspires Poets as varied as Marvell Waller and Dryden Defoe Addison John Dyer and Edward Young or Goldsmith Cowper Hannah More and Anna Laetitia Barbauld all wrote poems deeply engaged with the British nation in the making These poets and many others like them recognized that the nation and its values and institutions were being defined by the expansion of overseas trade naval and military control plantations and colonies Their poems both embodied and were concerned about the culture and ideology of Great Britain itself an idea of the nation that developed alongside the formation of a British Empire Poems in this period thus flaunt various images of poetic inspiration that show poetry and culture following triumphantly where mercantile and military ships sail Or sometimes more self aggrandizingly for the poet they enact the process by which the Muses use their powers to inspire and show the way Even at their most hesitant these poems were written as interventions into public discussion their creativity is tied up with that desire to convince and persuade Finally as Kaul writes it is their encyclopedic desire to incorporate new experiences visions and values that makes these poems such fine guides to the world of poetry in the long years in which Great Britain was consolidated as an empire at home and abroad
