Psalms for Preaching and Worship Roger E. Van Harn, Brent A. Strawn, 2009-04-10 Psalms for Preaching and Worship a key addition to the critically acclaimed three volume Lectionary Commentary Despite the rich resources available for studying the Psalms few are as focused on their place in worship and preaching as is this volume The responsorial Psalms of the Revised Common Lectionary are here taken up in careful and often illuminating interpretation with attention also to their interaction with other lectionary texts The many ways that psalms can function meaningfully in the liturgical life of congregations are explored especially in John Witvliet s concluding section I know of no work that combines practice and substance better than this lectionary commentary Patrick D Miller Princeton Theological Seminary A fascinating book well organized well written and edited thorough and informative An excellent resource not only for preachers using the Revised Common Lectionary but also for those wishing to preach a series of sermons on the Psalms In addition worship leaders and worship committees will appreciate the many excellent ideas for using the Psalms in worship Highly recommended Sidney Greidanus author of Preaching Christ from the Old Testament and Preaching Christ from Genesis Here is something even better than a simple completion of The Lectionary Commentary which would be cause enough for gratitude Serious attention paid to this one book could go a long way toward remedying the scandalous neglect of the treasure of the Psalms in too much contemporary worship Marguerite Shuster Fuller Theological Seminary Contributors Nancy R Bowen William P Brown Walter Brueggemann Richard J Clifford Nancy L deClaiss Walford Jennifer S Green Karl N Jacobson Rolf A Jacobson Melody D Knowles Eunny P Lee Joel M LeMon James Limburg J Clinton McCann James K Mead Carol A Miles Luke A Powery Stephen Breck Reid Sandra L Richter Cynthia L Rigby Kathryn L Roberts Brent A Strawn Beth LaNeel Tanner Roger E Van Harn Raymond C Van Leeuwen J Ross Wagner Gerald H Wilson John Witvliet Christine Roy Yoder The Bible in Worship Victoria Raymer ,2018-02-27 Biblical proclamation is central to Christian worship The Bible witnesses to the foundational experiences of the Church Its proclamation invites worshippers into encounter with Christ the living Word The Bible in Worship seeks to make visible how the Bible is encountered in the worship of mainstream Western churches Focusing in turn on the Roman Catholic Reformed and Anglican traditions Victoria Raymer offers a detailed and lively consideration of the contemporary practices of proclamation in each considers their respective patterns of reading the Bible as part of public worship and reflects on the place the Bible takes in daily prayer Raymer also draws our attention towards the role the psalms play in contemporary formal liturgy and offers a chapter on how the Bible is weaved into less formal forms of worship including contemporary sung worship Offering a truly holistic study of the scripture in worship the book will resource readers to reflect on how proclamation invites response in understanding and resolve and to consider how it might do so more effectively Handbook on the Wisdom Books and Psalms Daniel J. Mark Mangano,2005 Sustaining Persons, Grieving Losses Dianne Crowther,2017-01-19 Dementia presents a significant social issue in a hyper cognitive culture where stigma relational neglect and isolation still accompany forgetfulness This raises serious theological ecclesiological and pastoral questions calling for a Christian response To fight against a malignant social positioning of anyone as an empty shell is crucial nonetheless there is another pressing reality the reality of ongoing loss Often the focus is on one or the other side affirming personhood or acknowledging loss and grief Spiritual caregiving and Christian pastoral caregiving are uniquely placed to offer both sustaining relationship and grief support to both caregivers and persons with dementia This pastoral approach emerges from cultural scholarship rigorous on the ground research and theological reflection on God s purposes in responding to persons in and beyond the Christian community Christian communities are called to be places of agape love compassion and hospitality We individually and corporately are called to care to love honor value comfort and sustain one another and one another includes those who travel the road of forgetting and those who travel with them This fresh pastoral approach offers theologically and culturally informed practical ways of sustaining persons in the midst of their losses throughout the dementia journey Encountering Ancient Voices Corrine twenty five years since the publication of the Catechism of the Catholic Church It is also more than thirty five years since St John Paul II called for a new evangelization to be characterized by a new ardor a new expression and new methods The conviction common to the contributors in this volume is that the Catechism flows from just such an ardor Speaking the Truth in Love draws together a group of Catholic scholars and field practitioners to focus on the capacity of the Catechism to be a powerful point for the renewal of Christian catechesis education and culture through its reclamation of the Christian heritage its explanatory power and its compelling articulation of a civilization characterized by faith hope and love A special focus of the book is how the Catechism provides a creative reference point for pedagogical renewal in the Church Since the publication of the Catechism of the Catholic Church in 1992 catechists and pastors of souls have discovered how it has served as a great instrument of the New Evangelization We have awaited this volume as a mature reflection on its vital place in the hope expressed by St John Paul II for a springtime of New Evangelization In these pages you will find testimony on how through the Catechism this springtime is already taking shape Most Rev Mark Davies Bishop of Shrewsbury Province of Birmingham England The Ministry of Cantors Kathleen Harmon,2016 The Ministry of Cantors has long been a valuable resource for music ministry formation This new edition includes valuable insights from Sing to the Lord Music in Divine Worship The revised edition addresses more fully the distinction between the roles of psalmist and cantor suggests further concrete ways a paschal mystery spirituality must undergird both roles and offers practical insights for helping one discern the call to be a cantor New content also explores the power of the psalms to transform those singing into the kind of persons God is calling them to be As with the first edition this new book does not present the how tos of vocal technique warm up exercises diction principles etc Instead The Ministry of Cantors focuses on what the cantor is doing beneath vocal technique surrendering self to the dying and rising of the paschal mystery The aim of the book is to help cantors delve more deeply into who they are and who they are becoming through their ministry the Body of Christ pouring self out in voice breath and prayer for the life of the world Christian Spirituality in Africa Sung Kyu Park,2013-02-06 Christian Spirituality in Africa holistically approaches the convergence of East West and Christian Traditional African religions Its theological historical and anthropological perspectives contribute to a balanced understanding of Christian spirituality transformation in an African context Interpreting the Psalms Philip S.
