Proverbs Textuality And Nativism In African Literature:

Proverbs, Textuality, and Nativism in African Literature Adeleke Adeeko, Adé́léké Adéèkó, 1998 Provocative original and consistently engaging It deals with the most significant issues in African literary studies today issues of language ideology and identity that are relevant around the world Christopher L Miller Yale University In one of the first studies to connect anglophone literary criticism with African localist tendencies of nativism Ad k argues that nativism is a highly productive and intensely generative category in the formation of African literature and criticism He shows the complexities of nativism the call for authenticity and identity both in writing and criticism and proposes that virtually all influential African criticism and writing can be discussed under any combination of three varieties of nativism classical structuralist and linguistic In the process of arguing that the nativist temperament is not alien to contemporary literary theory and that the theories do not negate the motivating spirit of nativism Ad k offers a self reflexive reading of representative oral and written national and ethnic African literatures He suggests a deconstructive reading of Yoruba meta proverbs and connects the critical arts of such well known writers as Chinua Achebe Arrow of God Ayi Kwei Armah Thousand Seasons and Ngugi wa Thiongo Devil on the Cross to those of other national and ethnic writers like Femi Osofisan Kolera Kolej and Oladejo Okediji Rere Run Ad l ke Ad k is assistant professor of English at the University of Colorado Boulder His work has appeared in Ariel Imprimatur and Pretexts

Introduction to African Oral Literature and Performance Bayo Ogunjimi, Abdul Rasheed Na'allah, Abdul Rasheed Na'allah, 2005 Rev ed of Introduction to African oral literature c1991

Intertextuality in Contemporary African Literature Ode Ogede, 2011-09-16 Intellectual exchange among African creative writers is the subject of this highly innovative and wide ranging look at several forms of intertextuality on the continent Focusing on the issue of the availability of old canonical texts of African literature as a creative resource this study throws light on how African authors adapt reinterpret and redeploy existing texts in the formulation of new ones Contemporary African writers are taking advantage of and extending the resources available in the existing native literary tradition But the field of inter ethnic trans national African literary inter textual studies is a novel one in itself as the theme of African writers debt to Euro American authors has been the critical commonplace in African literature Detailing the echoes and reverberations the voices of the past have generated and the distinctive uses to which the writers are putting one another s works the book demonstrates that the influence of local stock is significant it is pervasive and widespread and manifests itself in ways both random and systematic but it is a ubiquitous presence in the African literary imagination

African Literature Jonathan P. Smithe, 2002 African literature like the continent itself is enormous and diverse East Africa s literature is different from West Africa s which is quite different from South Africa s which has different influences on it than North Africa s Africa s literature is based on a widespread heritage of oral literature some of which has now been recorded Arabic influence can be detected as well as European especially French and English Legends myths proverbs riddles and folktales form the mother load of the oral literature This book presents an overview of African literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography primarily of English language sources Accessed by subject author and title indexes Current Research in African Linguistics Oluseye Adesola, Olanike Ola Orié, Lenzemo Constantine Yuka, 2015-09-04 Current Research in African Linguistics recognizes and honors O ladele Awobuluyi's contributions to African linguistics The contributors an international group of scholars represent four generations of African linguists who have been influenced by Awobuluyi's work as a scholar and teacher The papers are organized into three thematic sections namely applied linguistics and sociolinguistics phonology and morphology and syntax and semantics and their interfaces The wide range of topics investigated in this volume will enhance the reader's understanding of current issues in the field of African linguistics today Indeed the book marks an important contribution to the expanding work on language documentation and comparative linguistics by presenting data and linguistic analysis from a number of different African languages

Black African Literature in English, 1997-1999 Bernth Lindfors,2003 This volume lists the work produced on anglophone black African literature between 1997 and 1999 This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors Containing about 10 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books periodical articles papers in edited collections and selective coverage of other relevant sources Yorùbá Performance, Theatre and Politics Glenn Odom,2015-06-23 This book explains the connections between traditional performance e g masked dances prophecy praise recitations contemporary theatre Wole Soyinka Ola Rotimi Tess Onwueme Femi Osofisan and Stella Oyedepo and the political sphere in the context of the Yor b people in Nigeria The Tongue-Tied Imagination Tobias Warner,2019-03-05 Winner 2021 African Literature Association First Book Award Should a writer work in a former colonial language or in a vernacular The language question was one of the great intractable problems that haunted postcolonial literatures in the twentieth century but it has since acquired a reputation as a dead end for narrow nationalism This book returns to the language question from a fresh perspective Instead of asking whether language matters The Tongue Tied Imagination explores how the language question itself came to matter Focusing on the case of Senegal Warner investigates the intersection of French and Wolof Drawing on extensive archival research and an under studied corpus of novels poetry and films in both languages as well as educational projects and popular periodicals the book traces the emergence of a politics of language from colonization through independence to the era of neoliberal development Warner reads the francophone works of well known authors such as Léopold Senghor Ousmane Sembène Mariama B and Boubacar Boris Diop alongside the more overlooked Wolof language works with which they are in dialogue Refusing to see the turn to vernacular languages only as a form of nativism The Tongue Tied Imagination argues that the language question opens up a fundamental struggle over the nature and limits of literature itself Warner reveals how language debates tend to pull in two directions first they weave vernacular traditions into the normative patterns of world literature but second they create space to imagine how literary culture might be configured otherwise Drawing on these insights Warner brilliantly rethinks the terms of world literature and charts a renewed practice of literary comparison scholars and students worldwide and across the humanities especially in the fields of theatre performance dance translation and area studies history of science and the humanities and cultural studies Ghana's Concert Party Theatre Catherine M. Cole,2001-07-11 A history of Ghana s enormously popular concert party theatre The Aesthetic Cold War Peter J. Kalliney,2022-10-04 How decolonization and the cold war influenced literature from Africa Asia and the Caribbean How did superpower competition and the cold war affect writers in the decolonizing world In The Aesthetic Cold War Peter Kalliney explores the various ways that rival states used cultural diplomacy and the political police to influence writers In response many writers from Africa Asia and the Caribbean such as Chinua Achebe Mulk Raj Anand Eileen Chang C L R James Alex La Guma Doris Lessing Ng g wa Thiong o and Wole Soyinka carved out a vibrant conceptual space of aesthetic nonalignment imagining a different and freer future for their work Kalliney looks at how the United States and the Soviet Union in an effort to court writers funded international conferences arts centers book and magazine publishing literary prizes and radio programming International spy networks however subjected these same writers to surveillance and intimidation by tracking their movements tapping their phones reading their mail and censoring or banning their work Writers from the global south also suffered travel restrictions deportations imprisonment and even death at the hands of government agents Although conventional wisdom suggests that cold war pressures stunted the development of postcolonial literature Kalliney s extensive archival research shows that evenly balanced superpower competition allowed savvy writers to accept patronage without pledging loyalty to specific political blocs Likewise writers exploited rivalries and the emerging discourse of human rights to contest the attentions of the political police A revisionist account of superpower involvement in literature The Aesthetic Cold War considers how politics shaped literary production in the twentieth century Encyclopedia of Postcolonial Studies John Charles Hawley,2001-09-30 The collapse of empires has resulted in a remarkable flourishing of indigenous cultures in former colonies The end of the colonial era has also witnessed a renaissance of creativity in the postcolonial world as modern writers embrace their heritage The experience of postcoloniality has also drawn the attention of academics from various disciplines and has given rise to a growing body of scholarship This reference work overviews the present state of postcolonial studies and offers a refreshingly polyphonic treatment of the effects of globalization on literary studies in the 21st century The volume includes more than 150 alphabetically arranged entries on postcolonial studies around the world Entries on individual authors provide brief biographical details but primarily examine the author s handling of postcolonial themes So too entries on theoreticians offer background information and summarize the person s contributions to critical thought Entries on national literatures explore the history of postcoloniality and the ways in which writers have broadly engaged their legacy while those on important topics discuss the theoretical origin and current ramifications of key concepts in postcolonial studies Cross references and cited works for further reading are included while a comprehensive bibliography concludes the volume
